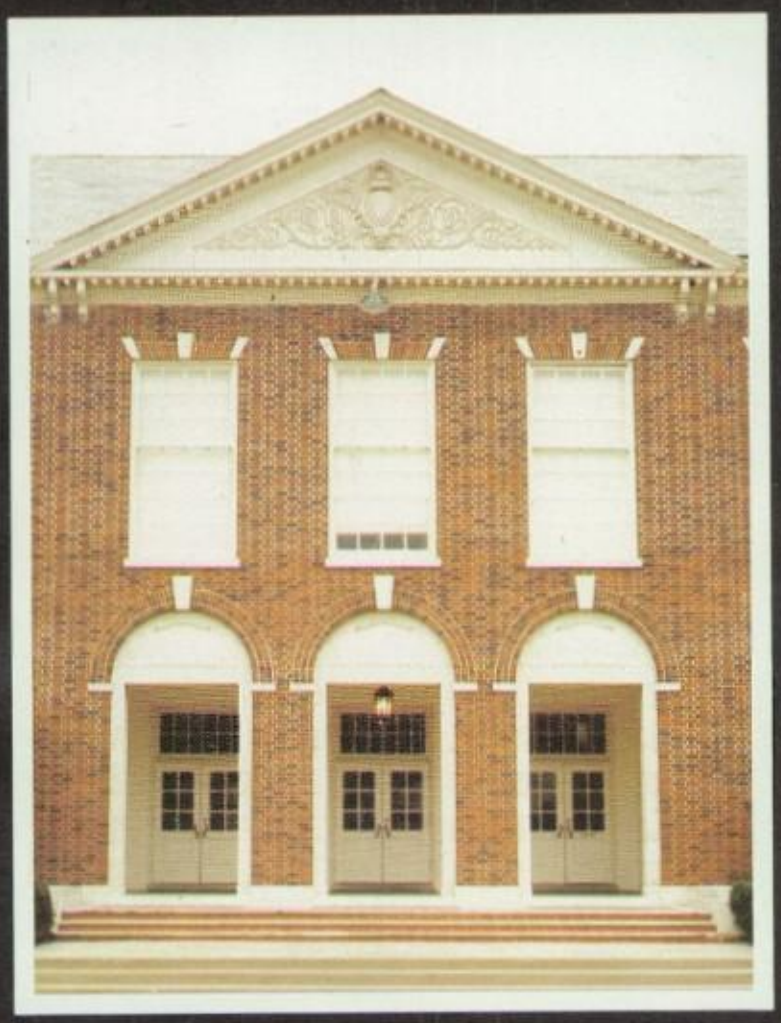
THE HIGHLANDER



After much frustration, agony, and deliberation, we, the Editors of Volume 61 of the 1984 Highlander, finally came up with a theme (believe it or not, every yearbook has one) that was unique to Highland Park High School. We realized that it is NOT the brick structure on 4220 Emerson, in Dallas, Texas with zip 75205 that makes up our school, for the building itself is just a shell. The most important element is the . . .

PEOPLE!

What's the deal?

Oh wow, PEOPLE — in color!

Do you know what a man is? Are not birth, beauty, good shape, discourse, manhood, learning, gentleness, virtue, youth, liberality, and such like, the spice and salt that season a man?

Shakespeare

This one's for you, Scots, in hopes of a winning season.

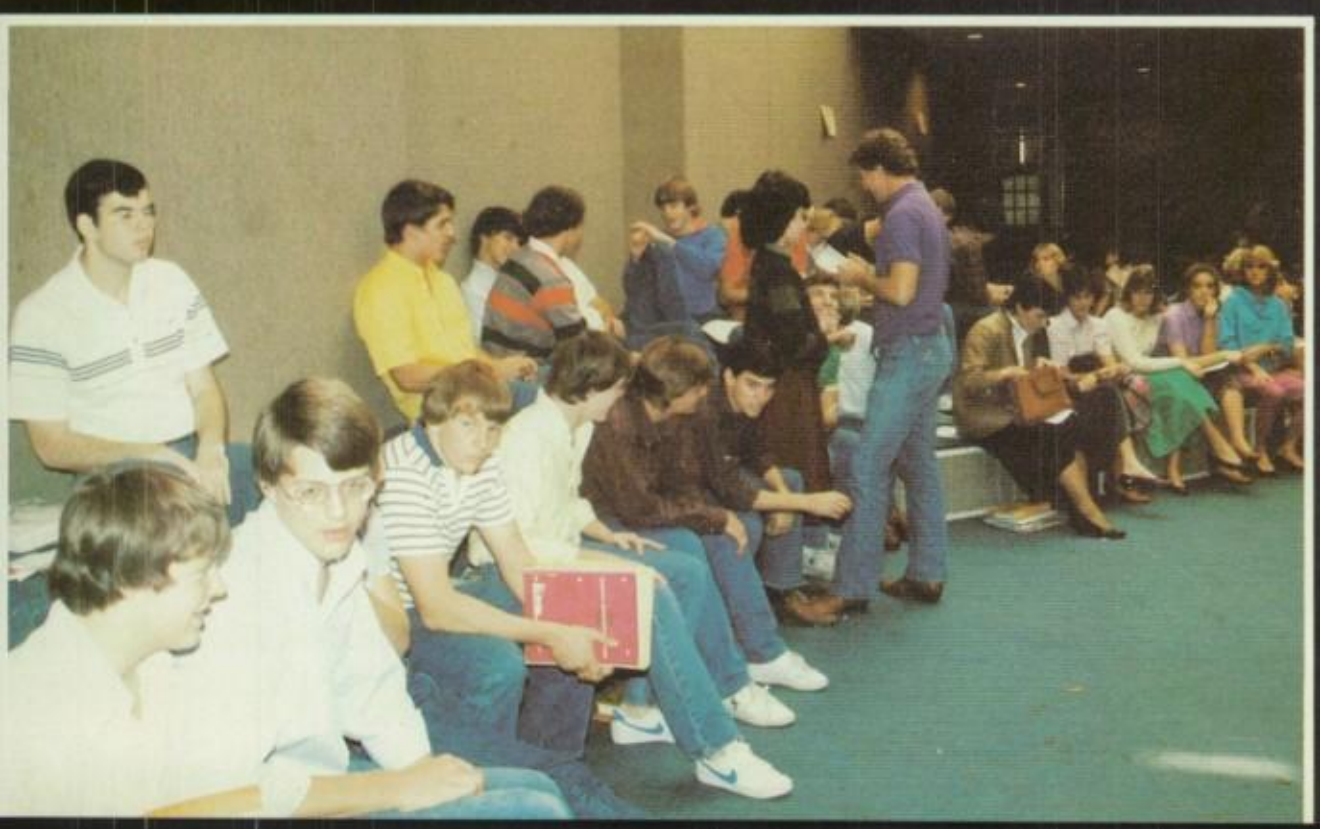
I'm scared: Srs. Julie Briggs and Emily Christian are terrified when they find themselves in a danger zone.

Olé: Craig Harris, Allan McConnell, Brad Lott, and Katie Bywaters sample guacamole to determine this year's winner.

Mr. Bubble: David Richards performs one of the more strenuous tasks that Seniors face.

The Talking Heads: Spooky Brad Duphorne and Clay Sumner frighten passers-by in the "illustrious" Key Club Haunted House.

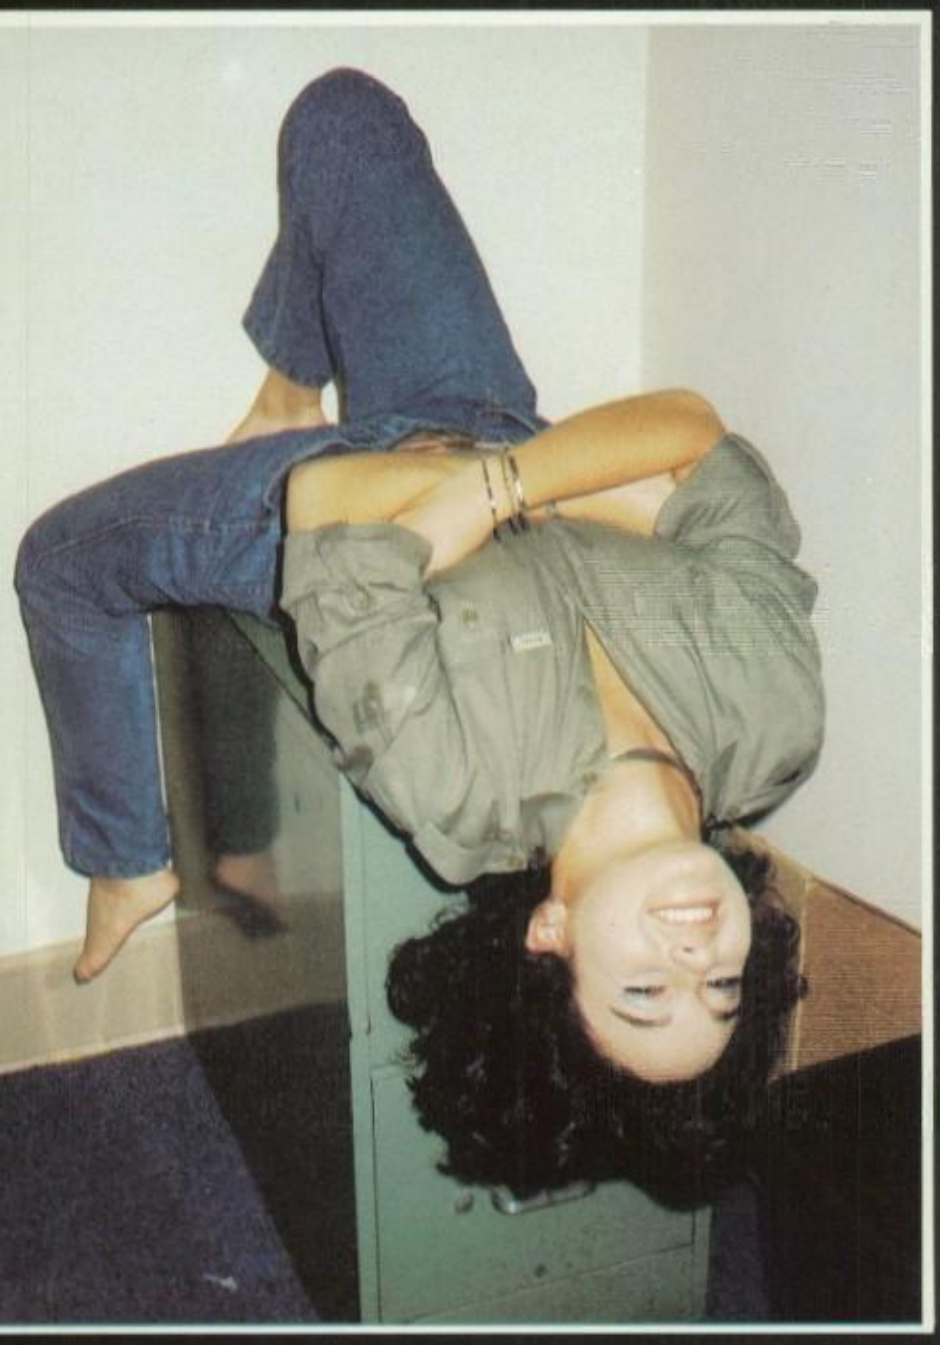
One of life's daily pleasures — conversing in the commons at HP High.



It's about time: The Highland Belles finally receive their much-debated uniforms to perform during the North Mesquite pep rally.

What in the world is she doing?: Jr. Courtney Bobbitt takes a quick break from homework to refresh her brain cells.

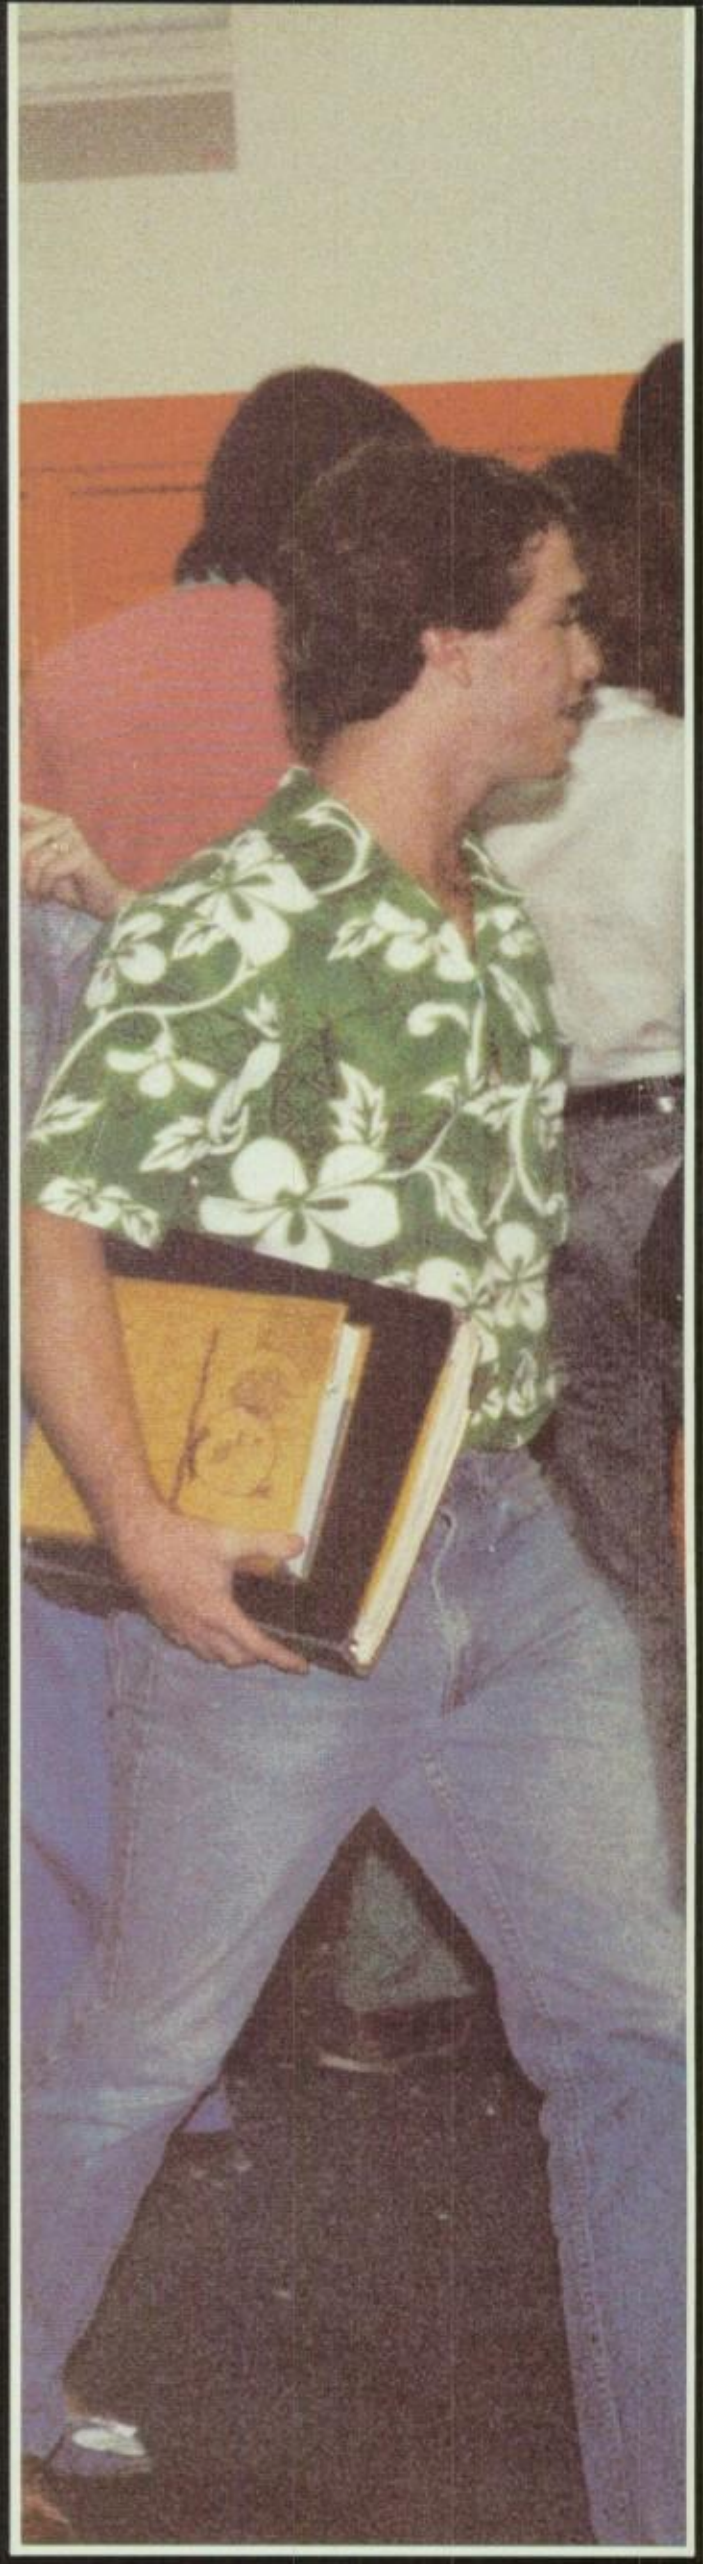
It's time for lunch!



Go Raiders . . . Oops, Scots: Stacy Smith generates spirit for the former Raiders who are now Scots.

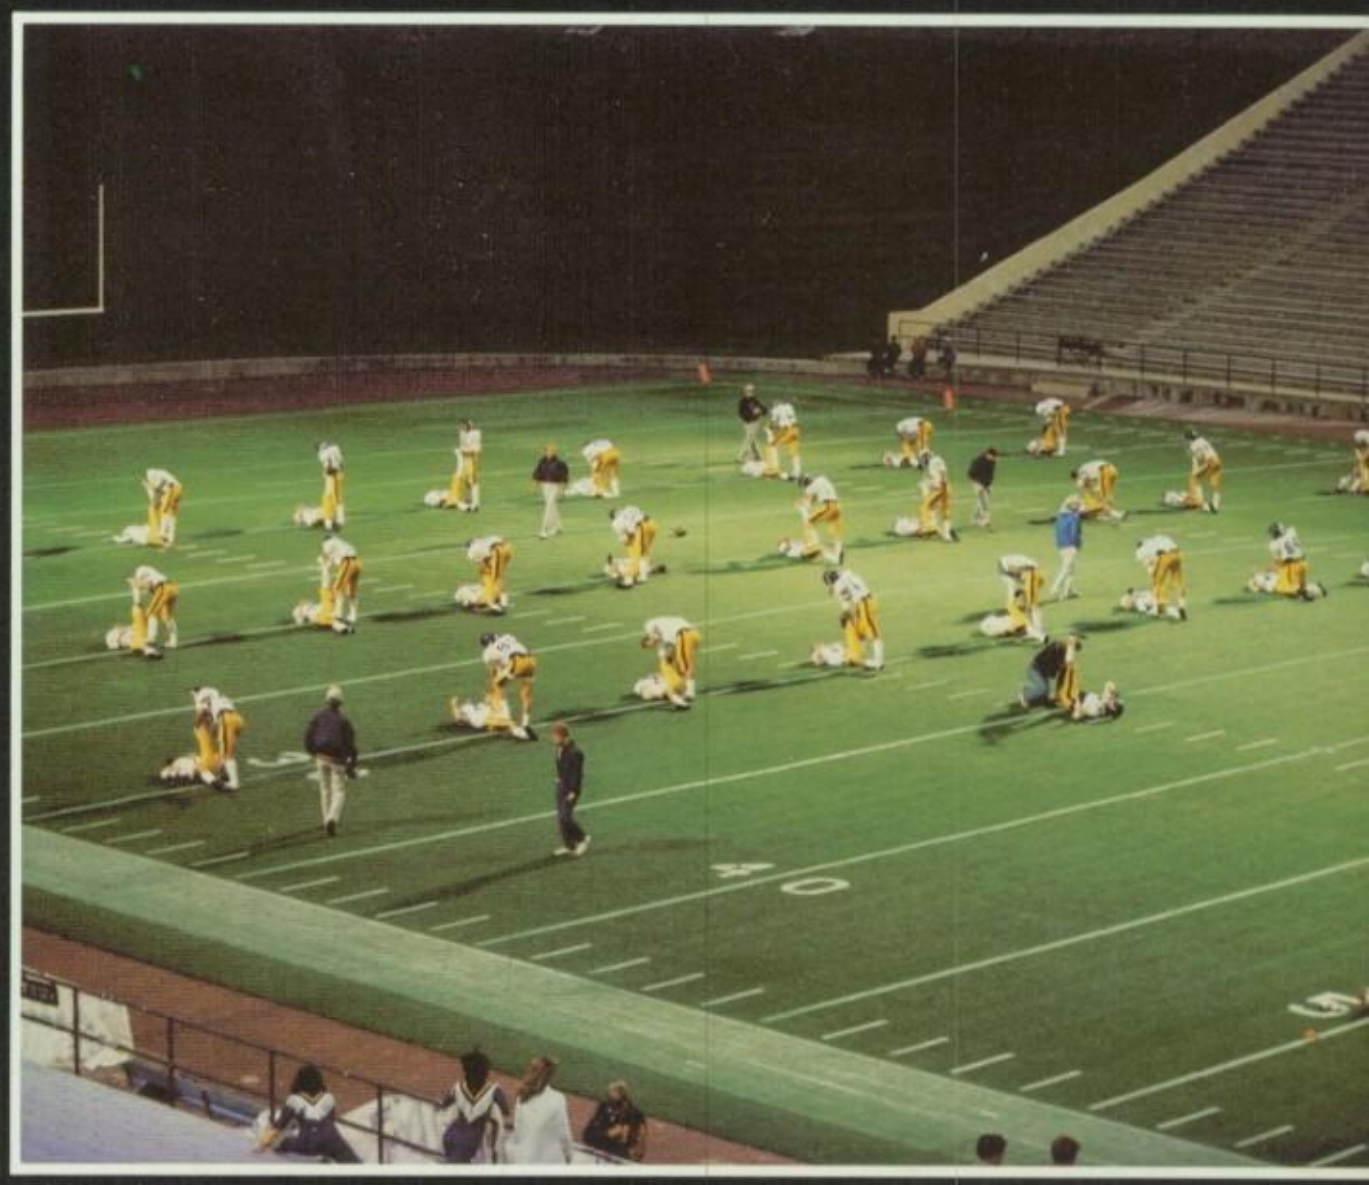
Government, religion, property, books, are nothing but the scaffolding to build men.

Humboldt

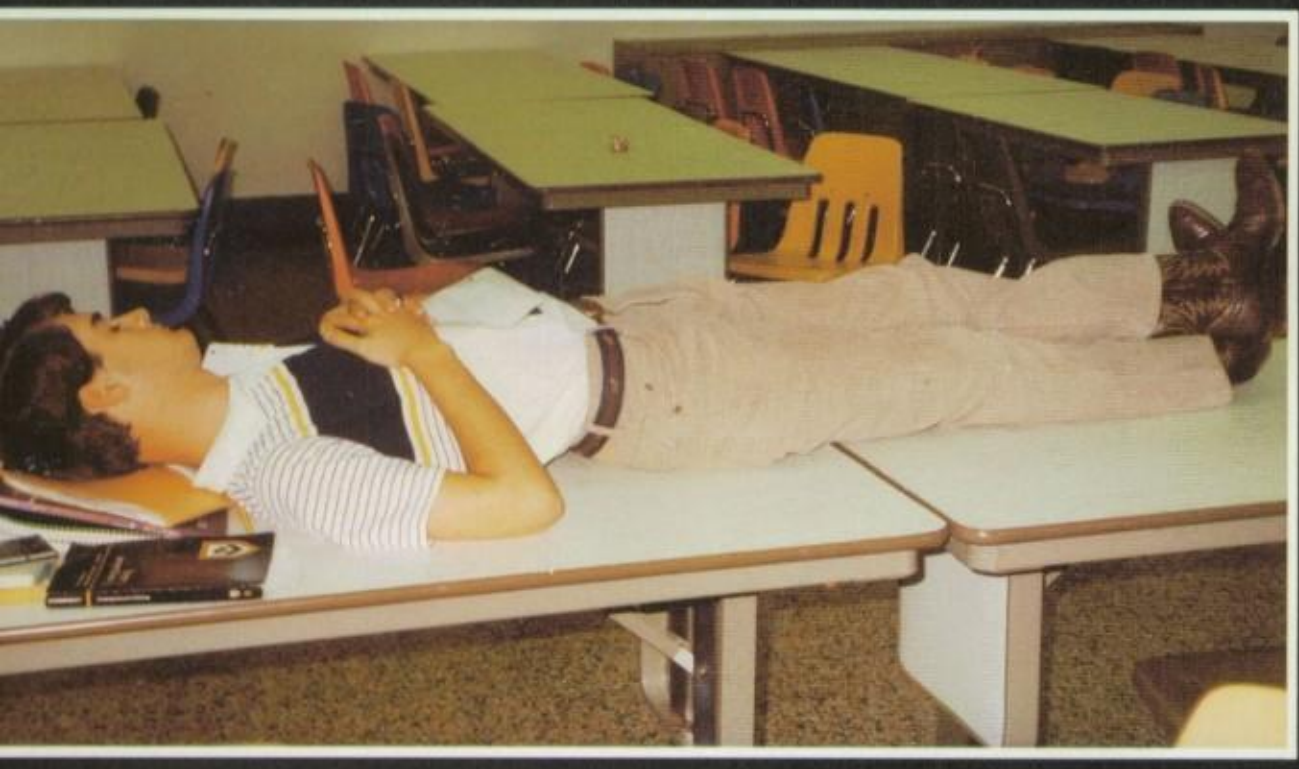


Such Madrigal Singers: Srs. Dana Laird, Lisa Claycomb, and Mandy Jordan vocally display the tunes of the Renaissance.

Straight from Scotland: Jr. Lass Erin Dessain jigs a Scottish fling perched atop the drum.



Stretch 2, 3, 4: The 1983-84 Scots limber up before a game.



Relaaax! Frank Love discovers the true function of the cafeteria tables.

Thanks to "those distinguished young men of the Leo Club," every girl had a clean car on Monday.

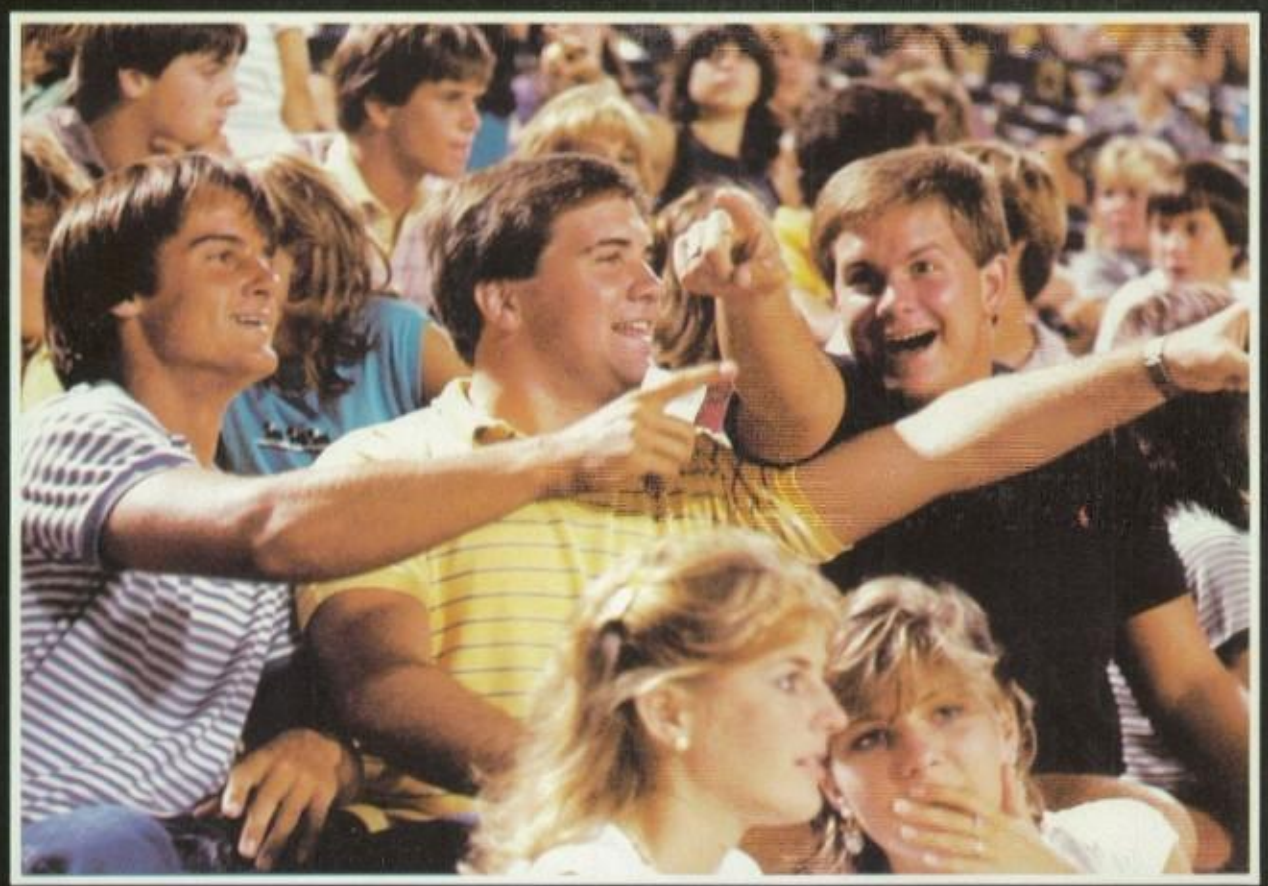
It is not a question how much a man knows, but what use he makes of what he knows; not a question of what he has acquired, and how he has been trained, but of what he is, and what he can do.

J.G. Holland

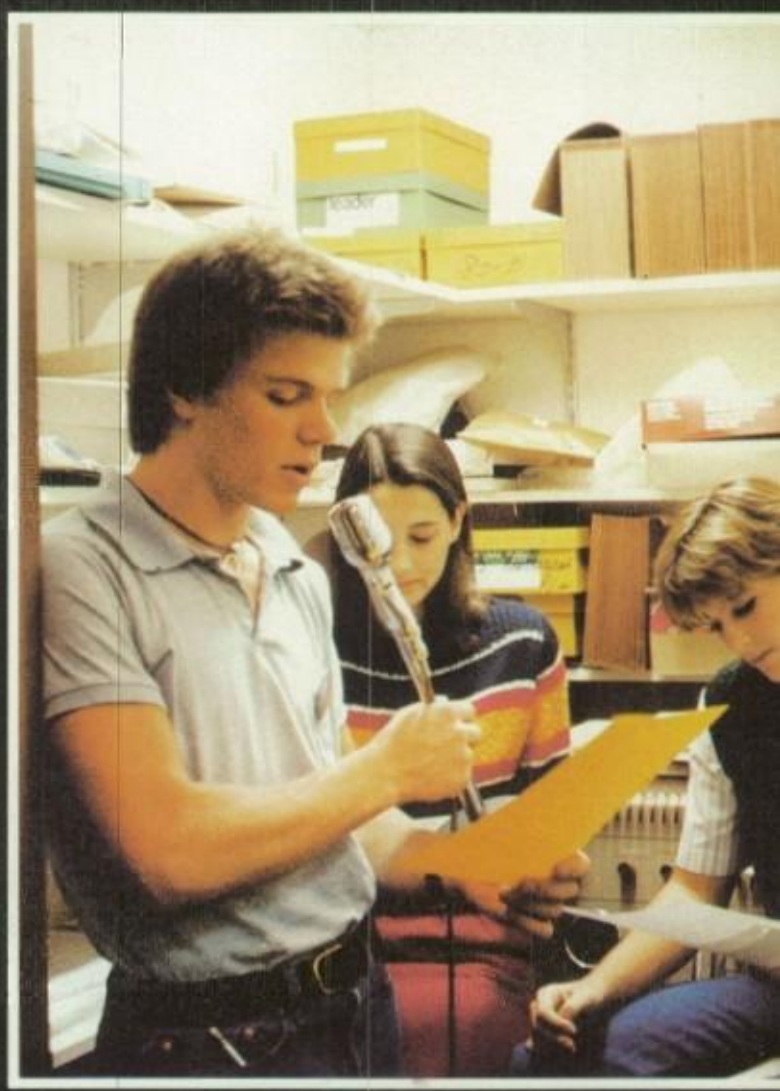
Me Ted, you bear: Ted Kern points out the charm of his tie to his new friend.

Hook'em horns: Texans Kim Martin and Emily Christian lord their victory over Oklahoma fans Molly Martindale and Kathy Hall.

Scots rise above all the rest.



Look at them: Senior guys Fulton Murray, Jim Lancaster, and Lee Orr watch the game, while Beth Fenton and Laura Apeland whisper about them.



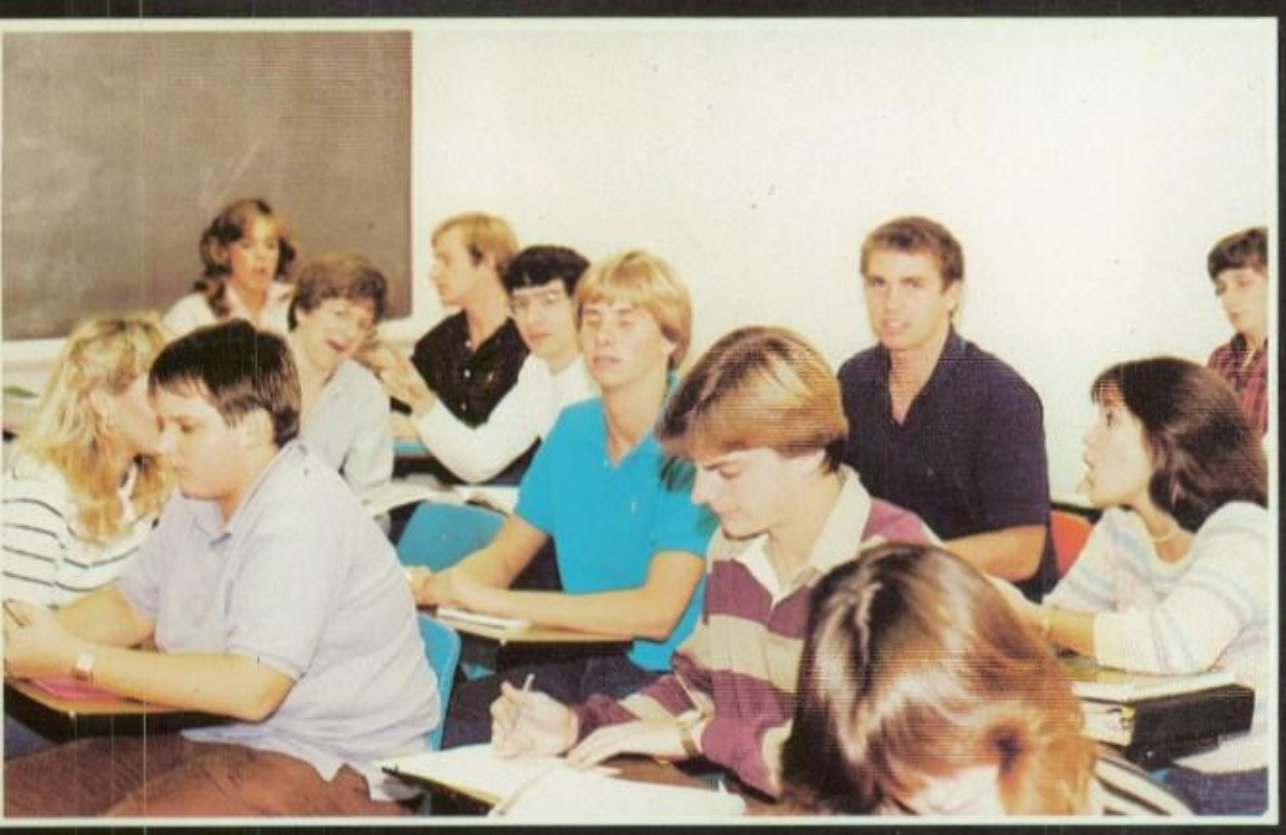
Good morning, announcements for . . .: Josh Larson, Susan Martin and Pam Moore — the voices you've grown to know and love.

De plane, de plane: The Varsity Cheerleaders lead Trey McAnelly, alias Mr. Roark, in front of his ecstatic fans.

. . . The solution always lies with the people.

Saul D. Alinsky

Wash that dirt right out of your hair: Stephanie Holmes and Marea Lange turn up the volume in their hair.



A stimulating environment — the classroom.

Who did you get for . . .

SCHOOL BOARD

1983-1984 was a busy year for the HP School Board. The computers that were installed in the elementary, middle and high schools proved amazingly successful and many more were ordered as HP students entered the Computer Age with enthusiasm. Another program instituted this year was the Decathlon for Academics, a competition started in California, in which students compete in 10 different fields — Math, English, Sciences and Foreign languages.

School Board member Bobby Reed stated that higher pay for teachers was probably one of the most immediate problems facing the School Board this year. The idea of merit pay for teachers, a program that has been successfully adapted in other states, is something that is also inspiring some discussion.

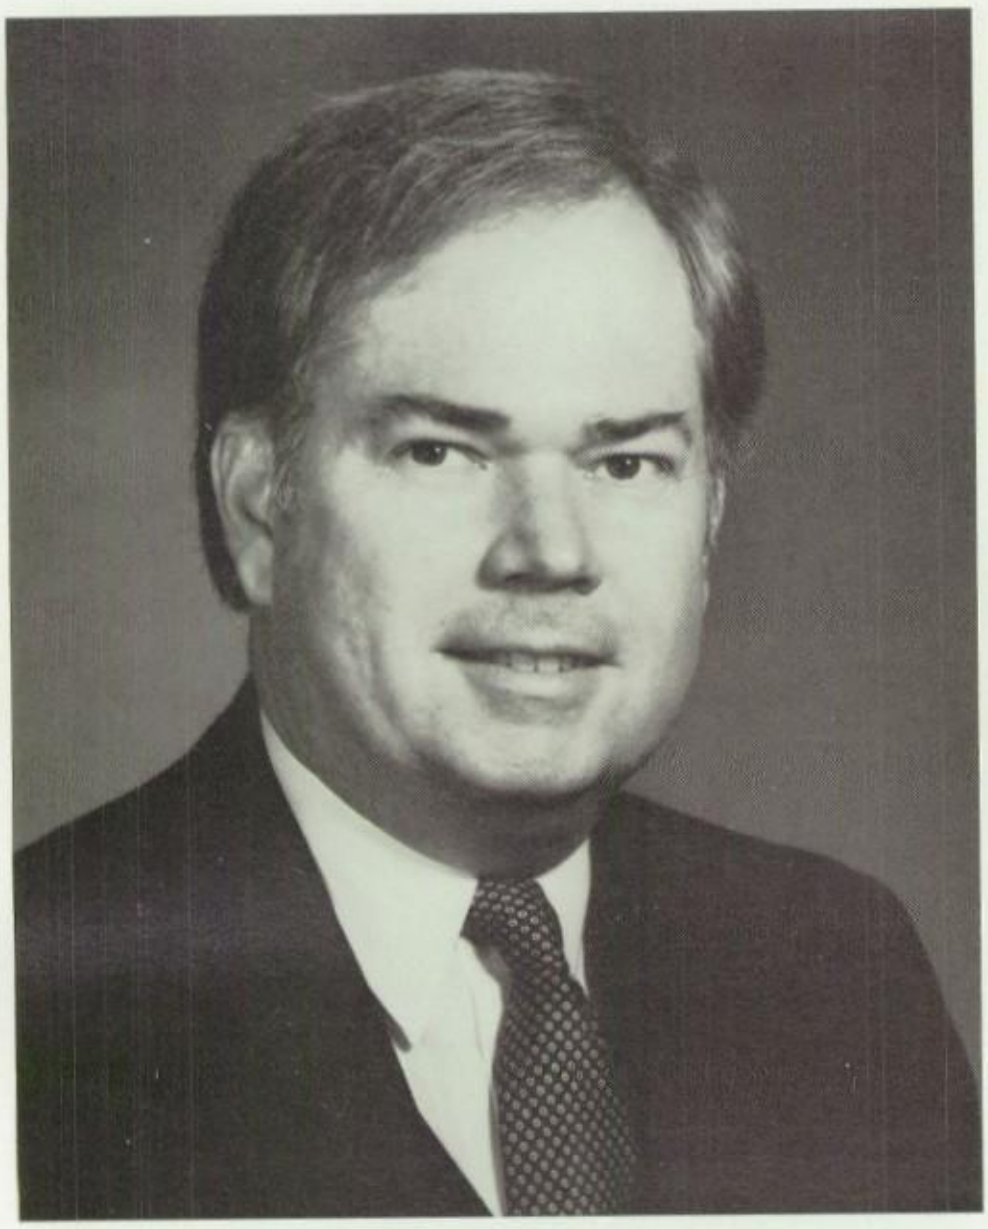
Organization: Darrell Lafitte and Frank Marshall plan the meeting's agenda.

Meditation: Dr. E. A. Sigler collects his thoughts.

The Round Table: Winston Power, Bobby Reed, and Jack Davis discuss goals for the school system.

A Friendly Chat: Bobby Reed and John Eisenlohr take a break from the meeting.

PRINCIPAL



Tom Munroe

Two brilliant minds: Mr. Munroe and Mrs. Dillard discuss the latest HP faculty gossip.

Caught by the camera: Now all of HP knows what the real Mr. Munroe looks like, frozen in time via his pajamas, after he was kidnapped by the HP Orchestra.

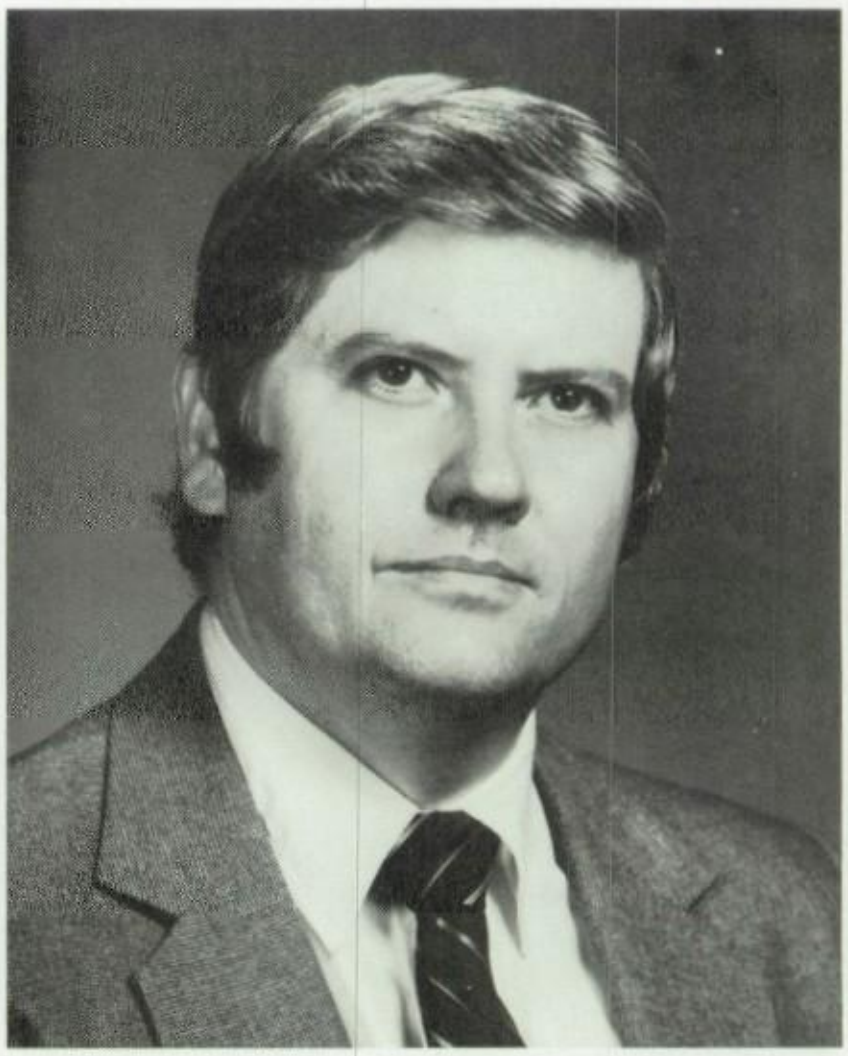
Mr. Tom Munroe, second-year principal of HPHS, has been involved in the HP system since 1962' but according to him, 'it doesn't necessarily get easier. There is much difference between an elementary school principal and one of high school. In the elementary school, Mr. Munroe dealt with everything, but here, he depends on the assistant principals, counselors, etc.

Summer is Munroe's busiest time of the year. It is spent drawing "blueprints" for the upcoming school year. Last summer, he employed many new teachers and was also in charge of HP's Summer School program.

Some of the high points of this year have been the establishment of the drill team and the new computer system. All in all, Mr. Munroe is a very busy "BMOC" with tremendous responsibility.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPALS

Claire Anderson



Don O'Quinn

Mr. O'Quinn, the assistant principal for 10th and 12th grades, is back for his 2nd year in his new position. He is pleased with his job, and feels his efficiency has increased from last year. When asked for his opinion of the Senior class, O'Quinn replied, "Every class has its own song to sing." He continued that it was composed of "many competent people" and excellent leaders. His primary interests include tinkering on cars, spending time with his five children, and stargazing. He even dabbles in physics every once in a while.

Miss Anderson, formerly a teacher and yearbook sponsor, continued her third year at HPHS as the 9th and 11th grade assistant principal. She is an avid supporter of various sports at HP. By the way, she is one of the basketball team's favorite fans. In addition to her interest in school activities, she enjoys needlepointing, collecting antique furniture, reading, and ballooning. That's right, hot air ballooning. Her sister, who lives in Albequerque, New Mexico, treated her to her first balloon ride, and Miss Anderson has been hooked ever since.

Celebrity Corner: Miss Anderson poses with Ben Abruzzo, the first man to fly across the Atlantic in a hot air balloon.

Don't crowd kids: Mr. O'Quinn patiently signs his "autograph" for eager students.

MAINTENANCE STAFF

We don't do windows: Paul McGown and Leonard Cannon stop for a picture in their spotless halls.

Busybee: Norceal McGensy gladly wheels her cart into the closet after school.

Mop 'N Glo: Custodian Wesley Williams diligently shines the floor at HPHS.

It's Quitting Time: Janitor Mao Chea reveals a sparkling high school after everyone has left for the day.

Hoover Hero: Joe Rodriguez wraps up the cord to his trusty vacuum before going home.

Everyone's favorite: A friendly Roscoe Hill was putting away his tools when we saw him in the hall.

What an outstanding group of people keep the halls of HPHS clean. They work after hours sometimes, armed only with vacuum cleaners, extension cords, paper towels, and chalk board cleaner. Under the good supervision of Mr. Montgomery, all who enter the impeccable structure on 4220 Emerson should stop and thank their nearest custodian for their dedication and tremendous effort that they put forth for us.

Rick-

It's been a good year! But don't go crazy on e this summer. If you get ~~drunct~~ drunk and don't nuite me, I'll kill you! Seriously, I'm glad we've become etter friends this year. You are without a doubt my est friend. You always have been. Our friendship has lasted is long, I know it will grow over the years and I hope we can stay out of trouble while we're aving so much fun. Damn! You're the only one who has tayed beside me for all these years. That's why I espect you so much. You've taught me so much since e first meet (about 10 years ago?) and now we have only more years 'till we graduate. You're still the same old reat guy. I hope we get together this summer and raise ome hell. You better watch it, you've got a woman. (But I on't, hint, hint, hint!)

Someday we're going to do all the things we said we ould when we were kids. You'll always be my best friend!

Friends for Ever,

Robert

P.S. Kick Ass in ~~fe~~otball.
My line

Where's the party?

SUMMER

Sun gods: These gorgeous seniors pause for a quick photo and autographs in South Padre Island.

The Lone Rangerette: Ann Smith checks out all the cowboys at the Sky Ranch Rodeo.

Surfin' USA: Brad Traywick "hangs loose" with Richie Collins in California (whose father, by the way, makes Lance Surfboards).

Cel-e-bra-tion: Many HPers jammed with Kool and the Gang at Six Flags Sunday, Aug. 10, 1983.

How macho: Jrs. Brady Giddens, John Stollenwerck, and Trip Wood flex their muscles for Stephanie Holmes, Missy Griffiths, and Laura Wilson.

WOW: Courtney Bobbitt, Jennifer New, and Elizabeth Wylie still can't believe their Best-Overall trophy for their yearbook seminar at SMU.

Smile, Sarah: Sr. Sarah Mullins dreams of running water and drinking fountains while in the wilds on Beyond Malibu with Young Life.

HP boots?: Gary Guthrie outfits the coaches with personalized Scottie boots at the Football Picnic, August 28, 1983.

Tired of the beach?: Michelle Meadows, Anne Worsham, Jana Hobratsch, and Kathy Hall, too sunburned to move, reach for their Harlequin romances in Hawaii.

Vogue material: Erin Boydston, Pam Smith, Jennifer Christen, Laura Loy, and Becky Sander model the latest in hats.

Way to go, Tracey: Junior Tracey Taylor finally gets up on a slalom ski at Cedar Creek Lake.

It's Summer! With screams of joy, HP students fled the brick prison on May 27, 1983. Amidst camps, family vacations, and jobs, some journeyed across the ocean to Europe on People-to-People and AIFS. The drill team (still no name) danced to a Best All-Around trophy at SMU, while all of the Cheerleaders yelled until they were hoarse in San Marcos. HPPC bused it to Jekyll Island, GA, and PCBC partied at Camp Huani the last week of July. On August 11, Young Lifers skied at Cedar Creek Lake.

As the big day loomed closer, most took advantage of the few days left. The Spirit Committee had a last-splash swimming party on Aug. 27. The last day of freedom brought dread and excitement, along with the annual Hi-Lite Picnic and first-ever Football Picnic at Goar Park. In addition, Summerset ran from Aug. 28-31 under the big top. Then, it hit — the 1983-84 school year began at 9am Monday, August 29, 1983.

SEPTEMBER

Make yourself comfortable: Kim Roush, Maury Goode, and Finley Hefner take a break from the hustle and bustle of the Friday night football games.

Is it worth it?: The hardships that students must face to get a locker.

Shut up and dance: Freshman boys refrain from the action at the Howdy Dance.

School. It's September, so we're in for good. Even before the last summer dreams float away, here comes football in the form of MacArthur Sept. 2. Afterwards, the famed Howdy Dance took place with no dates and no AC.

The month of September also brought those fun things like Young Life, pep rallies and skits, pink change slips from the Counselor, football parties, and the annual HP girls' dispute over football players.

The Sept. 14 big Club Assembly was Wed., for all Freshmen and new students. Service Clubs kicked off the year on the 21st, and Open House was that night for the parents only. The Leo Club had a car wash Sunday, Sept. 18 at HPPC. The "Midnight" Pep Rally at Goar Park attracted many before the 1st District game against Mesquite.

Laid-back cheerleader: Kathy Murphey catches some "moon rays" on the sidelines.

College night strikes fear in the heart of every senior.

Dedication: Faithful spirit committee members — Laura Sherrill, Gigi Olmsted, and Bess Banister — perform their weekly task.

What an honor: Sonya Roark is named to the All-American Drill Team.

That looks delicious: Senior Toni Rothpletz is more than happy to support the Orchestra at their bake sale.

Maternal Instincts: Courtney Bobbitt gives Paul Streckmann a hand with his tie.

Welcome, Students: C. D. Shamburger, Fred Smith, Geoff Doake, and Steve Larkin make the new students feel at home at the Newcomer's Picnic.

And on your left: Mr. Munroe tours the principals through the school's sports facilities during the Great Expectations Seminar.

I called him first!: Freshman girls battle it out for football boys.

OCTOBER

What?: Carla Frye gasps when Dinah Miller informs her of the latest news at the Hi-Lite Tea Sunday, Oct. 2, 1983.

All Star Cast: Sheila Wallace, as the Doctor, and Kelty Barber, as the Angel, enact Everyman in Mrs. Brown's 3rd period AP English class.

How much is this? Sr. Tim Merritt questions Miss Duckworth at the Oktoberfest Art and Bake Sale.

Beat Texas: Jr. studs Danny Stansbury, Richard Scoggins, Brent Wingert, and Clay Stanton display their love of the Ponies.

Don't drop me!: Jrs. Craig White and Crozier Sowden try out for Varsity Cheerleader.

October — already? It all started with the Hi-Lite Tea on the 2nd and ended on the 31st with Halloween, the AP Chemistry Magic Show, and the Key Club Haunted House. In between was everything one could imagine! Fair Day on the 10th brought no school for the students, and report cards and North Mesquite were hot topics on Friday the 14th. The Seniors had a Graduation Hoedown at Victoria Station Oct. 15. The Senior Play this year was the Royal Gambit, which ran Oct. 19-22 . . . congratulations to all involved! The last week of October was even wilder with Oktoberfest, the AFS Breakfast, Cheerleader tryouts, and the AFS Dinner. The "Pride is Back" romped over the Garland Owls during the Homecoming game Oct. 28 (See pp. 114—115 for details.) Overall, October 1983 was a very busy month for all at HP.

We hate standardized tests: Juniors Jeff McKenney, Craig Harris, Stephen White, Brady Giddens, Sally Durham, and Ann Conner stumble in half-asleep to take the PSAT.

Homework?: Not much was done Sunday, Oct. 23, 1983, when Lionel Richie "Truly" hit the stage.

Way to write: Srs. Jenny Weil and Dana Laird graciously accept their NCTE certificates from Mr. Munroe.

Get off of me: Unable to control their enthusiasm, the former cheerleaders bowl over the new ones with hugs of congratulations.

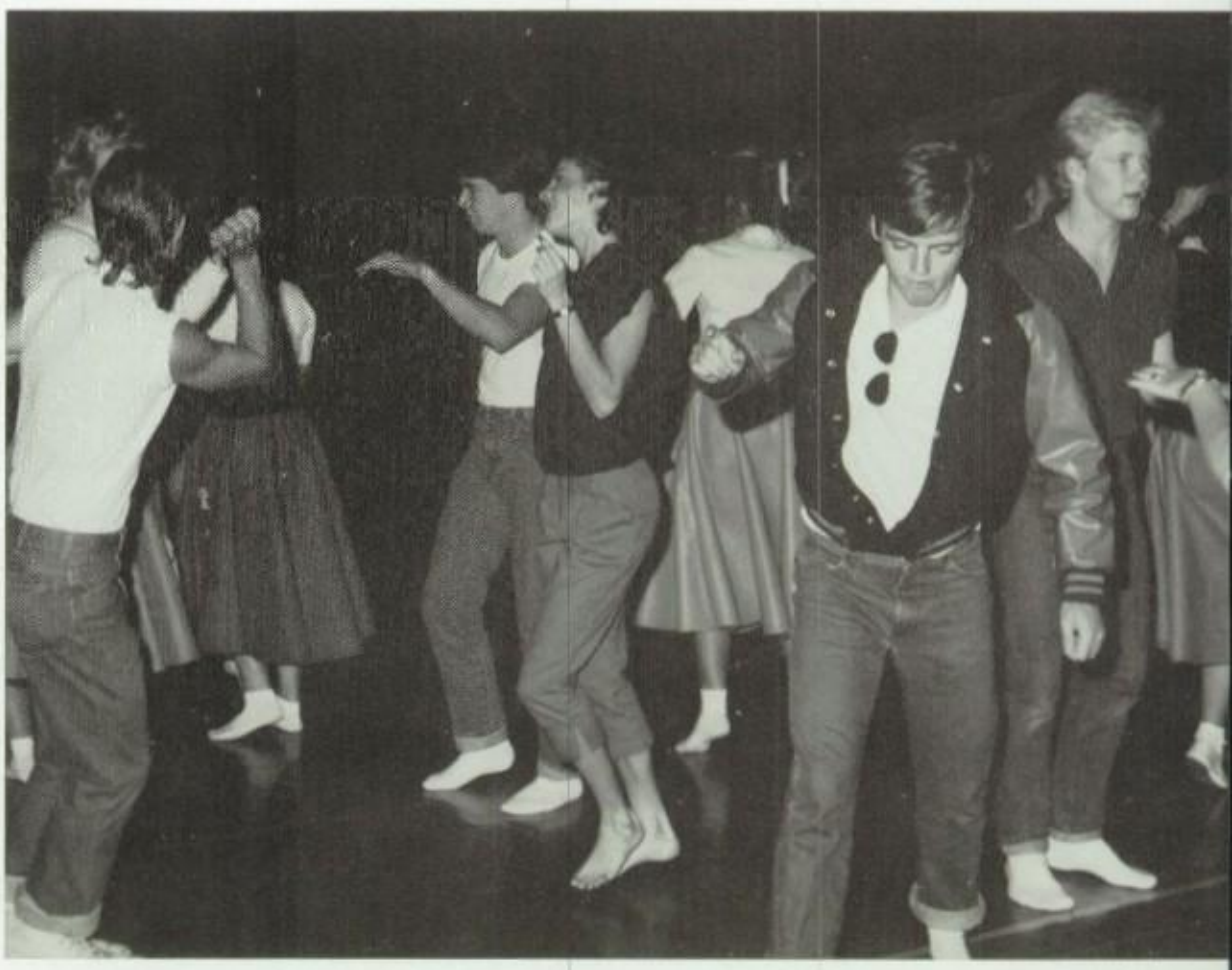
Hokus Pokus: Joey Carlton and a masked Ted Kern display their chemical intuition at the AP Chemistry Magic Show.

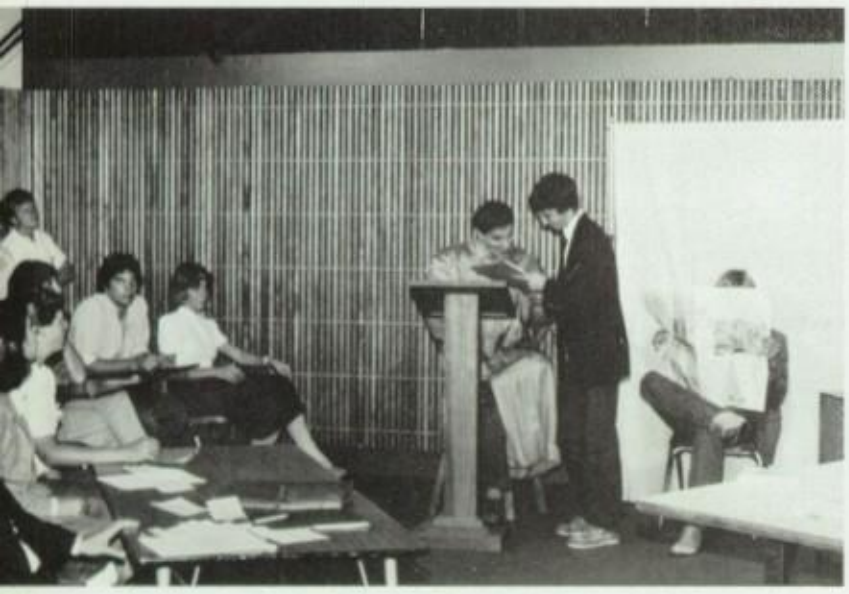
The Senior Play production members . . . enough said.

522-DRIV: Srs. David Nichols, Rett Corson, Rosanne Chantilis, and Page Gunter organize the Night Rider meeting at PCBC.

Yum: AFS students Jon Moses and Tarja Letto enjoy a feast at the International Day Breakfast.

NOVEMBER





Walking in comfort: Students support the Scots by wearing slippers on "Slip past" day.

The courtroom scene: The Business Law class

Rock around the clock: Don Saustad, Amy Taylor, James Caswell, and Peter O'Brien beebop to the beat at the Hi-Lites sock hop.

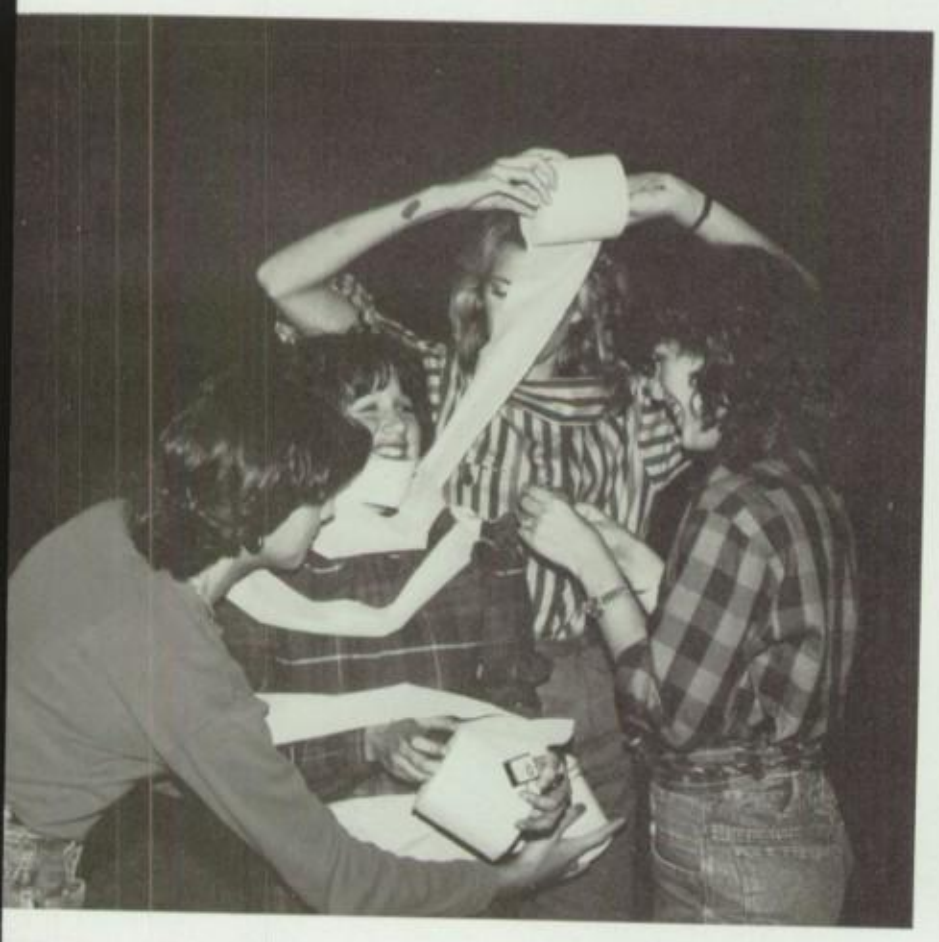
Exterior decorators: Teri Rudolph and Lendy Leggett add some cheer to the buses.

A slight oversight: Bruce and Dorothy Hardy discover that a toaster oven just won't do for Thanksgiving dinner.

Visions of graduation danced in their heads: Stephanie Norman and other anxious seniors fill out orders for graduation announcements.

It's summer: George Seay is absorbed in that incredible publication — the summer supplement.

Pop Music: Park Version members Dana Laird, Richard Hodges, and Beth Barker sing the latest Top 40 hits at the Fall Choir Concert.



All wrapped up: In the process of decorating their football guy's house, Leigh Falb, Susan Porter, Stephanie Storm, and Bettina Longoria find another source of entertainment.

The Police live in concert November 13 and 14 — awesome!

Going on a Manhunt: Dressed to kill, the drill team performs their latest routine.

November brought the first hint of cold weather to HP. Students attended the long-awaited Police concert on Nov. 13 and 14 and danced the night away at the Hi-Lites Bunny Hop on Nov. 19. The HP wrestling team started its season with some tournaments at North Dallas and Richardson. The HP Chapter of the National Honor Society inducted 23 new members on November 8.

HP students flocked to the playoff football games on the 11th and 18th, as the Scots rolled over W. W. Samuell and Richardson. Unfortunately, in spite of a valiant effort, the Scots lost to Houston Klein in the third round of the playoffs on Nov. 26. Scots turned their eyes towards the Basketball team, which started its season on November 22nd and showed signs of being a fired-up group.

DECEMBER

All Smiles: Elizabeth Mayfield and Elizabeth Harper are pleased with the drill team judges' decision.

Christmas Cheer: M. Martindale, L. Duvall, C. Kohler, E. Blaylock, J. Gifford, C. Frye and G. Olmstead don their holiday apparel for a presentation at the elementary school.

Child Labor: David Smith, Jennifer McMordie, Clay Christopher, John Cooper, and Scott Florence haul Christmas decorations to the library for the annual faculty party.

Mom? ... Guess What!: The school board finally announces a snow day, but they forget to tell the students until 10:00!

Don't drop it: The musical crew hangs the backdrops for "Kiss Me Kate."

The month of December brought much excitement to HP students, as cold weather brought the first flurries of snow to the bubble. Many looked forward to the slopes of Vail, Breckenridge, and Utah; others dreamed of the Acapulco beaches.

Before the Christmas Holidays, the wonderful musical "Kiss Me, Kate" was performed from the seventh through the tenth. Drill team tryouts also took place, which doubled the size of the team.

The "illustrious" Key Club held its annual Christmas Formal on the 17th at the Fairmont to the beat of Ultimate Force. Hi-Lites had many service projects to help the needy, and the Band had a concert on Dec. 20. School was finally cancelled due to bad weather on the 21st, but only after all teachers and most students were already on the road.

Look out!: The snowball brigade — Wes Boyd, Matt Baynham, and Edward Slater — shoot to kill.

Wedding Bells: The Highlander proudly announces the engagement of its sponsor, Miss Carpenter, to Paul O'-Connor.

Let's hit the slopes: Highland Park juniors — E. Schooler, L. Roberts, C. Cochran, D. Dreyfus, T. Bernet, C. Beard, G. Beard, J. Bennet — plow through the powder over Christmas break.

"Everybody walk your body:" Forrest Baldwin, Carol Rhubarts, Laura Moerschell, Renee Randolph, and Jenny Sherer get down with Utlimate Force at the Key Club Dance.

Practice makes perfect: 200 hopeful girls perfect their form for drill team tryouts.

Santa for a day: Sandy Spangler acts out the familiar role for a bunch of kids.

JANUARY

Home, sweet home: Miss Anderson eagerly unwraps presents for her new house at a shower held in her honor.

King of the Broken Hearts: Whit Roberts reigns over the Jock Rock dance as Hi-Lite King.

Scots of '94' our year is Here

Dick,
Hope you

year, Good

girls, football and Bast of

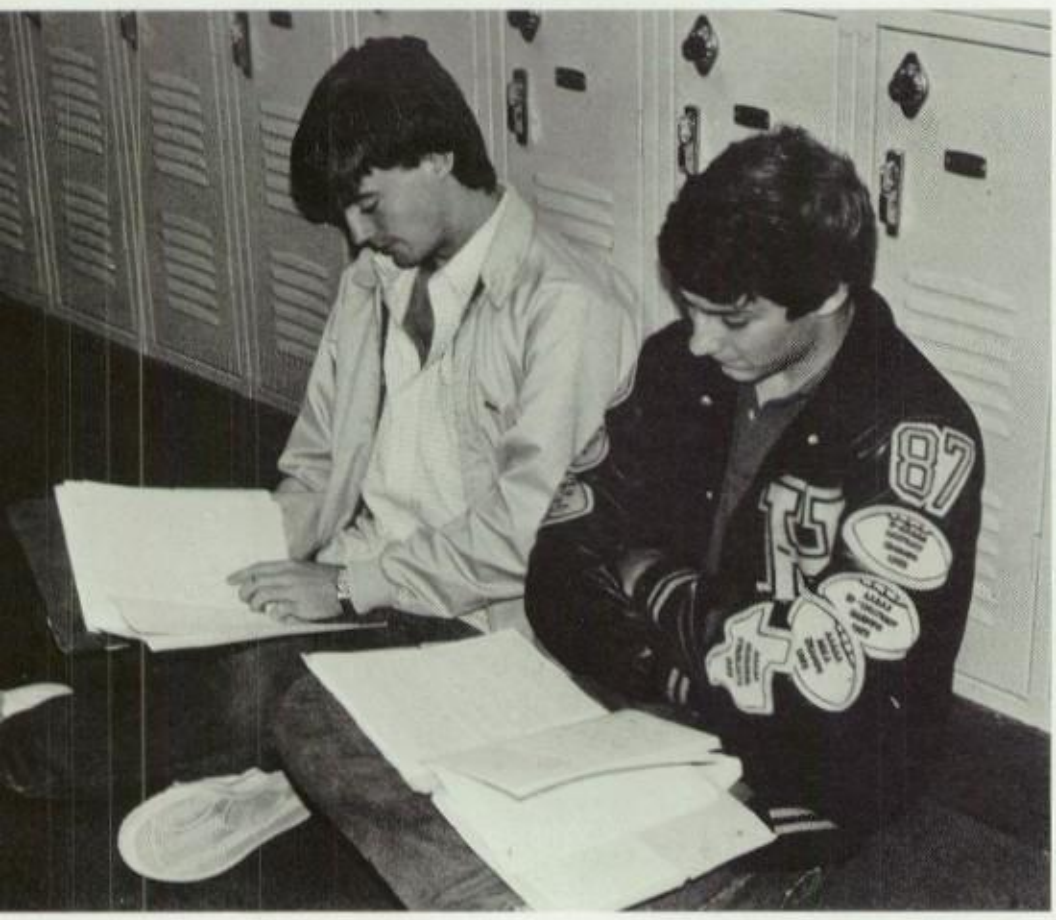
SEE Ya around
Chris

Quick learners: The new group of varsity cheerleaders — Stacy Jacobs, Gilbert Brown, Crozier Sowden, Jimmy Holmes, Leslie McElroy, Andrew Clark, Anna Hampton, Craig White, Lee Roberts, and Grady Vaughn — astound the crowds with their new skills.

Far out: Laurie Wyly looks towards the future at a 2001 senior graduation party.

What happened? Mrs. Vineyard and Mr. Wilkes face a disaster.

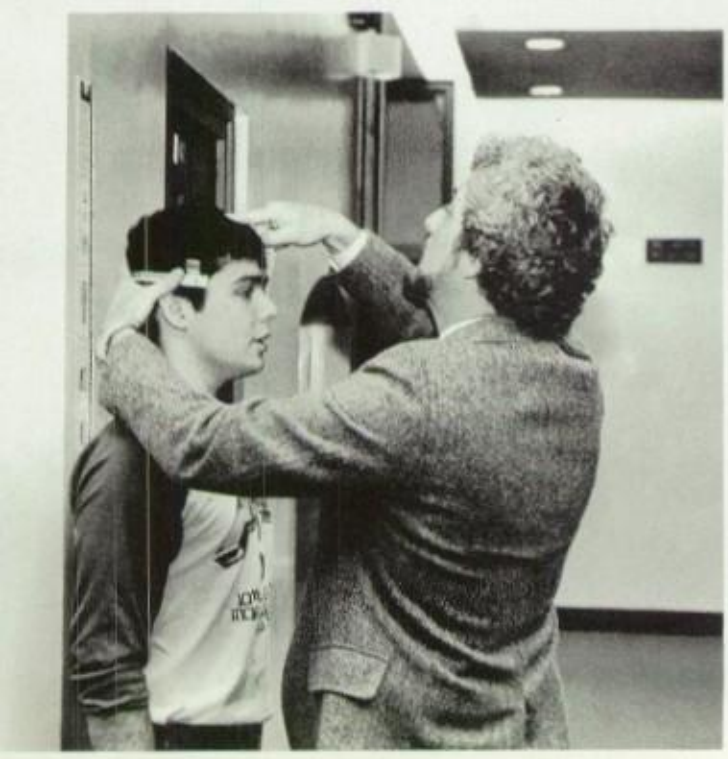
Speech, speech!: Stephanie Storm receives the "Best Attitude" award at the first-ever drill team banquet.



Seniors studying?: James Caswell and Michael Lane temporarily lay aside their senior image to study for their exams.

The Return of the Super Scot: Last year's senior Chuck Smith returns for one last cheer.

With visions of bubbling champagne and streamers still in their minds, HP students dragged themselves back to Emerson and reality with dust-covered books on Wednesday, January 4, 1934. Exams, to the horror of all were right around the corner; therefore, the social life of the following week left something to be desired. After exams, Hi-Lites' "Jock Rock" brightened the scene. This year's Hi-Lite King was Whit Roberts. In addition to the dance, the flood of Senior party invitations began. The graduation parties ranged from simple dinners to 2001 space extravanganzas. Of course, basketball games also captured the spotlight in January.



Less than five months: Senior Craig Lankford lets the thought of graduation go to his head.

FEBRUARY

Assembly of Brothers (and Sisters): Gary Stroope speaks to HP people at the Brotherhood Assembly on Feb. 20, 1984.

I'm bashful: Sr. Football Captain Craig Meek shyly thanks his Tri-Captain Erik Mays after being given the "Forgotten Lineman" Award at the Football Banquet on Feb. 15, 1984.

This hot new flick has gotten everyone to "kick off their Sunday shoes" and go "Footloose" while dancing in the "streets"!

Hearts, flowers, and last but not-at-least confirmed reservations for Spring Break filled HPHS people's minds (instead of homework) during the month of February. Busy was just not the word to describe it, and at HP, it began with the Teacher Appreciation Tea on the 8th, which was set up by the Student Council.

The Junior Girls once again hosted their annual girl-ask-guy 43 months-in-advance bash at the Anatole with the Ultimate of Forces.

The AFS Club got up at the crack of dawn on Tuesday, February 14, 1984, to deliver carnations to all HP sweethearts on Valentine's Day, and the night after the annual Football Banquet took place in the cafeteria, held in honor of all connected with the "SCOT PRIDE" that came "BACK FOR THE '83 ATTACK."

And on the 20th of this fun month, HPers gathered in the large aud. for the Brotherhood Assembly. The choirs and the band also performed throughout February, and Young Life goers jammed with Phillip Sandifer on the 27th.

It must also be noted that since 1984 was Leap Year, February contained its rare 29 days instead of the usual 28.

All smiles: Scot B-ball star Wade Baynham poses for a quick pic after naming Melissa Daniels the 1983-1984 Basketball Queen.

Happy Birthday, Mr. Sargeant, Happy Birthday to you!

And here we have . . .: Seniors Amy Taylor and Whit Roberts not only modeled Culwell and Son's latest, they itemized everyone else's, too.

SENSE is a new organization at HP designed for the "intervention and prevention of self-defeating behavior."

Teachers get hungry too: HP Faculty members swarm the cafeteria on Wed., Feb. 8, 1984, to be honored at the Teacher Appreciation Tea.

AFS

Luce Beliveau

Tarja Letto

This year two students came to live in HP. Luce Beliveau, a senior from Quebec, Canada, arrived in the bubble August 11, 1983. She resides in the home of Lisa Touchon, and she feels "very close to Lisa's family." Her family in Quebec consists of Josee, 19, Andree, 16, and Yves, 13. She speaks French in her real home so she had to learn English quickly. Luce also likes to ski and play tennis, and she is also involved in AFS and Hi-Lites. In Quebec, she went to a much smaller school, so HPHS was tough because she was "lost at first." While in America, Luce cannot hitchhike or drive a car.

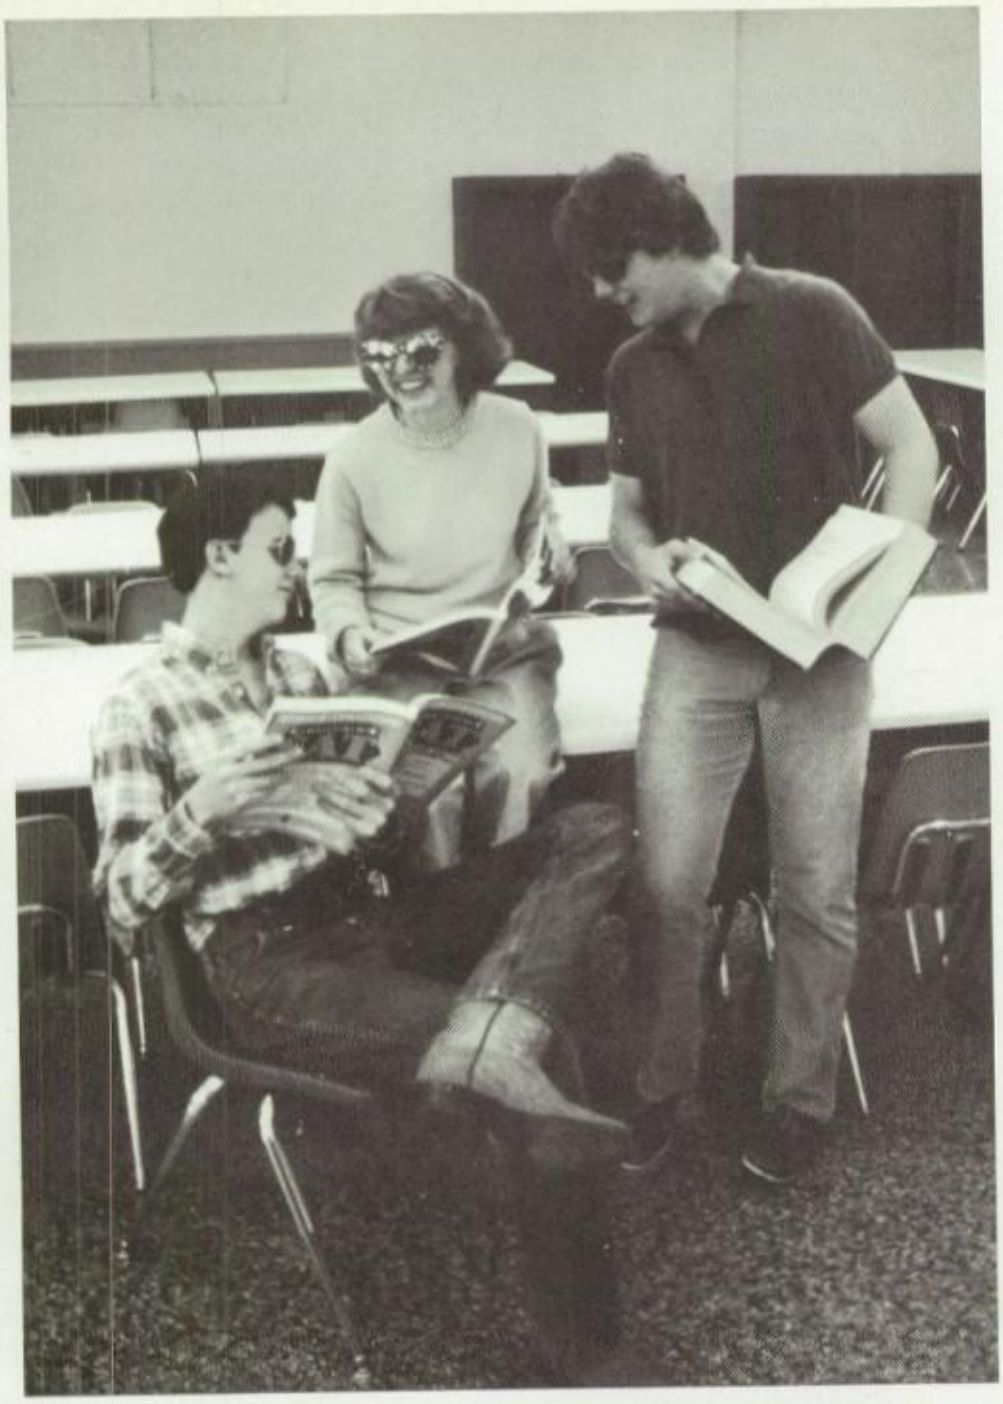
Tarja Letto is HP's other exchange student, this time from Kemi, Finland. Like Luce, Tarja arrived in America in August, and she was very excited because she had been waiting a year to come. Tarja chose the United States because she met someone from New York who told her about the exchange program. America is different from Finland in several ways, for in her home land, Tarja changes her school schedule every six weeks, the cities here are bigger, and there are "no slums in Finland." Tarja has one sister, aged 13 at home, along with her parents, and here she lives with Amy Watson and her family, but she misses her Finnish friends. In addition to liking the weather here better, Tarja enjoys The Police, but hates country music and downtown, because "the buildings are too high." She is also involved in AFS to meet new friends and to practice English, and she is fluent in three different languages.

And in Quebec . . .: Luce describes life in her Maple Leaf county.

"This is fun," exclaims Luce as she roars all over Lake Hamilton.

AFS sisters forever: Tarja and Amy Watson hide their forks at the AFS Breakfast.

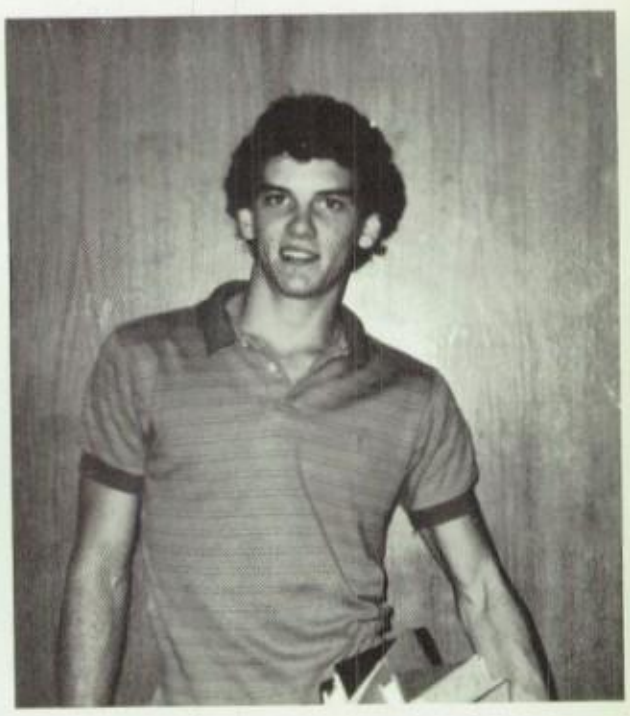
At the Newcomers Picnic in Caruth Park, Tarja and Luce meet more new faces.



NATIONAL MERIT SCHOLARS

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation named three Highland Park Seniors as semi-finalists this year, as well as eleven commendees. The semi-finalists scored in the top one-half percent of the nation on the PSAT/NMSQT taken during the fall of their sophomore year. Commendees achieved their titles by scoring in the top five percent nationwide on the same test. The semi-finalists went on to compete for National Merit finalist standings and for university scholarships.

Matt Dieter, a new student from St. Marks, added another name to our semi-finalist list.



Blinded by the light: Semi-finalists Mark Perdue, Dana Laird, and Bill Kennedy are dazzled by their own brilliance.

Last but not least: HP's newest semi-finalist . . . Matt Dieter.

ROYAL GAMBIT

This year's Senior Play, the Royal Gambit, was spectacular! Mrs. Raya directed the play with the help of Julie Briggs and Gigi Olmstead, her stage managers. Mr. Day designed and supervised the construction of the set. Royal Gambit is the story of Henry VIII and his six wives. Since most of the previous Senior productions were comedies, the cast was not sure how the student body would react to a dramatic presentation; however, the play was a smashing success.

In addition to the play itself, a Renaissance festival took place in the foyer which featured everything from mime artists to jugglers.

The Royal Gambit set: A masterpiece in itself.

Behind the scenes: Susan Martin puts on the finishing touches.

What a dilemma: Josh Larson is not sure he wants his new wife, Stefani Miller after all.

Standing O: The actors and actresses behind it all.

Out of my way: Josh Larson loses patience with Molly Martindale.

Daddy's Little Girl: Homecoming Queen nominees and their dads pause for a quick picture at the football game.

HP's official Homecoming began with a bang on Friday, October 28, 1984, with a 28-7 Scot victory over the Garland Owls.

The annual dance took place the following night to the theme of "Puttin' on the Ritz" in the new gym. Parkies jammed to the Condominiums. Each nominee, who was chosen by the football team, walked down the aisle with her escort to her favorite tune: Tracy Adleta — "Islands in the Stream"; Lendy Leggett — "Titles"; Teri Rudolph — "I'll Be There"; Jeannie Smith — "My Father's Eyes"; Julie Terry — "You and I"; and Anne Worsham — "What a Difference You Made in My Life." Afterwards, Student Council President Wade Baynham pronounced Teri Rudolph the 1983-84 HP Homecoming Queen.

Although the scenes were late in coming together, and there were only 20 rehearsals, this year's musical was quite a show! Drama and choir students combined their efforts to present the ever-popular "Kiss Me, Kate," which ran from December 7-10. Sophomore Amy Meyers played opposite Senior Josh Larson, the leading man.

Competing for Senior Priscilla Chalk's affections were Gilbert Brown, Adam Newman, and Craig van Dernoot.

Mrs. Raya and Mr. Sargent headed the direction along with stage managers Carolyn Blankenship, Lisa Goolsby, Susan Martin, and Molly Martindale. Mrs. Gail Giltner did a tremendous job with the orchestra, also.

o tough dudes: Andrew Clark and Richard Hodges threaten Josh rson.

mine: Craig van Dernoot competes for Priscilla Chalk's love.

autiful noise: Mrs. Giltner skillfully conducts the orchestra.

The Rehearsal Hall: A few members of the chorus take a break backstage before the "Taming of the Shrew."

Sticks and Stones . . . and Bread?: Lucy Meyers takes her anger out on Gilbert Brown and Adam Newman.

Wunderbar: Lucy Meyers and Josh Larson sing of former days.

Athletics vs. Academics

While the scholar pours over his Calculus text, the jock is working on his punt or perfecting his backhand. The question presented before us today is a difficult one: Which is more important, extra-curricular activities or academics?

Many influential Dallasites are of the opinion that extra-curricular activities "can no longer be the forces that disrupt our classes and dominate our schools." Not only do they desire fewer soft elective courses and the elimination of many organized sports, they also urge longer school days in order to "turn our schools into places of learning."

Nevertheless, the athletes and many fans disagree. They feel that sports and other activities are essential in the development of well-rounded individuals. And so, the battle continues and the ubiquitous question goes unanswered.

Student Council

I think they're in this one: Sr. Jeannie Smith reaches for the tale-telling envelope during the Sr. Class Officer elections as Coach Holmes discovers more ballots!

Somebody stole my lunch: President Baynham searches his secret compartment in the SC file cabinet for hidden treats.

Work before play: Fulton Murray and Kit Canon do a little more SC business before making their way down to the Commons.

The Student Council saw the successful publication of another issue of The Clan this year and sponsored two dances. The traditional Howdy Week and Howdy Dance started the year in a friendly fashion. At the dance, the Super Scot spies and friendliest boys and girls were presented to the cheering party-goers. At the Homecoming Dance in October, Teri Rudolph was crowned Queen while the Condominiums played the theme of "Puttin' on the Ritz."

Special tasks that the council accomplished were headed by individual Student Council members. Kit Canon was in charge of the football caravans, while Hilary Smith designed the comical cover for The Clan. Susan Martin helped in the production of the Clan, spending countless hours proofreading addresses and phone numbers.

In February the Student Council again paid tribute to the HP teachers with its traditional faculty tea. Molly Martindale performed a dialogue (taking both parts), and Wade Baynham, Jeannie Smith and Amy Meyers sang.

Hard-working sponsors of the Student Council were Mrs. Vineyard and Coach Holmes. And for the trivia buffs, the 83-84 Super Scot spies were Freshmen Kendall Jordan and Rip West; Sophomores Matt Baynham and C. B. Gunter; Juniors Polly Simpkins and Tie Sosnowski; Seniors Lee Johnston and Nancy Truitt.

Smooth all the bumps: SC Executives Hilary Smith, Jeannie Smith, Susan Martin, and Sheila Wallace prepare for the mad rush of hungry teachers at the Teacher Appreciation Tea on Wed., Feb. 8, 1984.

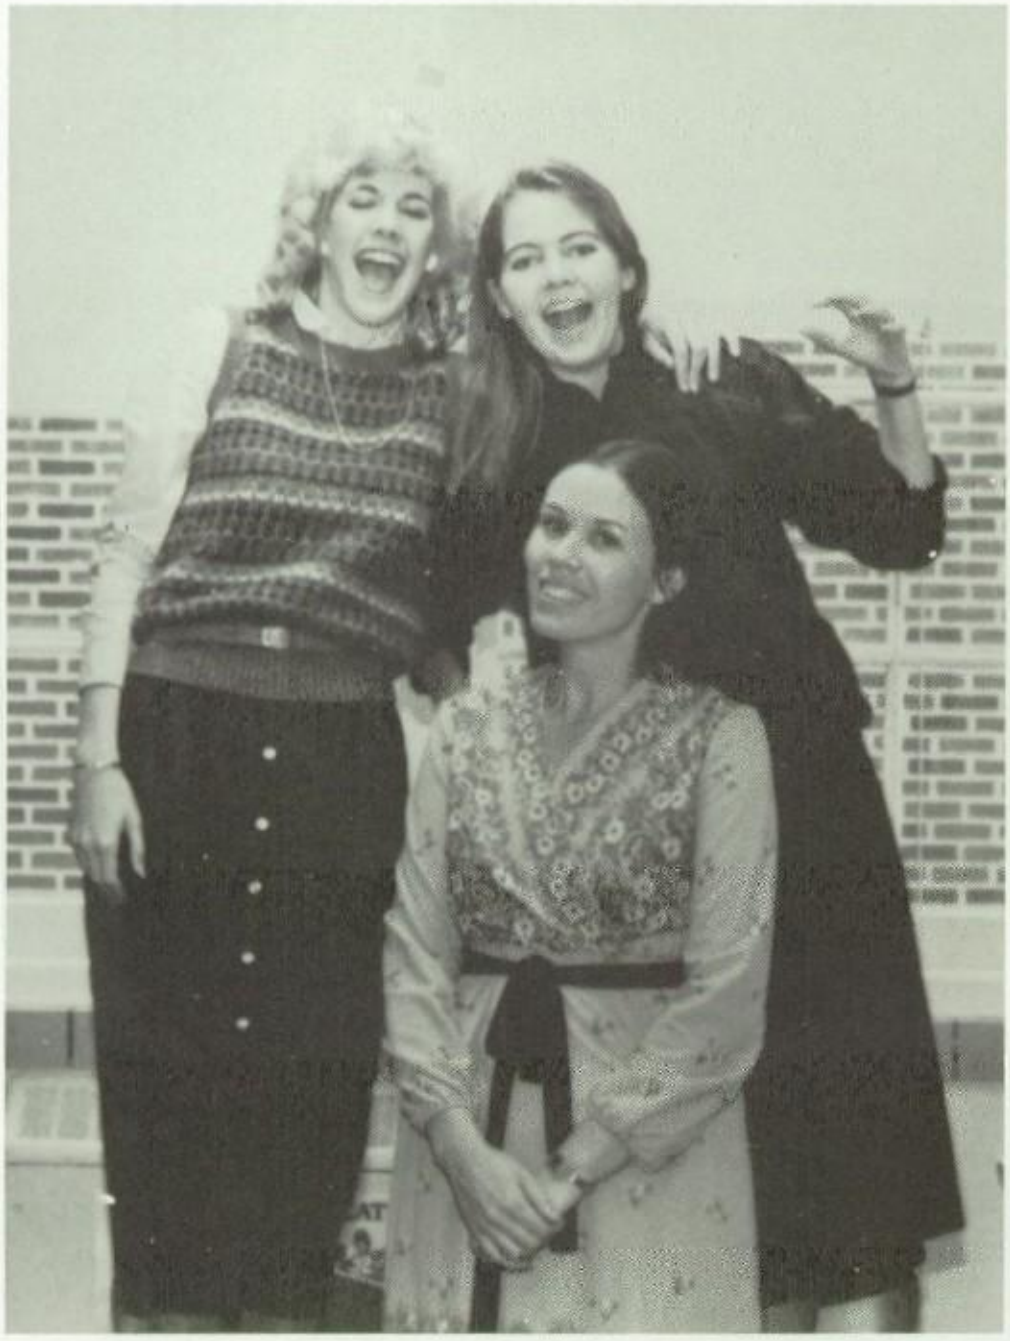
Heeeave: SC Men flex, oops, strain their muscles while trying to budge the piano on wheels.

Want to buy a Clan?: Coach Holmes struggles to persuade Sophs John Blaylock and Scott Brock that they need another school directory.

The Highlander staff felt this one was self-explanatory.

The Highlander



The Dynamic Duo: Miss Carpenter poses with her two favorite Editors, Jennifer New and Katherine Lynch.

True enthusiasm: Elizabeth Wylie explores new horizons in yearbook design.

Let's groove: Courtney Bobbitt takes a break from the yearbook to jam with Bruce Garraty (from Taylor Publishing Company).

The editorial staff: Row 1 — R. Randolph, R. Eubank, S. Wallace, P. Chalk, M. Martindale. Row 2 — B. Longoria, M. Glasscock, S. Millard, P. Wildenthal, C. Beard, S. Murski. Row 3 — A. Franklin, L. Jenkins, D. Burton, M. Medlock, G. Olmstead, D. Stevens. Row 4 — D. Rose, F. Stevens, S. Plemons, K. Barber, R. West, W. McMordie. Row 5 — L. Johnson, L. Cooper, P. Moore, S. Smith, A. Nicoud, S. Porter. Row 6 — L. Sherrill, C. Bobbitt.

Another all-nighter: Co-Editor Katherine Lynch jobstamps her way through another fun-filled evening.

All right, everyone ... check your cameras: Highlander photographers Melissa Daniels, Will Reppeto, Doug Selzer, and Rachel Devlin get ready for the day.

Miracle workers: Stephanie Storm and Amy Taylor create order out of confusion.

Oh ... Miss Carpenter?: Co-editor Jennifer New seeks advice from her all-knowing sponsor.

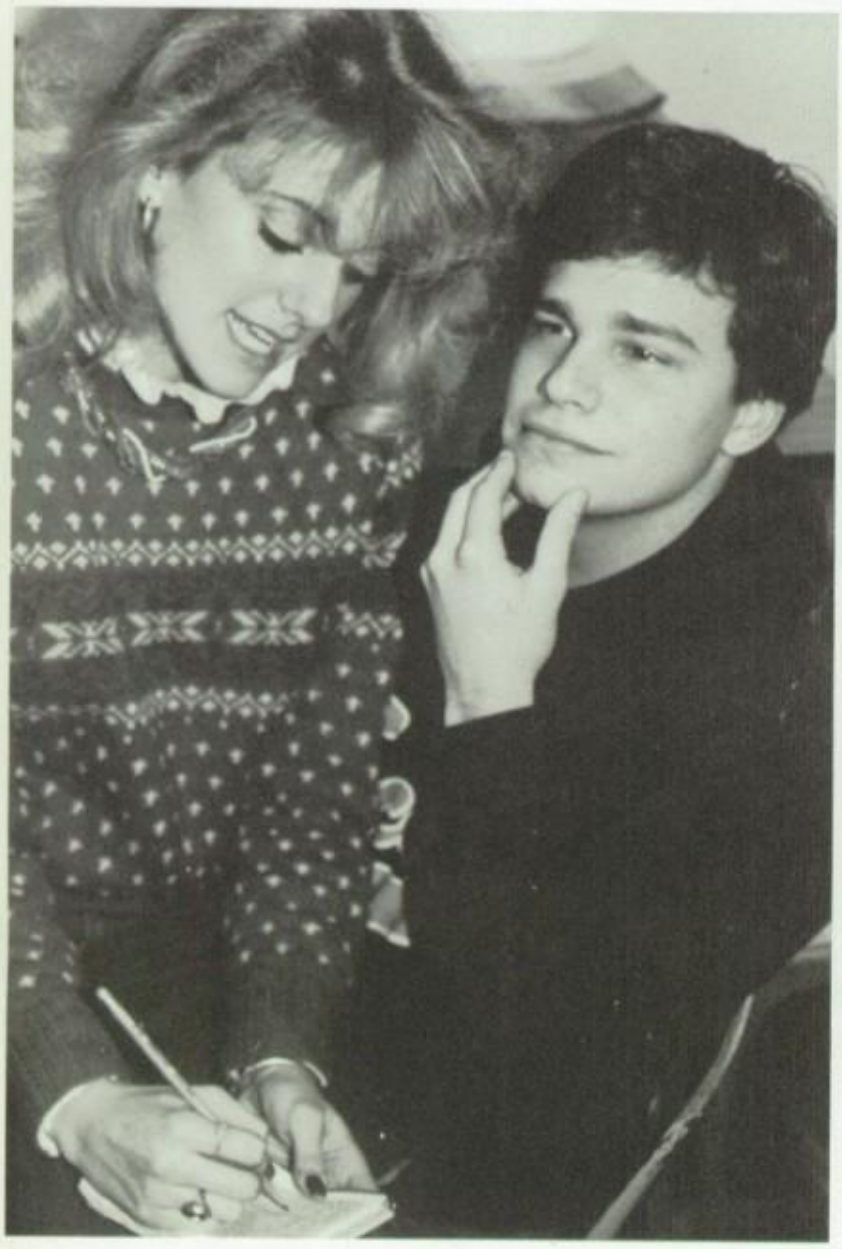
Working 9 to 5: Business staff members Bettina Longonia, Jenny Veil, and Tracey Taylor put in a good day's work.

The Highlander staff started off the year right with a week-long yearbook seminar at SMU. After hours of hard work, Courtney Bobbitt, Elizabeth Wylie, and Jennifer New received an "all around winner" trophy.

Tired of the traditionalist attitude surrounding the annual, Co-Editors Jennifer New and Katherine Lynch decided to make some changes. The layouts, the theme, the color section, even the arrangement of the sections — everything is fresh and exciting. The book could never have been completed without the help of the Associate Editors Courtney Bobbitt and Elizabeth Wylie, two other advocates of change.

The business managers Amy Taylor and Stephanie Storm were definitely the most efficient ones Highland Park has seen for awhile. Thanks to their direction the ad section was not oversold.

THE BAGPIPE



Roving Reporters: Row 1 — Lisa Claycomb, Beth Barker, Steve Wesson, Mary K. Morris, Steve Larkin, Amy Watson. Row 2 — Kathy Huston, Paul Stockard, Lendy Leggett, Wendy Kopp.

A centerfold . . . in the Bagpipe?!: Amy Watson, Wendy Kopp, and Mary K. Morris don't remember submitting this feature article.

Take this down: Lendy Leggett jots down Paul Stockard's brainstorms.

The eventful 1983-84 school year was a successful one for the Bagpipe. Under the skillful direction of co-editors Steve Larkin and Wendy Kopp, The Bagpipe made some positive changes, such as coverage of indepth features voted as major problems for the U.S. by the student body. The great work of the co-business managers, Amy Watson and Mary K. Morris, helped keep the paper in the black. Other editorial staff members — Steve Wesson, Kathy Huston, Lendy Leggett — contributed to the production. Feature editors Lisa Claycomb and Beth Barker supplemented the staff as did Sports Editors Paul Stockard and Mike Wilson.

Teamwork: Co-Editors Wendy Kopp and Steve Larkin combine efforts on an editorial.

THE TARTAN

The Tartan, the school literary magazine, contains poems, short stories, essays, and artwork created by the students of HPHS only. It is divided into two sections — the Literary Board, which reviews all literature, and the Art Board, which critiques the work of blooming young artists.

This year, Josh Larson and Laura Sherrill were the chairmen of the Literary and Art Boards respectively. These boards were completely run by students, who met once a week after school to work. The magazine came out in March at the Spring Open House and was received with much enthusiasm.

Note the rhythm in this line: The literary board attempts to grasp the underlying meaning of a poem.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Teri Rudolph, Dinah Miller, Jeff Kilpatrick, Jeannie Smith, Lendy Leggett, Michael Lee, Scott Mills, and Kathy Murphey

Here they come!: Varsity cheerleaders hope to outrun the oncoming mob.

The swish of pom poms, the blare of trumpets, the roaring of crowds — sights and sounds of an HP pep rally. And what would a pep rally be without the Varsity Cheerleaders!

During the summer, the squad attended a cheerleading camp in San Marcos. Returning with daring stunts and uncontrollable enthusiasm, they were ready to go!

This year, the cheerleaders had first period in which they perfected their form and planned pep rallies. In addition to their normal activities, the group organized several new functions, such as a "midnight" spirit raiser and an outdoor pep rally. In short, the cheerleaders did a super job this year and deserve a hearty pat on the back.

Flowers and a hug — the best medicine.

Hold on!: T. Rudolph, S. Mills, J. Kilpatrick, and D. Miller perform a new stunt to dazzle the audience.

Leaders of the Pack: K. Murphey, D. Miller, and L. Leggett make an enthusiastic entrance.

JV Cheerleaders

Go Scots: The group enjoys their front row view of the football team.

All smiles: Ashley Cecil, C. B. Gunter, and Elise Ballard shake their pom poms — among other things.

Build that spirit up: Ashley Aldridge, C. B. Gunter, and Ashley Burford keep the cheers coming.

The JV Cheerleaders had quite an exciting year. They started the year off with (of course) football games. Although the JV team had a less-than-wonderful season, the girls never shirked their duties. They were present at every game, raising spirit and cheering their team on to success.

All of the girls on the squad were cheerleaders in eighth grade; therefore the group was quite experienced. The girls did a fantastic job! The students, as well as the JV teams, appreciate all of the work they did.

In perfect position: Elise Ballard, Ashley Burford, Ashley Aldridge, C. B. Gunter, Ashley Cecil, and Missie Massey.

Freshman Cheerleaders

Spirited youth: Beverly Hudnall, Michele Bowman, Kendall Jordan, Chelle Stephens, Emily Jones, Jennifer Sherrill, Gretchen Carter, Elizabeth Burgher.

Huddle up!: The group takes a break from cheering for a little gossip.

Fire up: The cheerleaders boost the spirits of the crowd with (what else) a cheer.

Future Dallas Cowboy Cheerleaders: Kendall Jordan and Jennifer Sherrill thrill the audience with some sideline action.

The Freshman Cheerleaders this year were adorable as always, and they added much pep and fun to HPHS. The group consisted of Michele Bowman, Elizabeth Burgher, and Gretchen Carter, as well as Beverly Hudnall, Emily Jones, Kendall Jordan, Jennifer Sherrill, and Chelle Stephens.

These cheerful girls headed up the Freshman girls' decorating committee for the Frosh Scots, as well as "building that spirit up" at their games. These ladies also greatly increased the din of the crowd at basketball games (in addition to their football duties). All in all, these eight leaders of cheer did much to boost the spirits of their men.

The HIGHLANDER BAND

The "one-and-only" Highlander Band: Row 1 — Becky Guerrero, Erin Estran, Lisa Weedon, Frank Vernon, Marisa Day, Laura Patterson, Caroline Carroll, Michelle Fender, Stephanie Thomson, Becky Lee, Erin Dessain, Julie McClelland. Row 2 — Garnett Lee, Brian Beeman, Mark Girand, Melinda Fender, Tyler Spence, Julie Kuhlken. Row 3 — Susan Pratt, Bill Carroll, David Vernon, Richard Gregg, Paul Johnson, Ward Huey, Mark Greenberg, Chris Breeden, John MaGuire, Greg Fowler, Nathan Phillips, Josh Kahn. Row 4 — Amanda Burke, Daniel Nichols, Stephen Sclater, Alan Noell, Tracy Beach, Michael Franks, Kevin Smallwood, Richard Haag, Haskell Harper, Lance LaPine, Susan Stuart.

The unique Highlander Band, steeped in the traditions of its Scottish origins, performed again this year, but under the direction of Barbara Qualls. The band boasted 54 members this year, from all grades. They played faithfully at thirteen football games and pep rallies, in addition to many other performances. These included UIL Marching Contests, the NTSU Marching Contest, and HP musical, and SMU basketball games. Also, the band attended solo and ensemble contests, all region band and jazz ensembles, spring concerts and various banquets.

The band's season started early, with rehearsals at 8:00 a.m. in August. Four hours of marching practice in the summer was followed by 2 hour practice sessions once school started.

Pied Pipers: Talented Marisa Day and Laura Patterson display our Scottie heritage with bagpipes and kilts.

Drum Major Frank Vernon awes the crowd with his majestic leadership qualities during halftime at Highlander Stadium.

Name that tune: Freshman Band member Mark Greenberg expertly twangs the pipes during halftime.

The Officers of the 1983-84 Highlander Band: Row 1 — Lisa Weedon, Stephanie Thomson, Marisa Day, Laura Patterson, Caroline Carroll, Becky Guerrero, Amanda Burke, Lisa Pratt. Row 2 — Alan Noell, Lance LaPine, Frank Vernon, Josh Kahn, Brian Beeman, John Maguire, Houston Franks.

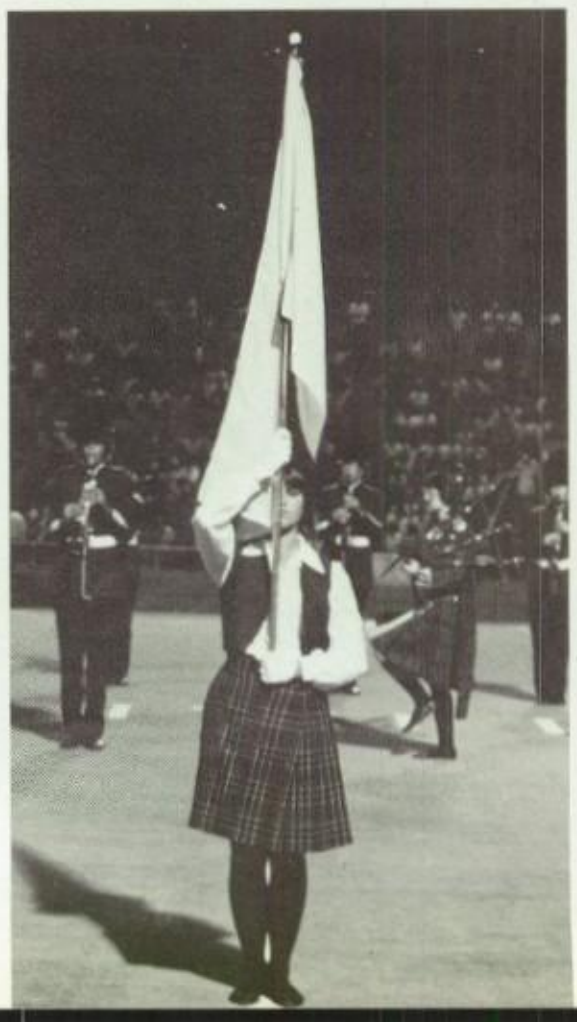
Won't you blow your horn?: Assistant Drum Major Lance LaPine was filmed on TV cameras while he huffed and puffed.

Presenting (drum roll) the 83-84 Highlander Band marching across the turf.



Straight as an arrow: Sophomore Amanda Burke shows what a true flagger is made of.

Orchestra

Fiddlers on the roof: Marimon Simpson and Traci Bower keep the beat.

The head musos: Becky Lee, Traci Bower, Bess Masterson, Adam Newman, Marimon Simpson, Carolyn Walters, Douglas Smith.

Our new conductor, Ms. Gail Giltner, brought the standards of the Highland Park Orchestra to new heights. The group won many awards for outstanding achievement in the All-Region competition. Those who won special recognition and were named to the All-Region Orchestra were: Adam Newman, cello; Susan Pratt, cello; Bill Kennedy, Viola; John Rott, viola; Nathan Phillips, viola; Becky Lee, violin; and Dawn Culbertson, violin. In the All-State competition Bess Masterson, John Rott, and Bill Kennedy were chosen for the All-State Orchestra.

The entire orchestra played beautifully for the musical, "Kiss Me Kate." Many of the members competed for UIL in various small ensemble and soloist competitions in the spring. The orchestra plans to go to Europe this summer for an educational tour and a chance to enjoy the Salsburg Festival in Salsburg, Austria.

The officers of the orchestra are: Adam Newman — President, Marimon Simpson — Vice President, Carolyn Walters — Secretary, Bess Masterson — Treasurer, Becky Lee and Traci Bower — Co-librarians, Douglas Smith — Publicity and Historian.

Tuning up: Susan Pratt gets her cello ready to go.

Seeing double: Adam Newman and Brad Huitt crank out some tunes. When Ms. Giltner talks; people listen: The new conductor lends Douglas Smith a hand.

Lads and Lassies

The Ladies and Gentlemen behind the voices of 83-84 L and L: Row 1 — Trey McAnelly, Stephen Doe, Tass Waterston, Richie Hodges, Wendy Jones, Mary Pat Pettigrew, Shelley Wacker, Melanie Mahaffey. Row 2 — Ray McClung, Adam Newman, Laura Loy, Carolyn Cash, Dana Laird, Amy Meyers, Melissa Cheatum, Kathy Murphey, Amy Franklin, Kim Roush, Tiffany Sharpe, Beryl Wadsworth. Row 3 — Mandy Jordan, Carolyn Blankenship, Stefani Miller, Patrick Doe, Bess Banister, Mark Guest, Lisa Claycomb, Kim Allen, Julie Dolan, Craig VanDernoot.

This year's Lads and Lassies made their 1983-84 debut at the PTA open House in September, following with their annual Fall Concert. Many Lads and Lassies participated in the HP musical "Kiss Me Kate," including Laura Loy, Adam Newman, Amy Meyers, Priscilla Chalk, Craig Vandernoot, Richard Hodges, Gilbert Brown, Carter Malouf and Mark Guest.

Other activities for L and L included a performance at Plaza of the Americas, caroling during Christmas and a visit to the Buccaneer Festival. L and L President Mandy Jordan stated that "the group has grown a lot closer this year, and I think we've achieved a lot of our goals." Other officers included Adam Newman as Vice President, Lisa Claycomb as Secretary, Bess Banister and Robert Trent as co-business managers and Dana Laird and Julie Dolan as Librarians.

Do Re Mi: Lads and Lassies entertain a captivated audience during the Fall Choir Concert in the large aud. on Nov. 1, 1983.

Park Version

Such melody: Lady Park Versionists Dana Laird, Beth Barker, Shelley Wacker, Ashley Heckmann, Amy Meyers, Audrei Polo, and Laura Loy voice their words in song while practicing at school.

Entertainment Tonight: Parkies Dana Laird, Richie Hodges, and Beth Barker, and Ashley Heckmann and Craig Vandernoot perform vocally at the Fall Choir Concert.

Highland Park boasts a new performing group, the Park Version, which specializes in popular music rather than religious or classical pieces. The Park Version wanted to show the public that pop music was not just something that blared out of a radio, but was also something that had melody and beautiful lyrics.

Led by Frank Sargent, the choir director, the Park Version sang not only at school functions but at Six Flags. At the U.I.L. competition, they earned a superior rating of "one."

Revelaires

The 1983-84 HP Revelaires spent a busy year performing and raising money for trips. The girls started the year off by selling Country Charm sausage and cheese, a new but successful enterprise. Ashley Heckman hosted the fall party for Revelaires in November. Among the performances were the fall concert, caroling during the Christmas season, and the spring concert. A combination of the Lads and Lassies and the Revelaires performed at the Plaza of the Americas. Highlight of the year for many was the trip to Corpus Christi for the Buccaneer Festival. The girls topped off their year with a successful performance at the U.I.L. Solo and Ensemble Contest at Seagoville High School.

Where's the tape?: Spirited Committee members Emily Christian, Lauri Duvall, Molly Martindale, Beth Fenton, and an exhausted Laura Apeland decorate the boys' gym Thursday night before a big game.

The 1983-84 Spirit Committee did a tremendous job this year — many thanks to all involved! This spirited group began its homework in the summer, with work crews in the driveways of the chairmen. To kick off the school year, they had a back-to-school swimming party at the home of Bettina Longoria.

Under the leadership of Sponsors Pat Sargent and Chris Dudley, the girls decorated the gym every Thursday night, with one of the four groups alternating. In contrast with last year, the girls opted for navy blue shirts from Doak Walker.

In addition to the countless rolls of tape, crepe paper, balloons (some even contained water!), and painted butcher paper, the Spirit Committee set afloat bags of helium-filled balloons twice this year.

Committee membership this year totaled over 100 girls, which increased productivity, for "things went a lot smoother and we got a lot more done."

The minds behind it all: Let's give these talented Seniors Laura Sherrill, Bess Banister, Beth Barker, Finley Hefner, Dorothy Hardy, and Jennifer Haschke a standing ovation for all of their effort behind the 1983-84 Spirit Committee.

Every pep rally, these straight lines of blue shirts appear to support all HP Scots.

Hi-Lites

PYT: Sr. Hi-Lite King Nominees Whit Roberts and Lee Orr disco with Michael Jackson disguised as Highland Belles on Jan. 6, 1984

"We're the Hi-Lite Officers of 1983 (-84), welcome to the picnic, hop with me!": Row 1 — Libby Coleman, Anne Worsham, Kim Martin, Priscilla Chalk. Row 2 — Kelty Barber, Rosie West, Jennifer New. Row 3 — Frances Blackwell, Emily Christian, Laura Apeland. Row 4 — Haden Stone, Amy Taylor, Elizabeth Blaylock.

Hi-Lites, a girls-only service club, boasts two sponsors, Linda Raya and Nancy Hierholzer, over 800 girls as members, and 13 officers. During the year, the club served the Calderone family on a monthly basis, giving them food, clothing, and "seasonal items." In addition, Hi-Lites made friendship bags for runaway children at Casa de Los Amigos and created Day-Brightener Bags for teachers every Monday.

Christmas is always Hi-Lites' busiest time of year. They delivered food and gifts to the elderly with the Meals on Wheels Program, took food and clothing to Brother Bill's Mission, adopted five families from Dunbar Elementary School and supplied them with food, presents, and Christmas trees, and handed out Christmas stockings at the Boothe Daycare Center.

November 19, 1983 brought the 1st Hi-Lite dance — a 50's Bunny Hop, and January 28, 1984 was "Jock Rock." The 2nd dance saw the crowning of Whit Roberts as Hi-Lite King; the nominees were Greg Aldridge, Wade Baynham, Fulton Murray, Lee Orr, Whit Roberts, and Tony Summers.

Hi-Lites again visited Boothe, this time with Valentine goodies and gave cookies to all HPHS personnel. At Easter, the club took baskets to Boothe and served Meals on Wheels.

Let's go Hawaiian!: Sr. Greg Aldridge, another Hi-Lite King Nominee, swings his hips as he illustrates the "Hukila" to the girls.

Merry Christmas: Sr. Officers Haden Stone, Kim Martin, and Anne Worsham wrap surprise presents as Santa's little helpers for the less fortunate children at Dunbar Elementary.

Our fearless leaders: Thanks for all of your work and support, Mrs. Hierholzer, Emily, and Mrs. Raya — we love you all!!!

You are gorgeous: Soph from Trinity Vince Brody answers to this name after he reveals his secrets to over 800 girls!

KD models?: Srs. Libby Coleman and Elizabeth Blaylock flash their dimples at the Hi-Lite Tea on Oct. 2.

Look how cute Crickett Rollins and Stephanie Storm are in their cute outfits from a cute store named Harold's.

I know I am a hunk: Also from Trinity, Sr. Clark Hodges tells Hi-Lite girls exactly why he is so irrestible to us.

What jolly elves: Seniors Rosie West and Laura Apeland, just arrived from the North Pole, busily prepare goodies during the "HO-HO-HO" season.

The Hi-Lite Picnic — enough said.

September: Hi-Lite Officers pose for the lens after jamming out to Earth, Wind and Fire at their first meeting.

"I guess personality . . .!" Sr. Hi-Lite King Nominee Wade Baynham attempts to answer his question but is obviously stumped.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society has been promoting academic excellence at Highland Park for more than fifty years. Membership in this society is based on leadership, ability, character, scholarship, and school service. To be eligible for NHS, a student must maintain a 7.0 grade point average for the preceding year. The nominees are then ranked on a scale from 1 to 8, and students receiving all sevens or better are admitted.

The new members to this prestigious society were welcomed at the NHS Instigation on November 8, 1983. The officiating executives of NHS are Lee Johnston, President, Sheila Wallace, Vice-President, Dana Laird, Secretary, and Nancy Truitt, Treasurer. Along with Miss Cathy Orr, club sponsor, they intend to advance the process of learning at HPHS.

Don't stumble now: National Honor Society Officers Nancy Truitt, Dana Laird, Sheila Wallace, and Lee Johnston climb the steps of knowledge to a higher education.

The leaders of tomorrow?!: Row 1 — M. Medlock, J. New, A. Scholder, K. Lynch, K. Barber, R. Eubank, L. Huffines. Row 2 — J. Smith, L. Leggett, S. Wallace, J. Weil, L. Wyly Row 3 — W. Baynham, N. Truitt, E. T., R. West, W. Holmes, T. Bright, A. Taylor, K. Canon, M. Johnson, T. Sharpe, H. Smith, D. Laird, J. Kilpatrick, D. Stevens, F. Murray, Miss Orr. Row 4 — P. Gunter, J. Henderson, F. Stevens, L. Johnson, F. Love, J. Carlton, J. Larson, C. van DerNoot, L. Johnston, B. Kennedy, J. Rott, T. Beasley, W. Roberts.

KEY CLUB

e "illustrious" Highland Park Key Club: Row 1 — K. Renner, T. Summers, F. Baldwin, H. Lam, L. Orr, Meek, G. Reeves, M. Lane. Row 2 — S. Mills, J. Caswell, D. Saustad, N. Touchstone, M. Jones, S. ayton, G. Seay, S. Spangler, B. Owen, B. Duphorne, C. Brown, S. Sypult. Row 3 — M. Perdue, J. Carlton, Wilson, G. Adair, M. Macatee, G. Vaughn, D. McAlister, D. Barnes, J. Carter, C. Snelling, W. Roberts.

The 1983-84 Key Club had an incredible year indeed, with quite excellent leadership under President Lee Orr, Vice-President Forrest Baldwin, Secretary Gig Reeves, Treasurer Michael Lane, Bouncers Craig Meek and Tony Summers, and Sponsors Jim Castellaw and Don Richardson. And what would this club do without its "so fine" Board of Directors, made up of Jrs. Colin Durham and George Seay, and Srs. Michael Jones, Don Saustad, Sandy Spangler, and Neill Touchstone?

As a service club, the Key Club worked hard in October, assisting the Hi-Lite Club at their tea by parking cars. On the 30th and Halloween night, hardly-recognizeable Keys frightened half of HPHS with their Haunted House. They ended up making about $1300, of which $600 was presented to Charlie Woods at a pep rally.

The "Illustrious" once again held its annual Christmas Formal before the Holidays on December 17 at the Fairmont Hotel. Members and their dates boogied as "The Ultimate Force" nearly brought the walls down.

LEO CLUB

Under the leadership of President Fulton Murray, Vice-President Jim Lancaster, Secretary Chuck Hutchison, Craig Sessions as Treasurer, Rod Jones, Tailtwister, and Coaches Frank Bevers and Richard Bohac, the famed Leo Club had quite a successful year.

Their car wash on Sept. 18 at HPPC raised $150, and several members parked cars at the Hi-Lite Tea Oct. 2. Also in October, the Leos aided the Hi-Lite girls with Casa de Los Amigos and invited the Key Club to hear Dale Hansen from Channel 8 Sports on the 11th.

On Nov. 2, the Leo Club won the Battle of the Sexes (see right) 4-2, and in turn gave $100 to the Charlie Woods' Fund. This service club also offered to help Hi-Lites with their various projects, but the Meals-on-Wheels trip was cancelled on Dec. 22 due to bad weather. The annual Leo Club Dance took place on March 31, as members only rocked to the music of the Rabbitts at the Anatole.

What are they doing?: Sr. Leo Clubbers Greg Aldridge, Chuck Hutchison, and Glenn Evans try unsuccessfully to dress faster than Sr. Hi-Lite Officers Anne Worsham, Haden Stone and Jennifer New during their Battle of the Sexes on Dec. 14, as Freshman Leos Ward Chandler, Chris Collins, and Matt Lucas cheer them on.

They hold HP's AFS world in their hands: Secretary Lisa Claycomb, Publicity Michele Medlock, Vice-President Heather Durham, President Amy Watson, and Historian Bess Banister. (Not pictured Organizational Manager Blakney Boggs.)

The American Field Service, otherwise known as AFS, began after WWI with the Red Cross Ambulance Service in hopes of bettering relations with foreigh countries. This year, HP has two — Luce Beliveau from Canada and Tarja Letto from Finland, who added much to the club with the tales of their homelands.

Other HP students traveled away through this program, such as Amy Watson, Heather Durham, and Brandy Russell. Club sponsors included Miss Cathy Orr, Mrs. Donna Pierce (Area Representative), and Miss Clarice Kearley. Dr. Gordon and Sue Hosford are Chapter Presidents of AFS.

This year, AFS had a full agenda with International Day (breakfast and dinner) on Oct. 26, many slide and star presentations in the planetarium, and other members recalled their overseas trips to such dreamlands as Chile, Russia, and Switzerland. Last but not least, AFS once again held its annual fundraiser to pay for exchange students — CARNATIONS! 13,300 flowers were delivered to HP sweethearts on Feb. 14, whose proceeds pay for class rings, "incidentals," yearbooks (of course), etc.

Tarja and Luce will pack up on June 29; they both express their appreciation for all that the school, the PTA, the AFS Club, and their host families have done for them.

Round Table

H.P.'s honorary discussion group, was able to solve most of the world's major problems in its hour-long bi-monthly meetings again this year. Sponsor Sheila Douthit and Executive Officers Vinnine "The V" Prothro, Tim "Was he On Round Table?" Merritt and his look-alike Chris "who?" Kuebler assembled a superior group of intellectuals. Among H.P.'s brain trust this year were Whit Roberts, Glen McDonald, Frank Love, Jenny Weil, and Mike Boydston. Their honorary titles were token-jock, anarchist, stuffed shirt, and smart alec, respectively. Together with the more respectable Round Table members, they discussed such issues as U.S. foreign policy, mediocrity in education, and genetic engineering with all due gravity.

Opinionated youth: Round Table members are not afraid to voice their ideas.

We Kick Around: Senior CC Officers Haden Stone, Kim Martin, Wendy McMoride, Carla Frye, Julie Briggs, Deanne Meadows, Meredith Glasscock, Kathy Hall, Sarah Mullins, Tracy Adleta, and Shannon Strother. (Rosie West and Anne Worsham are not pictured.)

Back by popular demand: The infamous "Kingston Trio," composed of none other than Dr. L. V. Puckett. Steve Wilkes, and Mr. Smith, is at it again, this time harmonizing for the Kick-Back Club while Coach Emery keeps watch over "his" girls.

Here comes Santa Claus in the form of Julie Briggs and Sarah Mullins as they drag a box full of Christmas cheer collected from their meeting.

A rather new and fast-growing organization at HP is the Country Club. This 125 member group was under the sponsorship of Coach Randy Emery, with Sarah Mullins as President and Meredith Glasscock as Vice-President. Deanne Meadows serves as Secretary and Shannon Strother as Treasurer, while Julie Brigg is Parliamentarian and Tracy Adleta and Wendy McMordie are Program Chairmen.

Anne Worsham leads the HPCC Board Members as Chairman, which include Carla Frye, Kathy Hall, Kim Martin, Haden Stone, and Rosie West.

As an interest club, the Country Club had various speakers, such as designer Ginnie Johnsasen, who spoke on fashion, exercise, and attack prevention. For a group project, the CC adopted a family during the Christmas season. Senior Julie Briggs summed up the year by saying, "The meetings were fun and supporting our family was rewarding!"

Boys' FCA

The 83-84 "fig leaf" Boys' FCA Officers: Scott Florence, George Seay, Wade Baynham, Tommy McBride, Brando Williams, Jeff Carter.

The boys' chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes again boasted the largest membership in the United States. This group was divided into Freshmen and Sophomores and into Juniors and Seniors, so every Wednesday the boys' gym was filled with fellowship members.

The FCA found the huddle method to be the most effective, where the members would group into small bunches to have in-depth discussions on the Bible.

Led by Wade Baynham as President, and Scott Florence as Vice-President, the boys heard two major speakers this year: David Swanson, speaking on "Putting Faith and Trust in God in Day-to-Day Activities," and Gary Stroope, who talked about "The Three Basic Needs of our lives."

'El Shaddai': Srs. Wade Baynham and Jeannie Smith witness to other FCAers with the lyrics of Amy Grant.

No jokes today, guys: Gary Stroope doesn't beat around the bush in his talk on the three basic questions to ask God.

The people in your life: Murray Gossett speaks about the Pauls, Barnabuses, and Timothys that we face every day during the FCA Breakfast at Wyatt's Cafeteria in Preston Center.

Girls' Fellowship of Christian Athletes had a strong year under the leadership of this year's President, Susan Martin. Speakers Scott Smith and Gary Stroope spoke to the members about the importance of Christian lifestyles. The girls also discussed Christian topics in huddle groups and Thursday morning breakfasts with boys' FCA.

Another special activity this year was the adoption of a family at Christmas. The girls collected clothes and food for the needy family.

This year's officers were: Susan Martin, President; Stefani Miller, Vice-President; Sharon Bradley, Secretary; Katie Carson, Treasurer; Ellen Holman, Chaplin. Along with sponsor Mindy Simmons, the club and its officers provided encouragement and Christian support for its members.

Another delicious FCA Breakfast: Diana Stevens, Lisa Wyly, Laurie Wyly, Susan Martin, and Sharon Bradley dig into their scrambled eggs after saying the blessing.

DECA

The Officers: Polly Martin, Todd Coleman, Kris Elliott, and Kim Gelvin (not pictured Heather Horn).

The Distributive Education Clubs of America Chapter, better known as DECA, spent another productive year involved in sales projects and various DECA parties. As in past years, recent projects included sales of spirit items ranging from athletic photo buttons to spirit caps and jackets. Believing all work and no play makes DECA a dull club, sponsor Sheree Davis and club members held an Employer/Employee Banquet and a DECA Christmas Party. Officers were: Heather Horn — President, Todd Coleman — Vice President, Kim Gelvin — Treasurer, Polly Martin — Secretary, and Kris Elliot — Reporter/Photographer. Working together, DECA club members have polished their work skills this year.

New additions to the business world: Row 1 — Arthur Hopkins, Kim Allread, Maggie McLemore, Heather Horn, Polly Martin, Kim Gelvin, Kris Elliot, Bruner Dyer, Clay Nielsen, Todd Coleman. Row 2 — Guy McFarlane, Larry Hawes, Merry Carter, Karen Krueger, Robin Means, Kay McFarlane, Carolyn Cox, Elizabeth Blaylock, Darcy Rothmeyer, Shawna Davis. Row 3 — Jay Hancock, Rusty Warner, Chris Coffin, Rob Cooper.

The "outdoor" men and women of the 1983-84 Field and Stream Club: Row 1 — Mimi Thompson, Kim Edwards, Danny Shelton, Pebble Williams, Lisabeth List, Madeleine Davis, Shawna Davis, David Wisely, Kelly McGregor, Melanie Miller. Row 2 — Julie Doe, Ben Jarrett, Trip Wood, Todd Shelton, Chris Coffin, Rob Cooper, Jack Sharp, Robin Ferguson. Row 3 — Andy Benthul, Gene Tobin, Rusty Warner, Jeff Moore, Dave Fuller, Jack Allinson, Rod Hargrave. Row 4 — Robert Canaan, Wade Leslie, Crews Lott, Bryan Stevens. Row 5 — Sponsors Mr. Lee and Dr. Roe.

These Field and Stream Club —Officers have had a hard day on the lake: President Rod "No Shot" Hargrave, Official Wildlife Consultant Andy Benthul, Treasurer Dave Fuller, Bouncer Karl Leslie, Secretary Chris Coffin, Bouncer Jack Allinson, and Vice-President Rob Cooper.

This year, the Field and Stream Club was very busy with all of their "outdoor" activities. In October, the club went fishing at Hutchison Lake (yes, as in Chuck), where they caught many fish. During club period Jan. 25, 1984, several members demonstrated how to use the bow and arrow.

In addition, the Field and Streamers have planned quite a few more hunting expeditions, and another fishing trip to Rockwall, Texas, sometime in the near future. The official Field and Stream Executives (see picture at left) include Jack Allinson, Andy Benthul, Chris Coffin, Rob Cooper, Dave Fuller, Rod Hargrave, and Karl Leslie, with Jimmy D. Lee and Dr. Roe sponsoring.

Guitar Club

The official Executives of the 83-84 Guitar Club: Lee Johnston, Jim Henderson, Paul Hutson, Mi
Smith, Will Pettinger, Julie Liebes, Bill Hayner.

Another one bites the dust: President Will Pettinger calls the meeting to order.

The H.P. Guitar Club had a low-key but enjoyable 83-84 school year. Dr. Lawrence V. Puckett sponsored the club which attracted every kind of guitar person: acid rockers, country bumpkins, mellow easy listeners, etc . . . This year's officers were: Will Pettinger — president, Bill Hayner — vice-president, Lee Johnston — treasurer, Jim Henderson — program director, Paul Hutson — social chairman, and Julie Liebes — secretary. Steve Pierce, an instructor at Frets and Strings, performed for the club. In addition, the band Crossfire, with senior Mike Smith as drummer, did an exciting mini-concert for the members.

Mu Alpha Theta

Everyone up to the board.

Occasional frustration, concentration, determination, discovery, and achievment are all a part of H P's honorary math club, Mu Alpha Theta. Math met again this year to discuss and work challenging math problems. In addition to their yearly goals of promoting interest and skill in math subjects, the club prepared for various math contests. Competitions this year included those at SMU and Irving. Officers this year were: Gregg Fowler — president, Jodie Thompson — vice president, Terry Pan — treasurer, and Susan Pratt — secretary.

Math Whizes: Susan Pratt, Terry Pan, Marc McDonald, Jodi Thompson, and Gregg Fowler

Photography Club

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Jerry Hill, this year's Photography Club worked hard to improve their picture-taking skills.

Some of the club programs were devoted to learning new shooting techniques. There were also demonstrations on how to shoot with filters and time exposures.

Occasionally, Mr. Hill treated the group to a special slide show and a talk about travel photography.

The backbone of all the Records and Tapes: Sponsor Steve Wilkes, Co-Presidents John "Carlos" Rutledge and David "Big D" Nichols, and sponsor Doug Miller.

Under the sterling leadership of Co-Presidents David Nichols and John Rutledge and sponsors Steve Wilkes and Doug Miller, the Records and Tapes club had an outstanding year. They participated in their annual Football Tournaments in the spring, attended Maverick and Ranger games, and members viewed the latest movies and videotapes.

The Board of Directors, under the Chairmanship of Everett Henry Corson, III, or "Big E," included Greg Aldridge, Darren Blanton, Glenn Evans, Binky Vehon and David Webb. Abusees were Doug Caudle and Jay Simmons, along with Secretary James Riddle Lancaster, III, or "Bigfoot."

Most of all the members of this organization, according to President Rutledge, liked to "rap on the classics and party." Happily, the club was able to accomplish its major goals this year.

The club was led by senior officers Joey Carlton, Commodore; Lee Blaylock, Vice-Commodore; Linda Guest, Fleet Captain; Dorothy Garrett, Secretary; and Todd Bright, Treasurer; as well as representatives from each grade level.

This year, club members "learned the ropes" from speakers and sailing films at bi-monthly meetings. They enjoyed their annual weekend at Lake Texoma and an exciting trip to the Florida Keys at Spring Break. The Sailing Club also had the opportunity to hear a special speaker, Kelson Elam, who was a participant in the Olympic Sailing Races.

And here we have a sail: The sailing club learns everything they ever wanted to know about windsurfing.

Science Club

Hey, what's this!: Upon closer inspection, John Pressley, David Thompson, Sean Patterson, and Grady Vaugn discover scientific wonders.

With a devoted sponsor such as Werner Schultz, the science club could not help but have a great year. Members learned about different techniques, such as computer type, during a tour through the Dallas Times Herald headquarters. They also visited the American Airlines Flight Training Program. They saw the simulators and toured the emergency program. This year's officers were: Mike McCartin — president, Danny Stansbury — vice president, and Kurt Rodegast — vice president and secretary.

Speech Team

Get them while they're fresh: The speech team tries to make a little cash by selling donuts after school.

The head mouths — Steve Wesson, Neeta Patel, and Wendy Kopp

"Listen, my children, and you shall hear" about HP's Speech Team. This year was an exciting one for the team. Talented speakers competed at speech tournaments and participated in categories such as debate, duet acting, prose, poetry, oratory, dramatic and humorous interpretation, and extemporaneous speaking. Wendy Kopp qualified for state, while Steve Wesson (oratory), Stefani Miller and John Wellborn (duet acting) advanced to finals. Debators Neeta Patel and Jyoti Vallabh ranked first and fifth speakers respectively at the St. Mark's tournament in a field of 120.

President Steve Wesson felt it was "a very successful year," for they managed to support trips to 8 tournaments. He feels that the rate at which the team is growing should result in HP's excellence in yet another area. In addition, he would like to thank Mrs. Loyola for "all her support and help."

Whiz Kids

Meeting of the minds: Michael Yu, Frank Love, Josh Larson, Mr. Smith, Jay Carvell, Tass Waterston, Mike Smith

Boy wonder: Sr. Jay Carvell puts himself through several rigorous exercises to prepare for the next Whiz Kids' match.

Who are the kids with razor-sharp minds that answer questions faster than the speed of light? The Whiz Kids, of course. The illustrious group for 1983-84 was Jay Carvell, Tass Waterston, Josh Larson, Frank Love, and Michael Yu. Their coach who kept them sharp and speedy was Jerry Smith.

These academicians met every Wednesday morning to practice for their numerous exhibition tournament matches. After crushing opponents Fort Worth Western Hills and Plano Vines in the opening rounds, these mad men met Plano East in a battle of the top two teams of the tournament. HP lost the close match to end their fine season.

Thespians

Thespians were seen in abundance in both the Senior Play and the Musical. Spring saw the performance of the one-act plays for U.I.L. competition, held at HP in April. In their spare time, Thespians learned the art of Renaissance dancing and topped off the year with their annual Thespian Show about "Real" people — "Inherit the Wind."

In addition, this forensic club was one of the first to view the Royal Gambit and Kiss Me, Kate, and they heard Glo Jenkins speak, a local actress and Vice-President of SAG-AFTRA.

All in all, the 83-84 Thespians had a great year, with two large groups full of talent and a wonderful sponsor, Mrs. Linda Raya.

It's a Hard Knock-Life, for us: Talented Thespian club officers reveal the fun of this organization and, in the process, urge others to join at their 1st meeting.

Ring around the Rosy — in the Commons?: Thespian members learn the secrets of Renaissance dancing, as shown by Camille Cook, Pascale Harzic, Lauranne Lospalluto, Priscilla Chalk, Beth Williams, the headless wonder, Dianne Welch, and Carter Malouf, on Feb. 8, 1984.

Romeo and Juliet?: Carter Malouf and Pascale Harzic finally tell an astonished Michele Taylor of their clandestine engagement.

Is it really Dark at the Top of the Stairs, muses Kit Canon as she portrays the play by William Inge during a Thespian meeting.

Sleep Country: Glo Jenkins, the Vice-President of the Local Actor's Union, spoke to the Thespian Club on Feb. 22, 1984, about theater opportunities in Dallas.

I have a letterjacket.

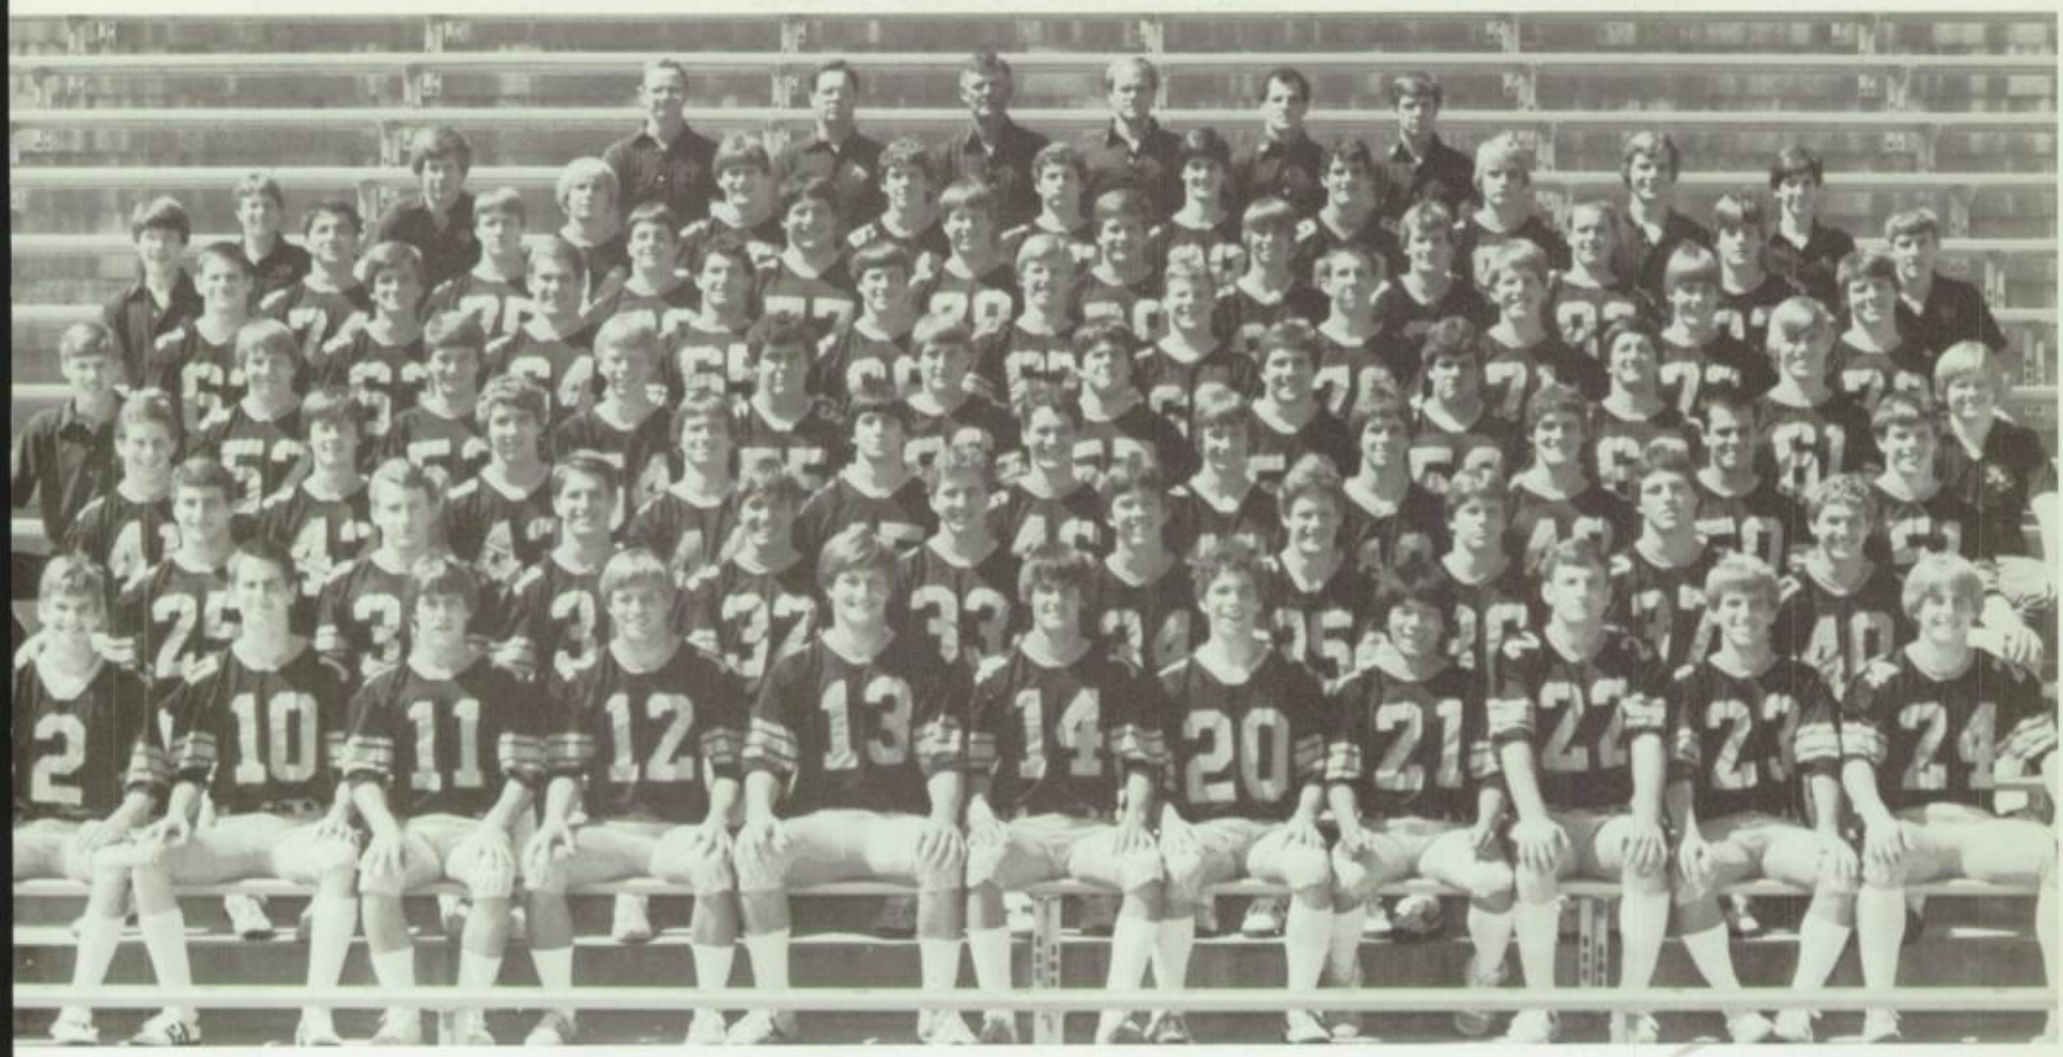
SCOT PRIDE IS BACK FOR THE '83 ATTACK

Got it: Sr. Split End Lee Blaylock (46) tucks the ball away before charging down the field into the hands of waiting Bearkats.

Way to stop him: Jr. Brady Giddens (75) halts an Owl runningback as Jr. Bill Clements (40) and Jr. James Esquivel (83) race to assist.

The three captains: Srs. Erik Mays (12), John Rutledge (65), and Craig Meek (67) strut hand in hand across the field to greet opposing forces.

During the infamous "Mud Bowl" against Wilmer Hutchins, Sr. Fullback Rod Jones (37) struggles for more yardage with help from his blocking buddies.



The 1983 "Pride Is Back": Row 1 — R. Guthrie, C. Sumner, M. Johnston, E. Mays, J. Stollenwerck, F. Murray, H. Bevers, H. Lam, G. Seay, T. Bright, J. Faulk. Row 2 — C. Hutchison, R. Mayes, B. Williams, G. Aldridge, C. Durham, J. Presley, B. Sone, T. Wood, R. Jones, B. Clements. Row 3 — F. Baldwin, W. Clements, M. Schmidt, J. Knoll, A. Benthul, L. Blaylock, S. Davis, P. Harmon, J. Carter, D. Caudle, D. Barnes. Row 4 — T. Waterston, T. Parrish, D. Saustad, D. Sweeney, J. McKenney, P. Fourt, F. Vehon, J. Lancaster, K. Renner, T. Summers, T. Snelling, M. Deal. Row 5 — J. Williamson. Coaches — F. Bevers, D. Richardson, R. Emery, J. Castellaw, S. Smith, D. Gibbins.

Sack that quarterback: Jr. Linebacker George Seay (22) grabs Richardson's QB from behind in the 2nd playoff game.

HP's own QB John Stollenwerck (13) closes his eyes in a quick prayer for the Scots.

Kapow: Once again, David "Switch" Sweeney (54) blasts another one through the posts.

The 1983 version of the Gold Machine racked up more offense than any other Scot team, aided by a crushing defense under the new defensive secondary coach Scott Smith. He is the mentor of modern HP Football success, with an impressive 12-1 record.

Entering the 9AAAAA, the Varsity Scots won the District crown and advanced to the playoffs, crushing Samuell and Richardson but suffering their first defeat of the season from Houston Klein.

The Scot offense was "shot from guns" in 1983, for they lead the DFW area in rushing — 3,650 yards, scoring — 372 points, and total offense — 5,043 yards. The incredible Scot defense showed much prowess in letting up only 2,790 yards and 156 points in just 13 games. Even more impressive were the 42 sacks, 15 fumble recoveries, and 12 interceptions.

Head coach Frank Bevers guided the Varsity Scots and was Coach of the Year. His talented staff included Jim Castellaw, Randy Emery, Doug Gibbins, Don Richardson, and Scott Smith.

As Coach Bevers said, "The thing that pleased me the most is the closeness that the kids developed during the season," and that is what lasts a lifetime.

Junior Varsity Football Team

The HP Junior Varsity Squad this year had a very disappointing 1-9 season, with Coaches Mike Fields, Orvil Jones, Tim Marzuola, and Tony Waters leading the way, their only victory in a hard fought 13-12 win over Duncanville.

Offensively, the Scots totalled 2,282 yards on the whole. Josh Theodore (715 yards) and Lyn Waters (377 yards) rushed for over half of the total yards on the ground. In the air, HP receivers Craig Cooper and Lee Grable led with each having over 200 yards. Quarterbacks Bard Hoover and Mark Macatee threw for 412 and 536 yards respectively, each completing over half of their passes.

Even though the JV Defense performed well this year, its main problem was that "it took too long to get fired up." Some highlights of the season came in the Duncanville and North Garland games, in which the Defense was "outstanding," holding Duncanville to a standstill and maintaining a 14-14 tie with N. Garland until the 3rd quarter.

Head Coach Orvil Jones described the season as "frustrating because the won-loss record was very misleading," for the JV Scots played much better than it indicated.

We want a touchdown: Soph Josh Theodore (33) flies down the field to "score more" for the JV Scots.

Crunch: JV Scotties to get smushed just seconds before their opponents move in for the kill.

Roger Staubach II: Soph Mark "Puff" Macatee (14) spirals the football through the air in hopes of a 1st down while Jr. John Wiseley (43) chases down a stray enemy.

In the attack of the 83-84 Freshman Scots, the A team took runner-up in the district championship, led by Coaches Richard Bohac, Al Hawes, and Head Coach Cecil Holmes. The Freshman captains were Robb Boudreaux, Robert Crain, Chris Faulk, Damon Jones, Robert Reed, and Sutton Turner.

The A team finished the season with a 5-4 record, while the B team ended up with a 0-8-1 record. Outstanding players were Jim Bell, Robb Boudreaux, Robert Crain, Chris Faulk, Johnny Hea, King Hughes, Damon Jones, Bobby Olmsted, Robert Reed, and Starke Taylor.

Say D-D-D, Defense!

HP Varsity Basketball — it bounced thru Texas.

You can't have it, it's mine!: Jr. Stephen White (43) wrestles with his St. Marks opponent while teammate Glen Mack and other Marks' calmly look on.

You gotta jump (jump), I say jump: Jr. Glen Mack (23) taps the ball out of reach of his Lewisville enemy while the rest of the floor anticipates the next movement of the orange sphere.

Women win again: Varsity Cheerleader Teri Rudolph drives for two more much to the delight of Head Cheerleader Lendy Leggett, while Referee Trey McAnelly and Varsity Postmen Patrick Jordan and Rett Corson stare at her in sheer disbelief.

The 83-84 leaders of the pack: Coach Bo Snowden and Captains Rett Corson, Wade Baynham, and Mike Lucas.

Such grace, such form, such finesse: Sr. Rett Corson (44) silences the crowd as they await the outcome of his perfect shot.

What was that?: Jr. Scott Davis (12) is so quick in passing the b-ball into the waiting hands of a teammate that his defensive man doesn't even see it whiz by him.

The Scot Basketball team had a victorious season, finishing with a 21-9 record. Led by Captains Wade Baynham, Mike Lucas and Rett Corson, the Scots captured second place in the Austin Tournament in December. Starters for the season were Mike Lucas, Rett Corson, Tie Sosnowski, Malcom Showalter, Glen Mack, Stephen White, and Patrick Jordan. Coach Bo Snowden was proud of the "good attidude the players displaced and the maximum effort from the team."

BASKETBALL

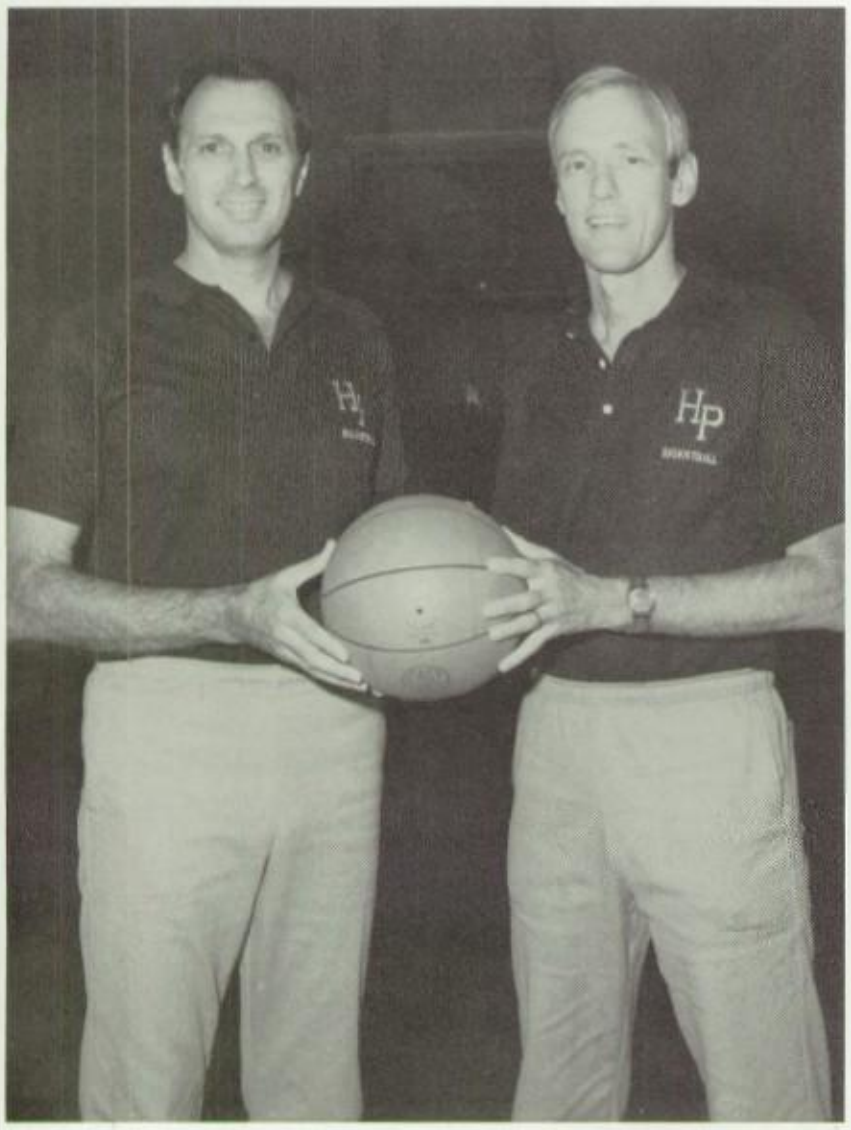
Shoot for two: Malcolm Showalter (33) lays up another one.

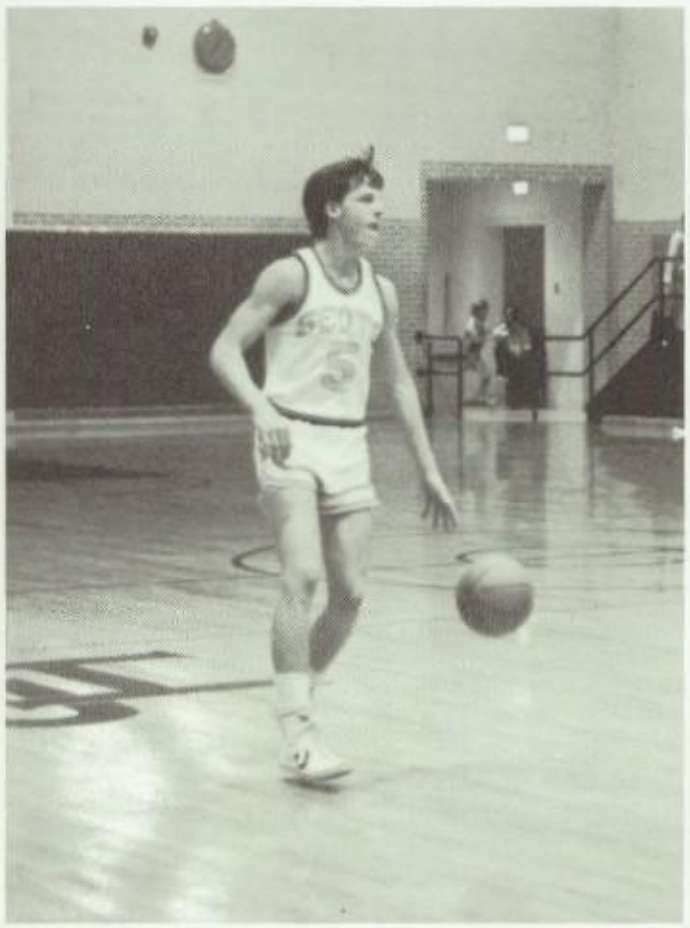
Perfect form: Mike Lucas (5) goes for a long shot.

Look — one hand: Stephen White (45) adds another two points to the Scot scoreboard.

Roll 'em out: Malcolm Showalter (33) takes a wide shot.

It all depends on your point of view: The basketball team raises spirit for the 2nd most popular sport at the football pep rally.





Double Trouble: Coach Shelton and Coach Snowden combine efforts to lead the basketball team.

A dribble in time: Mike Lucas (5) waits for his chance to move in.

"Too Tall" Jordan?: Patrick Jordan (50) outstretches another opponent.

Grab that rebound and go: Soph Scott Brock (22) flies down the court with hopes of "shooting two."

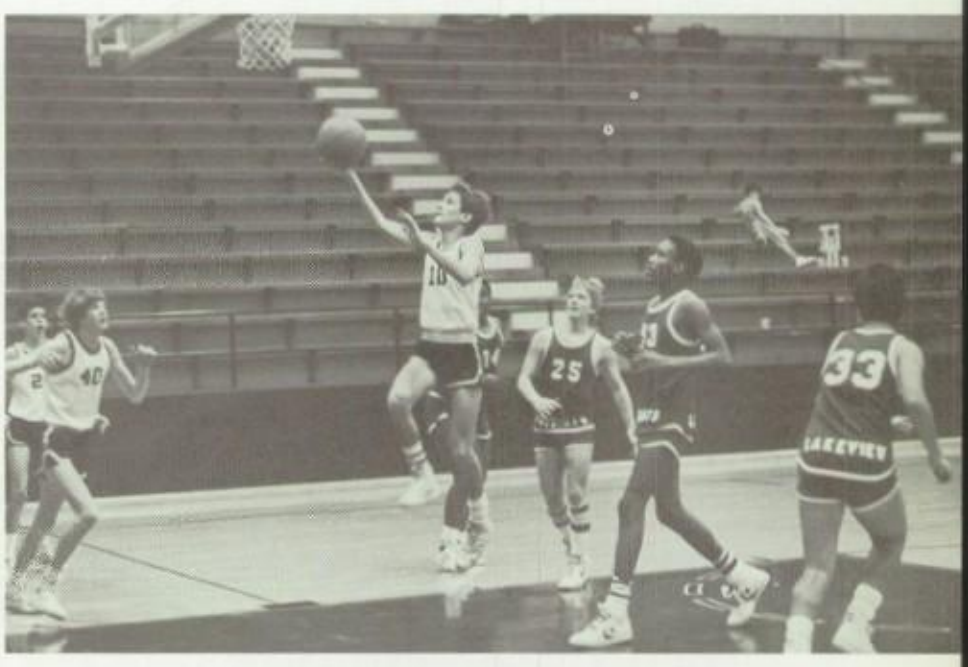
It's a freethrow: Soph Berry Carter (23) just lets the ball slide off his fingertips as he sinks another one for the Scots against Garland.

The Junior Varsity had a good season this year, ending up with a 13-12 season. They took second place in both the Newman Smith and Highland Park tournaments. Coach Shelton said, "Both the team and individuals showed improvement; we played some real good basketball."

OK guys, here's how it's gonna be: Coach Shelton discloses the 2nd half game plan to his eager JV beavers.

Freshman Basketball Teams

The 83-84 Blue and Gold Men: Jason Needleman, Mike Wood, Matt Hewett, Thomas Hocker, Max Shea, Jeb Marlowe, Edward Cary, James Smith, Edward Slater, Mike Whorton, Craig Williams, Jay Holman, Chuck Fulgham, and Gene Blakeney.



Another perfect layup: Frosh John Kull (10) reaches for the hoop as other players realize he's got 2 more.

Go in ...: Edward Slater (22) fires away despite the reaching arms of his opponent, while James Smith (25) awaits the outcome.

Way to tip that ball: James Smith (25) knocks the bouncing orange in the direction of his HP teammates.

What moves: John Hopkins reveals to all his dribbling abilities on the court during the Lakeview game.

The 1983-84 Freshman Basketballers had an outstanding season this year with both the "Blue" and "Gold" teams sporting winning records. Considered "one of the best freshman classes" to pass through H.P. by Coach Bo Snowden, the players concentrated on improving their upper-body strength with the "Coach Waters/Jane Fonda workout."

The "Blue" team, coached by Mike Fields, had the better record of the two teams. Mark Reynolds, Robert Crain, Thomas Hocker, John Kull, and Edward Slater led the "Blue" squad.

Coach Tony Waters considered his "Gold" team a "hard-working, promising group." John Cole, Matt Lucas, Craig Williams, John Hopkins, Mike Whorton, and Chris Warrick were the main firepower of the "Gold" Scots.

VOLLEYBALL

The JV Volleyball Team this year had overall "a pretty good season," under the leadership of Coach Mindy Simmons and Captains Carol Schroeder and Polly Simpkins. The team totaled eleven players, with Freshmen Kathy Coe, Jennifer Fogg, Tracey Miller, and Tina Summers, Sophomores Lisa Humann, Jeanie Kneeland, and Susan "Scare me" Sharpe, and Juniors Darian Dreyfuss, Julie Hewett, Carol Schroeder, and Polly Simpkins.

Kathy Coe and Susan Sharpe started as setters, along with "excellent servers" Kathy Coe and Jennifer Fogg. These girls led the team to victory, despite their toughest competition in the form of North Mesquite and South Garland. The star players of this JV group were Kathy, Jennifer, and Polly, who was moved up to the Varsity halfway through the season, which hurt the team.

"I got it!" screams Tracey Miller as she sets the ball for either Carol Schroeder or Darian Dreyfuss to spike.

Wham: Jr. Julie Hewett nearly knocks the cover off the ball as she serves to opponents.

Anticipation is making us wait (for the ball) . . .

Pop goes the volleyball: Jr. stud Sharon Bradley expertly returns a brace-yourself serve.

Oh nooo: Seniors Stefani Miller and Ellen Holman are aghast when they hear that the score is tied.

The "enough said" 1983-84 HP Varsity Volleyball Team: Row 1 — Ellen Holman, Melissa Daniels, Kathy Young, Elizabeth Schooler, Polly Simpkins. Row 2 — Allison Peeler, Sharon Bradley, Carol Combs, Stefani Miller, Jenny Bernet, Coach Mindy Simmons.

With the leadership of Coach Mindy Simmons, and co-captains Ellen Holman and Stefani Miller, the girls' Varsity Volleyball Team started preparing for their season 3 weeks before school started in a gym without any AC. In the Lincoln Valley Tournament, the team won first place and Melissa Daniels was named to the all-tournament team, with Sharon Bradley doing the same in the South Grand Prairie contest. The Scots did well in their tournaments, despite their 6-8 season. The lady volleyballers even beat South Garland (the District 9-AAAAA champs) which revealed the capability of the Scots in achieving their goals.

The team consisted of four Seniors, five Juniors, and one Sophomore, who want everyone to know that your tummy is showing, smurf, leader, mel, ditto, lone setter, ears, noodles, captain, sign against the car, strong offensive player, baby, GG to A, schoo, out in left field, plum, too sweet, spaz, pigtails, too innocent for her looks and MB, reformed, etc.

In addition, several lady Scots were named to the All-District Volleyball Team: First Team — Junior Sharon Bradley, Second Team — Senior Melissa Daniels, Honorable Mention Team — Junior Allison Peeler.

Look at that form: Jr. Elizabeth Schooler shows how it's done in setting the ball correctly to one's teammate.

What a spike!: Sr. Melissa Daniels (12) "slams it down her throat" while Carol Combs (4) stares in disbelief.

CROSS COUNTRY

The "Stud" Varsity Cross Country Team: Row 1 — Dick Hunter, John Emmett, Blake Houston. Row 2 — Coach Jim Mouser, Marc Mathes, Sandy Spangler, Skip Tasker, Chris Tansil.

Run, John — the clock is ticking!

The boys' Cross-Country Team continued its winning ways with a successful season this year. The team was lead by Captain Sandy Spangler.

The boys usually ran well, placing third or fourth in their meets. Competition was stiff among the boys, especially between Sr. Sandy Spangler, Jr. John Emmett, and Freshman Marc Mathes, as they lead the Scot runners.

The boys were hopefuls for a Regional berth, but many good teams graced their field. They placed fourth in the District meet with 85 points. Next year, the boys look forward to a good season, with every man returning except one.

The awesome JV Cross Country Team: Mark Yeoman, Scott Kuehn, C. D. Shamburger, Alan Stotts.

Hurry Blake and Skip — you're almost there!.

Way to cross that country: Sr. Captain Sandy Spangler sprints the finish line in the District meet

And they're off!

Not three stress fractures: A dejected Libby Lumpkin ties her spikes for the last time this season after learning of her injuries.

Pass her, Jeannie!: Sr. Jeannie Smith concentrates on her nearest opponent at the State meet in Austin.

No pain, no gain: Soph. Crystal McGuire starts to feel it as she rounds the cone in Austin during the State Cross Country Meet.

Come on, you guys, go!: Jr. LuAnne Staley and Sr. Michele Medlock push it on in as they near the finish line at the District meet.

The winning 83-84 Girls' Cross Country Team: Kathy Lumpkin, Crystal McGuire, Julie Soukup, Michele Medlock, Coach Jim Mouser, Jeannie Smith, LuAnne Staley, and Libby Lumpkin.

The lady Scot runners' dream of a third State Championship title was shattered. The team, lead by Captains Michele Medlock and Jeannie Smith, ran 10 miles a day at White Rock Lake.

This group, consisting of Kathy Lumpkin, Libby Lumpkin, Crystal McGuire, Michele Medlock, Jeannie Smith, Julie Soukup, and LuAnne Staley captured District and Regional titles.

The lady Scots finished fourth at the State meet, led by Crystal McGuire in 8th place, and Jeannie Smith as the second Scot to cross the finish line in 22nd place. Julie Soukup and LuAnne Staley were next with 46th and 47th places respectively, and Kathy Lumpkin finished 54th, while Michele Medlock was 57th.

Despite many injuries, the girls, led by Coach Jim Mouser, did extremely well. The HP Scots congratulate Clear Lake, the new State Champs, and look forward to next year when 4 of the 7 will return.

TENNIS

The 83-84 JV Boys' Tennis Team ... Wimbledon material: Row 1 — Paul Streckmann, Brad Francis, Trey Leonard, Michael Nugent. Row 2 — Coach Kay Kyle, Stephen Taylor, David Coleman, Russ Riddle, Bill Maddox, Alan West.

What fearless leaders: Juniors David Coleman and Katie Bywaters take a quick break from their duties as Captains of the JV Boys and Girls.

T-E-N, N-I-S, tennis, tennis, is the best chants Lucy Cooper to a staring Lolly Ruebel while David Coleman follows the bouncing ball during a long day of practice.

The still new JV Tennis Team had an outstanding season, only losing one dual match to Plano this year. Very few of the schools they played had JV squads, so the HP JVers battled it out against some Varsity squads and won. In the North Garland tournament at the start of the season, the boys and girls combined only lost one match.

Most teams did not have "much depth" in the "lower ranks," so the JV Scots rarely lost and were "pretty confident." They took turns driving to their matches, and always got lost, for they played some "obscure teams." In one match, for example, the score had to be determined from the number of games, not sets as usual, because it was so close. HP, however, came out victorious once again.

The "girls always win," according to the boys' Captain David Coleman, and who wouldn't with such players as "Torro" and Marea Lange doing Jane Fonda during practice.

195 mph: Soph. tennis pro Joanie Martin smashes the ball into her opponent's court for an ace of a serve.

The 1983-84 Beauty Queens of the Varsity Girls' Tennis Team: Row 1 — Laurie Davis, Chrissy Powell, Elizabeth Baker, Kristin Durney. Row 2 — Joanie Martin, Paula Dorsey, Chris Freeman, Leslie McElroy, Marnie Williams, Ashley Fourt, Coach Kay Kyle.

What a cute couple ... of Captains: Jr. Chris Freeman and Sr. Clay Christopher work together as they lead the Girls' and Boys' Varsity Tennis Teams.

Way to follow through: Jr. tennis star Leslie McElroy whacks the ball back over the net for another perfect forehand shot.

The 1983-84 Varsity Tennis Squad was led in to battle once again by Coach Kay Kyle. The team was undefeated in District play and captured the District 9-AAAAA title. At the Regional tournament in Plano, the team advanced to the second round of competition before being eliminated.

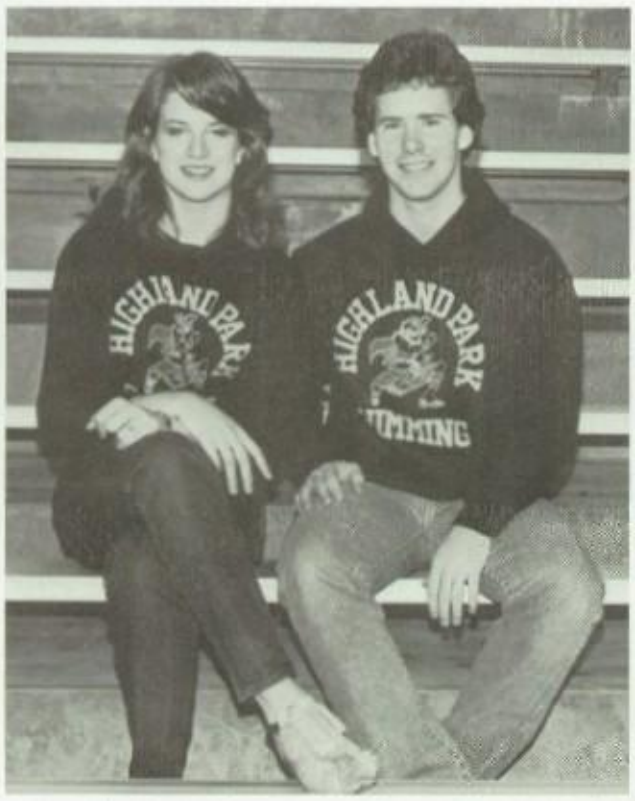
The captains this year were Clay Christopher and Chris Freeman, who led the squad throughout the season and helped with the organization. The new Seay Tennis Center was definitely an asset during the winter months and on rainy days, so the team didn't miss any practice.

Although the team is young, with many Freshmen and Sophomores, Coach Kyle and the entire tennis group see the potential for improvement and look forward to another successful season.

SWIMMING

Not just a pretty face: Team manager Leigh Falb takes control of the desk.

Chill out: Clay Stanton and John Cottey kick back on the bus.



What leadership! captains Katie Carson and Mike Rainwater.

On your mark . . . Tension builds as the HP swimmers leave the starting blocks.

The lone swimmer.

The Big Cheese: Coach Sorrells overlooks the swim meet.

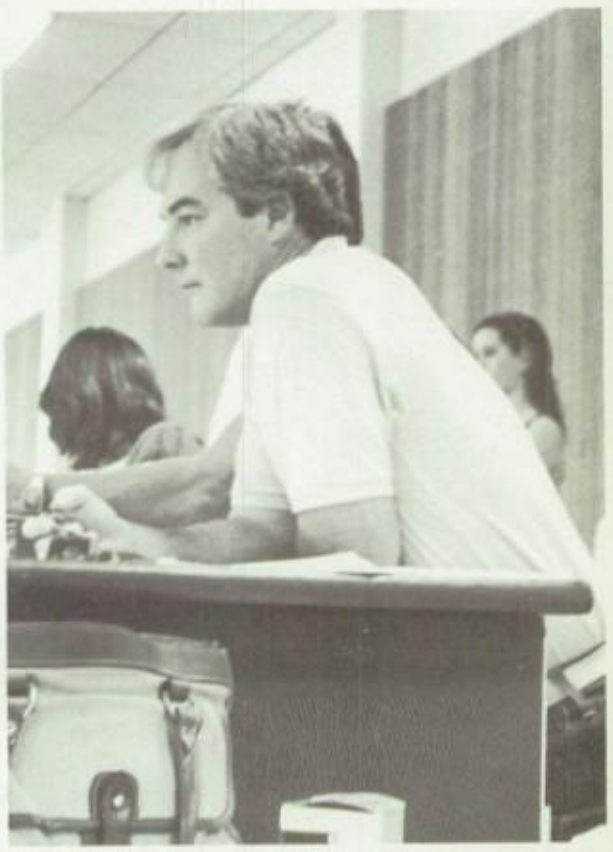
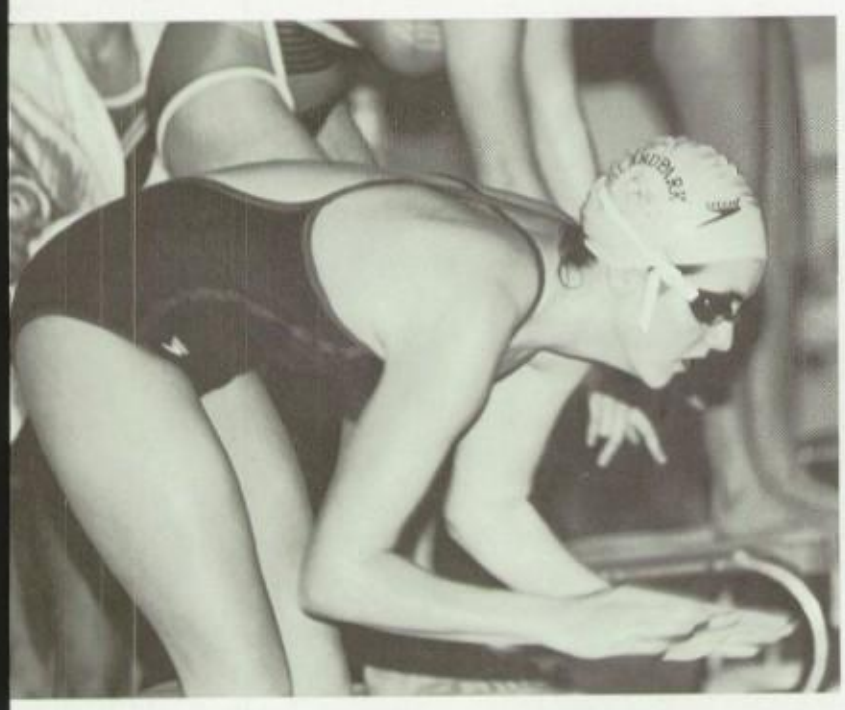
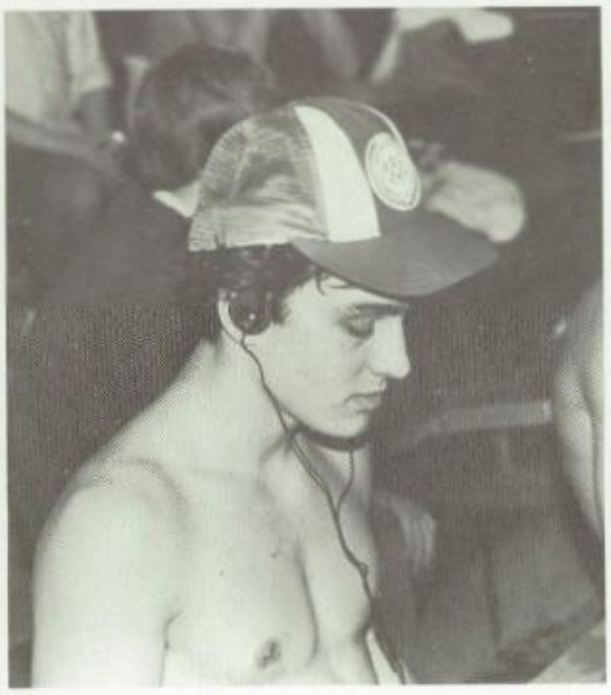
How about a swim? Judge McStay surfaces from the blue lagoon.





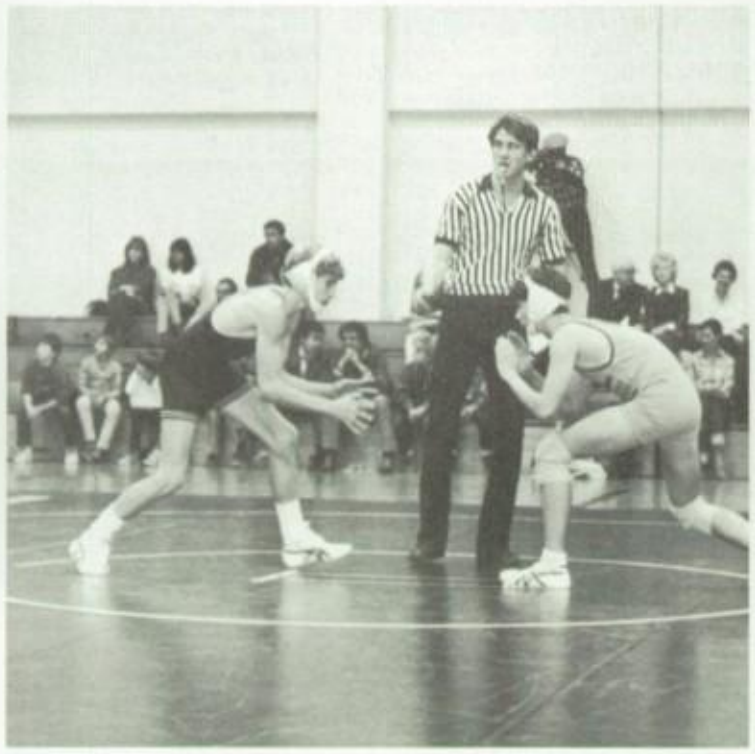


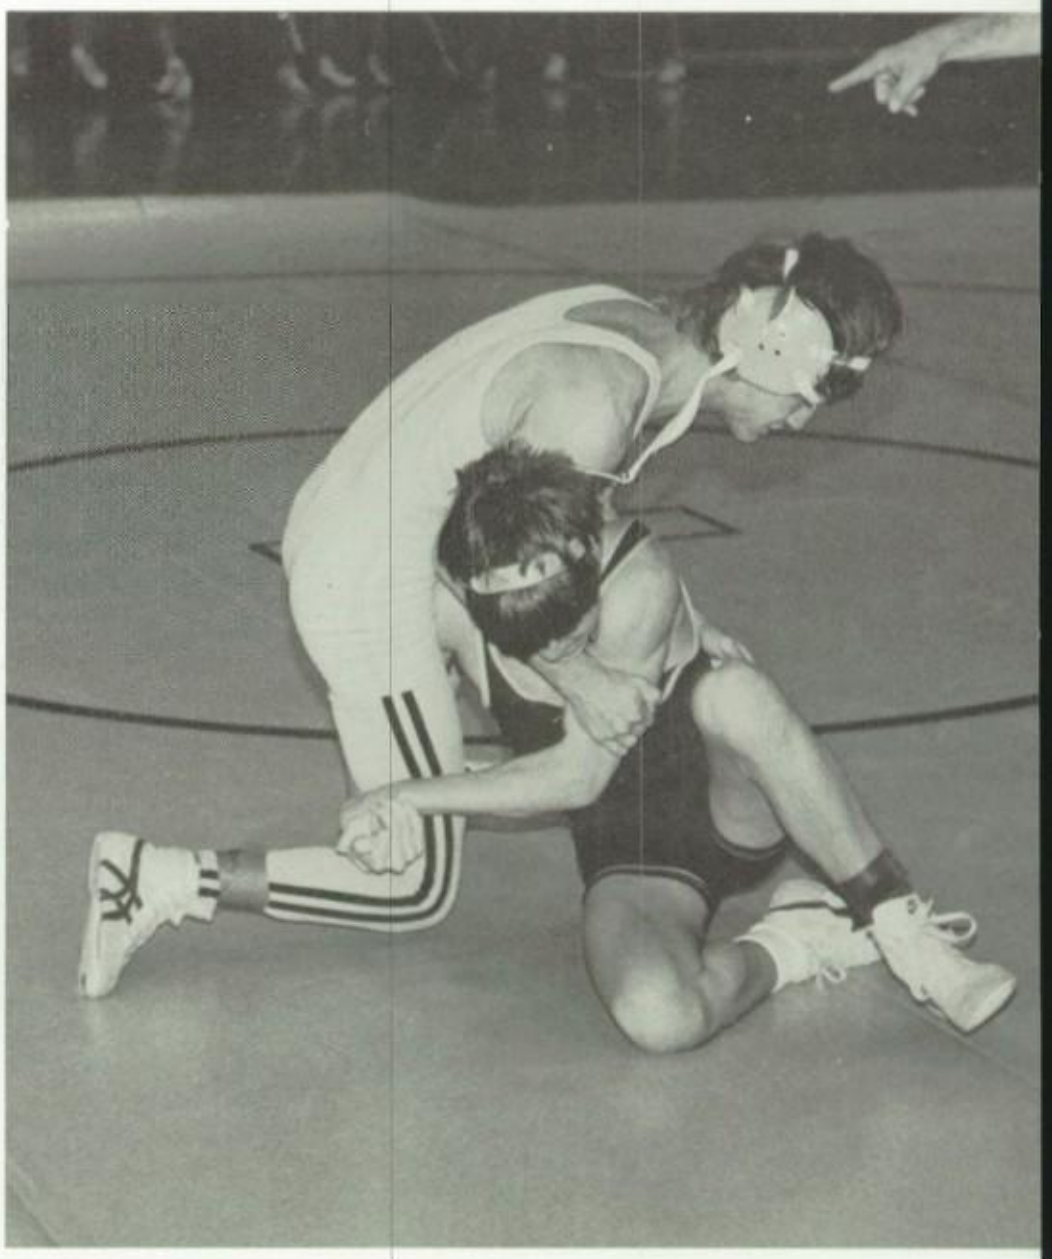
As returning champ, the Blue wave had a fight on its hands to again reclaim the title of district champs. But the team was in top form this year with the possession of All-American and best female swimmer in Texas, Katie Carson, who spent a summer working out with the girls' longhorn team in Austin. Added inspiration came when world-record holder Steve Lundquist began to train with the team. Captains Katie Carson and Mike Rainwater were excited for the challenges that lay ahead of the team.

The team really pulled together in and out of the pool. When funds were needed they had their annual garage sale. They also celebrated Christmas together with a get-together at Ann Smith's house. Mr. Gattis continued to be the local hangout for the team after meets. Everyone felt this year was very exciting. Senior leadership was proved by backstroker Page Gunter and breaststroker Craig Van Dernoot; and the pool ran extra smoothly thanks to management qualities of Leigh Falb.

Poolside brunch — Katie Carson and Ann Smith dig in for breakfast. Fish out of water — Craig van Dernoot catches a few tunes between races.

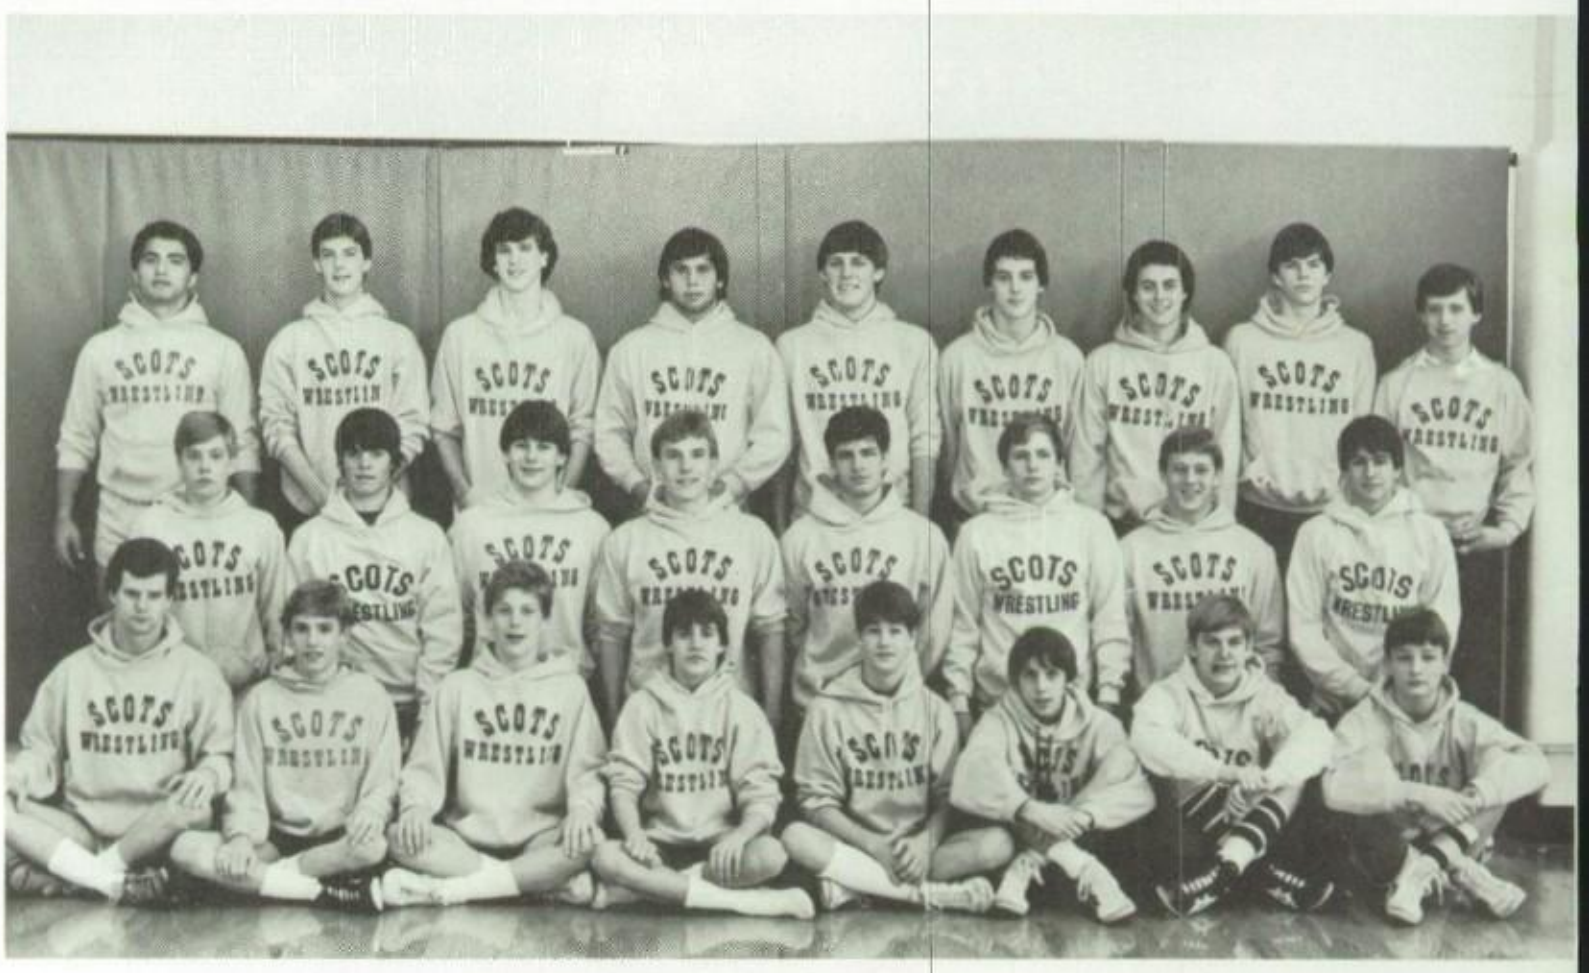
WRESTLING



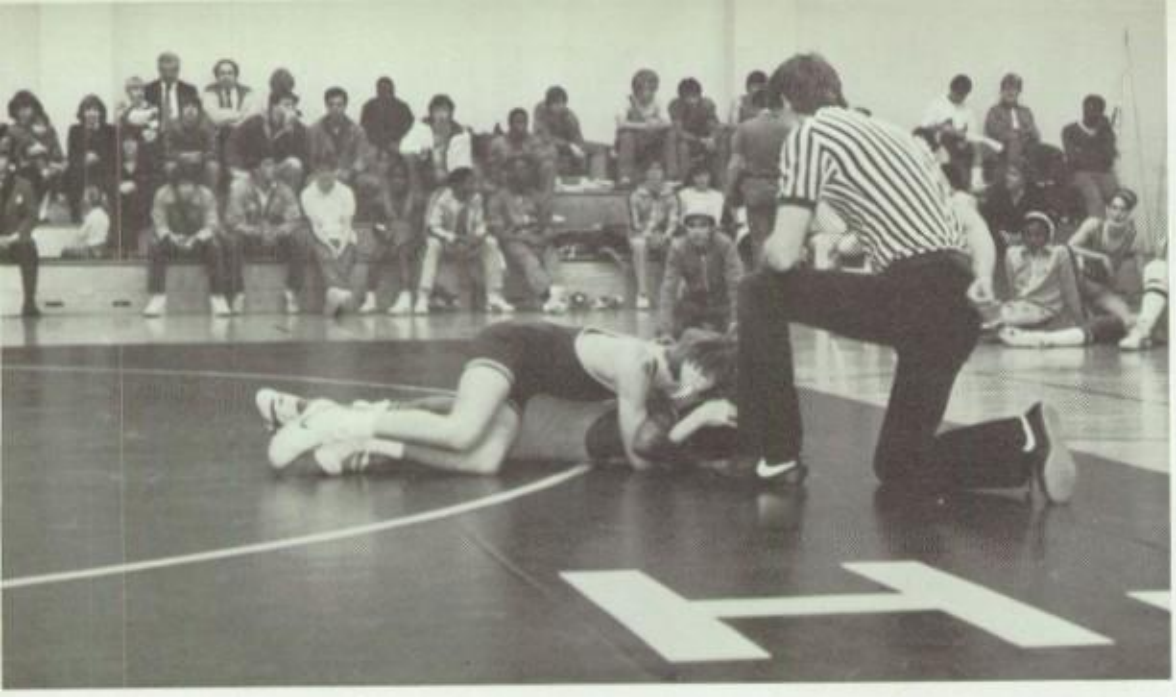


Flip him over backwards: Jack Shelton clamps his fingers tightly around the kneecap of his foe before taking him down.

Go for it!: Soph Penn Laird prepares to spring at his opponent in hopes of catching him off guard.

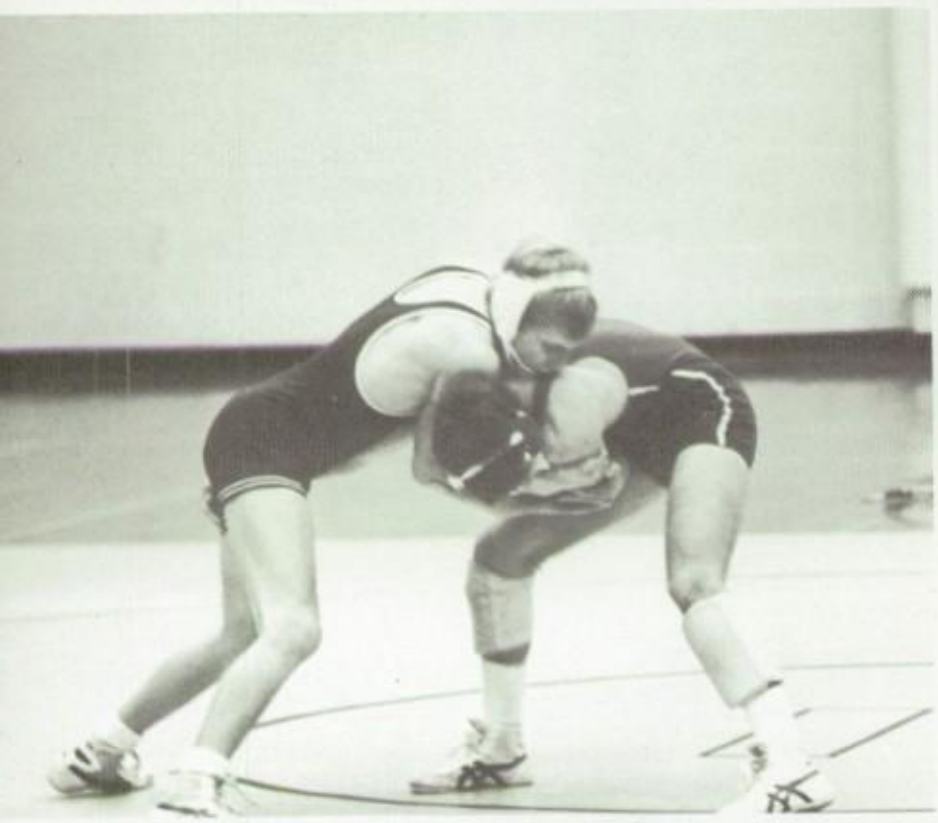


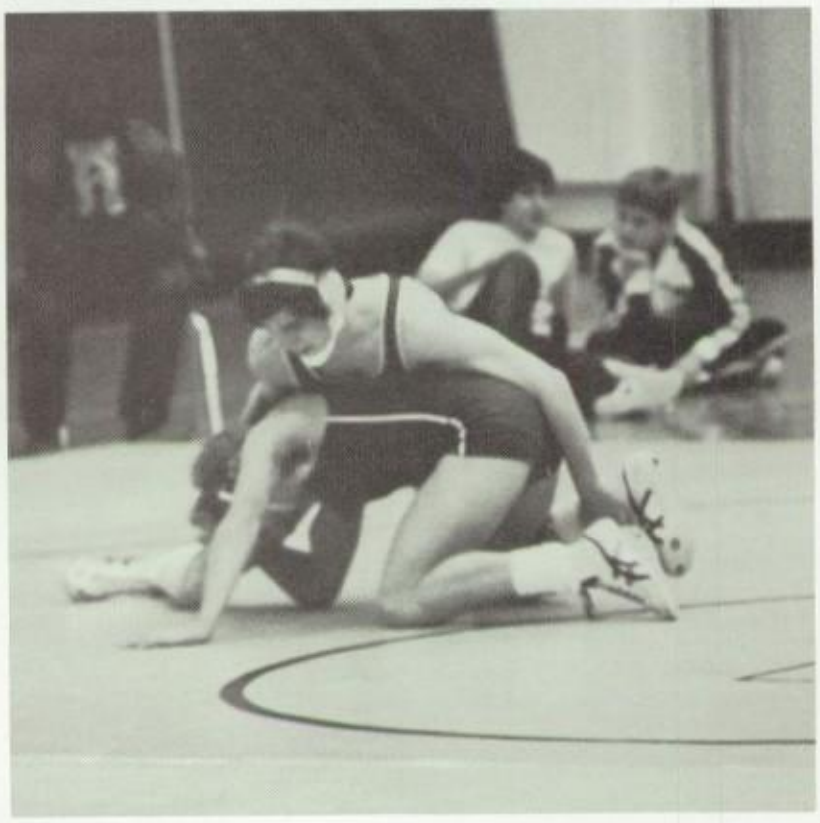
The Mighty 83-84 Wrestling Team: Row 1 — Tom Slover, Penn Laird, Holt Foster, Jack Shelton, Tommy Hagerman, Mark Dubose, Patrick Smith, John McGannon. Row 2 — Lou Bickel, George Hempel, Bill Johnson, Todd Terry, Saby Lee, Rob Russell, Rick Ligon, Jerry Melchiode. Row 3 — Bob Underhill, Winston Nelson, Tommy Overton, Brock Williams, Bill Carroll, Doug Wall, Steven Casey, Rogers McInnis, Chris Carrao.



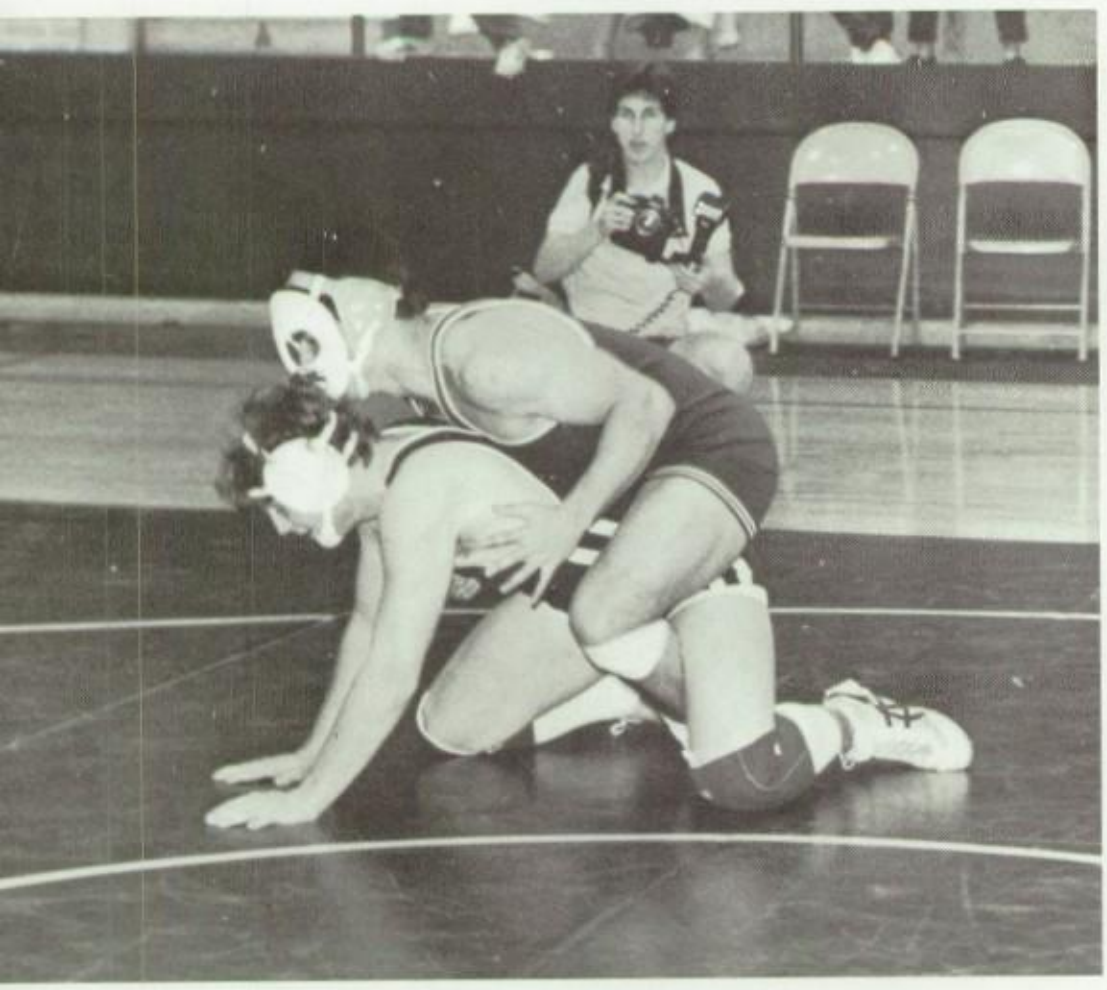
Way to pin him down: HP's Jack Shelton wrestles his opponent to the mat and struggles for victory.

The grip of death: Rob Russell's opponent experiences it during HP's home match.





Let me go!: Tommy Overton is deaf to his foe's cries of mercy as he prepares to break his ankle.



Not yet: Jr. Bob Underhill awaits the blast of the referee's whistle before he attacks his enemy.

The wrestling team had an outstanding season this year, ending with 9 wins and 3 losses. Led by captains Todd Terry and Brian Simmons, the Scot Wrestlers made a great improvement on last year's 1-12 record. Outstanding wrestlers were Penn Laird and Brock Williams who both qualified for state. Brock was also chosen most outstanding wrestler in the R.L. Turner Tournament. Says Coach Marzola, "It was a dramatic improvement."

GYMNASTICS

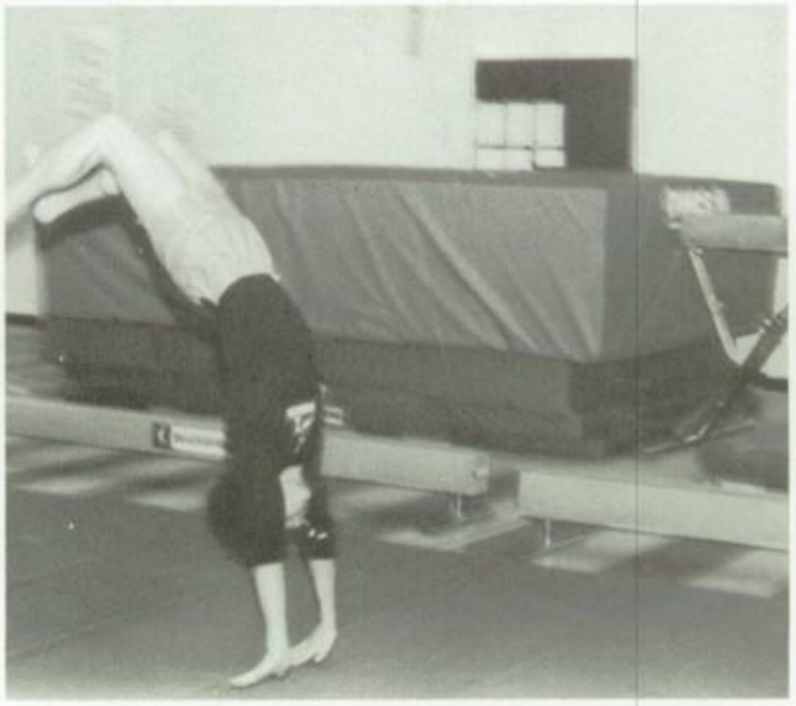
Deep concentration: Frosh Matt McIntosh fights the parallel bars to keep his form straight and immobile.



The Scot gymnastics team continued their competitive style and showed increasing promise through the progression of the season. With a squad composed to a great extent of freshmen and sophomores, the gymnasts steadily improved their skills on the rings, pommel horse vault and floor exercise.

The men's team did extremely well, considering that all but one student were new. Veteran team member Richard Bunten was joined by Josh Larson, Peter Shriver, Preston Woods, Mark Nicolas, Matt McIntosh, Benito Bennett and Ben Callan through the season. Both teams looked to Coach Mark Sherman for their guidance, and he responded by praising them highly: "Both teams are very good considering how young they are, and this is a good foundation for producing state champs!"

Olympics 1988?: Jr. Mark Nicolas flip-flops himself over backwards doing a back handspring during morning practices.

It's a bird: Benito Bennett rings himself out while practicing for their last meet.

Frosh Scot gymnast Preston Woods defies the laws of gravity during his bar performance at the Richardson meet.

The "Nadias" of the 83-84 Girls' Gymnastics Team: Row 1 — Missie Massey. Row 2 — Jennifer Livingston, Beth Eldridge, Jennifer Woodcock. Row 3 — Anna Hampton, Julie Rudolph, Elizabeth Egan, Captain Julie Dolan.

Tumblina: Frosh Jennifer Livingston forward rolls during her floor exercises at Richardson.

Centrifugal force: Soph Jennifer Woodcock throws herself over the bar into a front flip.

Fly like an eagle: Frosh Elizabeth Egan takes a flying leap in midair over the unseen beam.

Fission: Lady gymnasts Missie Massey and Julie Dolan balance on the straightaway with toes pointed.

The 1983-84 Varsity Gymnastics Teams overcame many obstacles to achieve a successful season against some tough competitors (including a few former state Champions). Compulsory and optional routines became common place, and earning 8's and 9's (top scores) became a habit.

The women's team competed in the vault, uneven bars, balance beam and floor exercise. Senior Captain Julie Dolan was the main factor in keeping the team together. She led Beth Eldridge, Anna Hamtpon, Jennifer Woodcock, Missie Massey, Julie Rudolph, Jennifer Livingston, and Elizabeth Egan.

Although the flu epidemic and minor injuries plagued both teams, the men and women showed their determination by working out at 7:30 a.m. every morning and several times after school as well. Both teams were awarded a successful season and have high hopes for the future.

SOCCER

Not his foot, the ball!: JVer Mike Stewart (4) blocks that kick while Brad Duphorne looks on and John Doke (11) lurks, ready to spring.

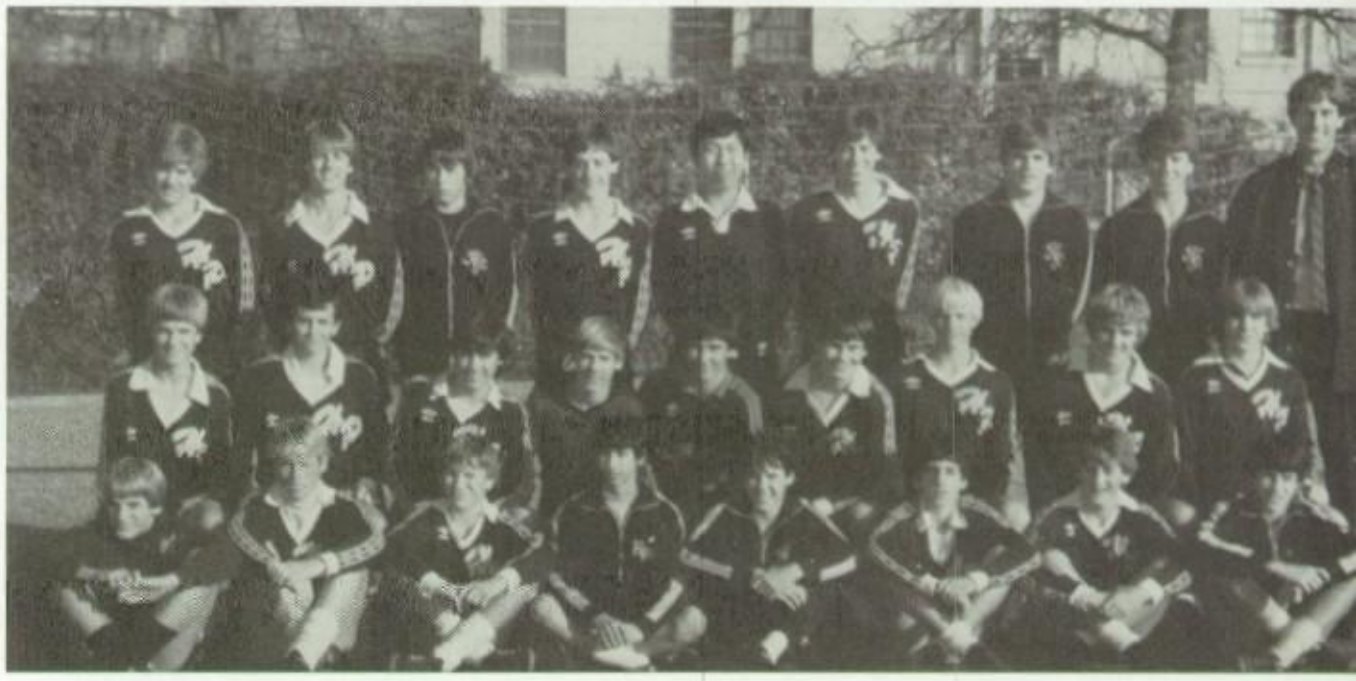
Time out: During the infamous North Mesquite soccer game, the brave referee had to tell the NM coach that his fans would have to move to the other side of the stadium.

The 1983-84 Varsity Boys' Soccer Team : Row 1 — John Ware, Shawn McMillan, Paul Hutson, Steve Stephens, Marlowe Muldoon, Ted Kern, David Thompson, Payne Lancaster, Jimmy Holmes, Allen McConnell, Craig White. Row 2 — Will Pettinger, Geoff Doke, James Faulk, Stephen Jennings, Tommy McBride, Jim Henderson, Joey Carlton, David Rogers, Tim Marron, James Caswell, Greg Adair, David Sweeney, Coach David Fricke.

"Our slogan is obscene" marked the 83-84 Boys' Soccer Teams, who had a great season. Their pre-season record was 4-1-1 (9 goals for; 3 against), with a 6-0 mark halfway through the year.

Strong competition came in the form of Lakeview, North Garland, and the North Mesquite Stallions of course, who were defeated by the HP Varsity on Feb. 6, 1984, with a score of 3 to 1 despite a few minor interruptions. The Soccer Scots kicked their way to a third place in the North Dallas Tournament, and they placed 2nd in Irving. St. Marks was also defeated (just ask any HP female) in the last few minutes by a score of 2-1, and the Varsity cleated Garland 8 to 0 (they didn't have a JV).

The HP Soccermen believed "this is the year", and indeed it was, especially under the "ex" leadership of Coach David Fricke and Quad-Captains Joey Carlton, Stephen Jennings, Payne Lancaster, and Tim Marron.



The 1983-84 Junior Varsity Boys' Soccer Team: Row 1 — Chris Edwards, Kevin Martin, Patrick Krejs, Robe Nadau-du-treil, Matt Berry, George Sadaris, Whitney Blanton, Doug Noell. Row 2 — Kevin Gore, Scott Sypu Drew Robilio, Chrys Fisher, Aaron Ware, John Winslow, Glenn Krueger, Herbie Deer, Richie Owen. Row 3 — Mi Stewart, John Doke, Alan Hall, Grant Coffee, Peter Lee, John Soukup, Jamie Baker, Randall Ward, Coach Do Miller.

Shazam: Sr. Stud John Ware prepares his leg to knock the air out of the spotted ball.

The Fearsome Foursome: 83-84 Soccer Captains obviously are Stephen Jennings, Joey Carlton, Tim Marron, and Payne Lancaster.

What a foot: Soph Karla Ham still practices her form despite an early blizzard and invisible turf.

Hello, polka dots: Sr. Deanne Meadows employs perfect timing and precision before smashing the ball downfield against Mesquite.

Is it worth it?: Sr. Soccer Captains Susan Martin, Nancy Truitt, and Emily Christian just barely survive another soccer battle (against NM, maybe?), but thanks to Jeff Kilpatrick, alias James, they make it back to the bubble in time.

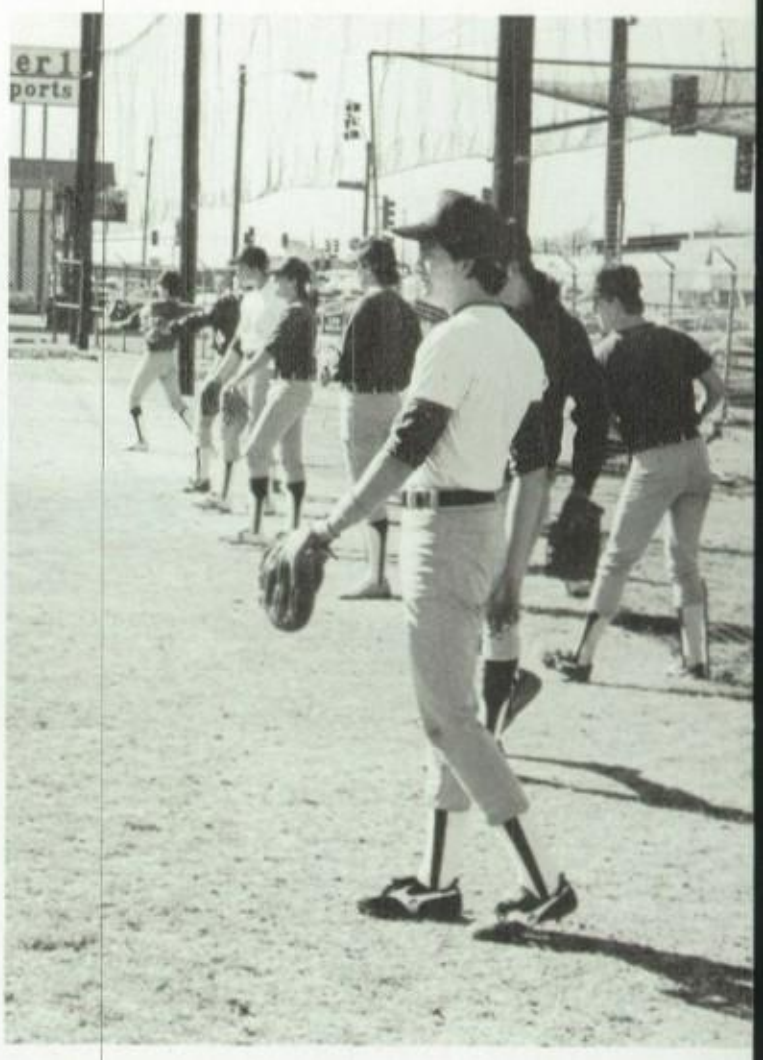
Way to boot it: Jr. Sharon Bradley knocks the ball into enemy territory while Elizabeth Schooler, Laurie Wyly, Polly Simpkins, and Lisa Wyly await its landing.

The incredible 83-84 Junior Varsity Girls' Soccer Team: Row 1 — Cameron Johnston, Susanna Stocks, Ashley Alexander, Courtney Rhodes, Anne Acton, Laura Mighell, Gwen Atwood. Row 2 — Amy Todd, Tiffany Pollard, Kathy McLane, Susan Sharpe, Catherine Turner, Crickett Rollins, Kathy Young, Lara Atwood, Coach Mindy Simmons.

The Girls' Soccer Team had a winning season this year. Led by Captains Nancy Truitt, Susan Martin, and Emily Christian, the Scots defeated Bryan Adams, R. L. Turner, Mesquite, Lakeview, North Garland, Garland and last year's State Champions, Kimball. Coach Mindy Simmons and her team put in a lot of effort this year, and it showed. Don't forget — "Where's the turf, people," "they're coming to get you," "Puffballs."

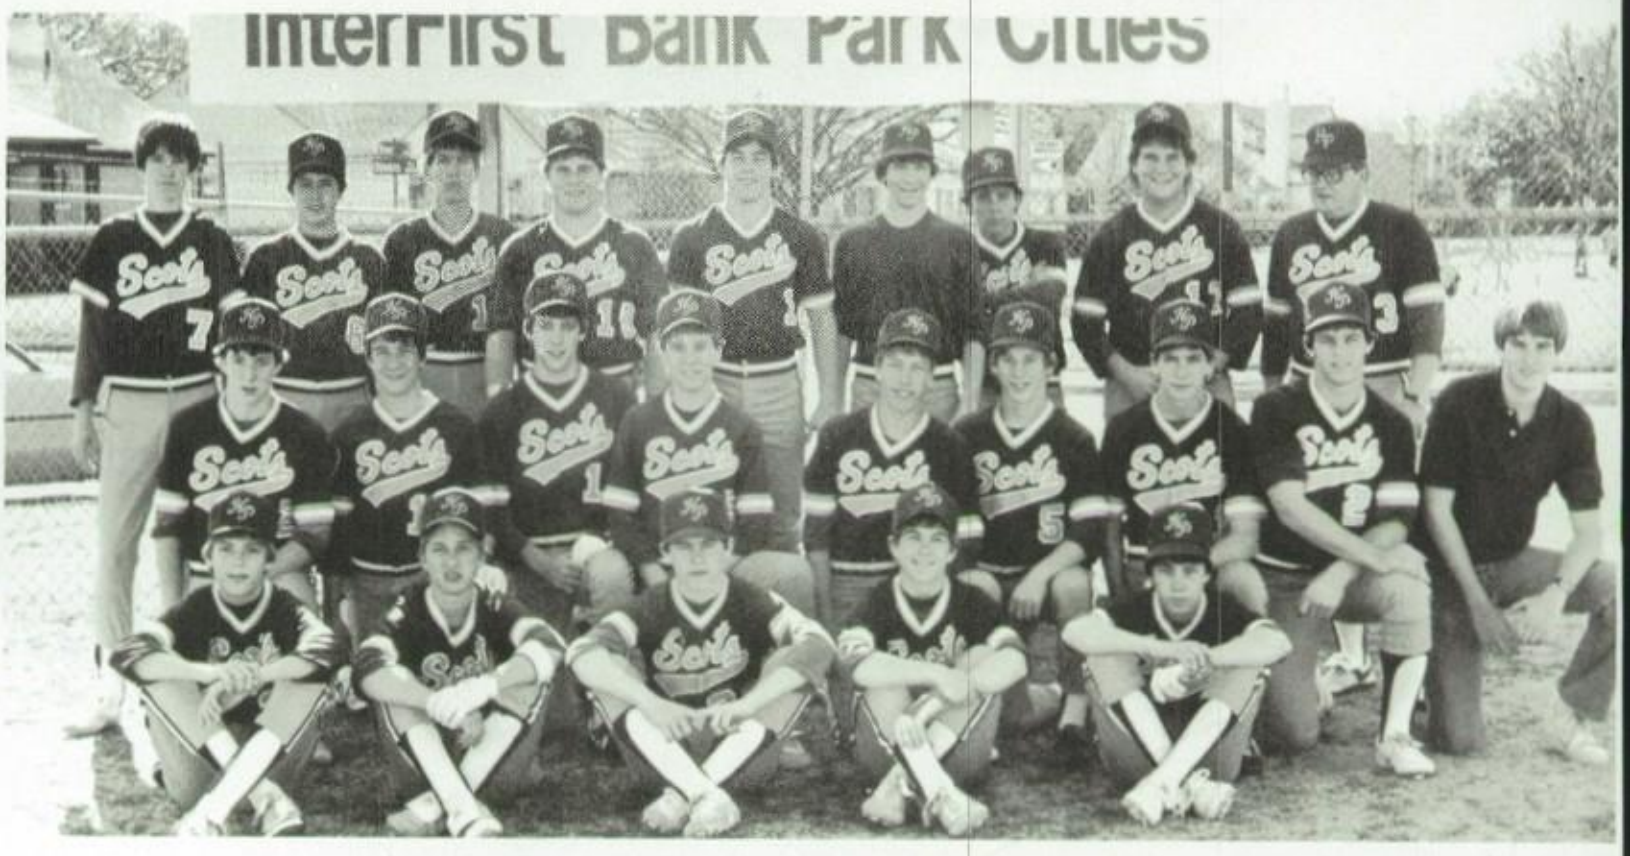
Girls' Junior Varsity Soccer also had a successful season, beating both E.S.D. and a tough competitor, North Mesquite. Also coached by Mindy Simmons, these girls put in a lot of time and effort, and they finished in the top of District play. Melinda Fender and Catherine Turner shared goalkeeping responsibilities, while Courtney "Tank" Rhodes and Captain Anne Acton were great assets to this young team. In addition, the formidable forward line was manned by Lara Atwood, Kathy Young, and Cameron Johnston.

BASEBALL



Just call me stud: Sr. Trevor Walker saunters out onto the field during practice, glove in hand.

Watch the base: Jr. Jamie Plumlee prepares for a steal while keeping a close watch on the pitcher.



Runner going home: Soph Adam Huitt charges down the final stretch to chalk another one up for the Scot Baseballers.

The "stand back" 83-84 Junior Varsity Baseball Team: Row 1 — Mark Reynolds, John Waggoner, Mike Wood, Carter Livingston, Murray McCabe. Row 2 — Kell Williard, Wilson Shirley, Matt Shea, Johnny Thompson, David Rather, Chris Robertson, Steve Elliston, Mike Stone, Craig Row 3 — John Kull, Tyler Burke, Chris Adams, David Wortheimer, Will Snyder, Bo Bowman, Coach Smith.

"Strike!" shouted the umpire after Sr. Walt Holmes threw one of his deadly curve balls.

Good eye: Frosh Mike Wood gives an ear to Coach Smith, and wonderful things start to happen on the dirt.

Don't hit me!: A terrified Murray McCabe starts to duck while Will Snyder practices his batting near the fence. (Tyler Burke is oblivious to it all.)

Casey at the bat: No, it's really Walt "Let's play some ball" Holmes slugging another HOMERUN onto the turf in Highlander Stadium.

What a save: Sr. Scott Thomas grabs another pitch out of the air during practice.

Once again spring is here and baseball fever is hitting hard. Coach Al Hawes led the Scots into action for the fourth year, and Captains Craig Sessions, Paul Stockard and Walt Holmes pitched the team to championships. Infield power was provided by Scott Thomas on second base and by Jamie Plumlee at short stop.

The hardball Scots played in their first tournament at Richardson on March 8-10, then at the Carrollton-Farmer's Branch Tournament on March 15-17. The team's goal is to play in the District Playoffs on May 2-5.

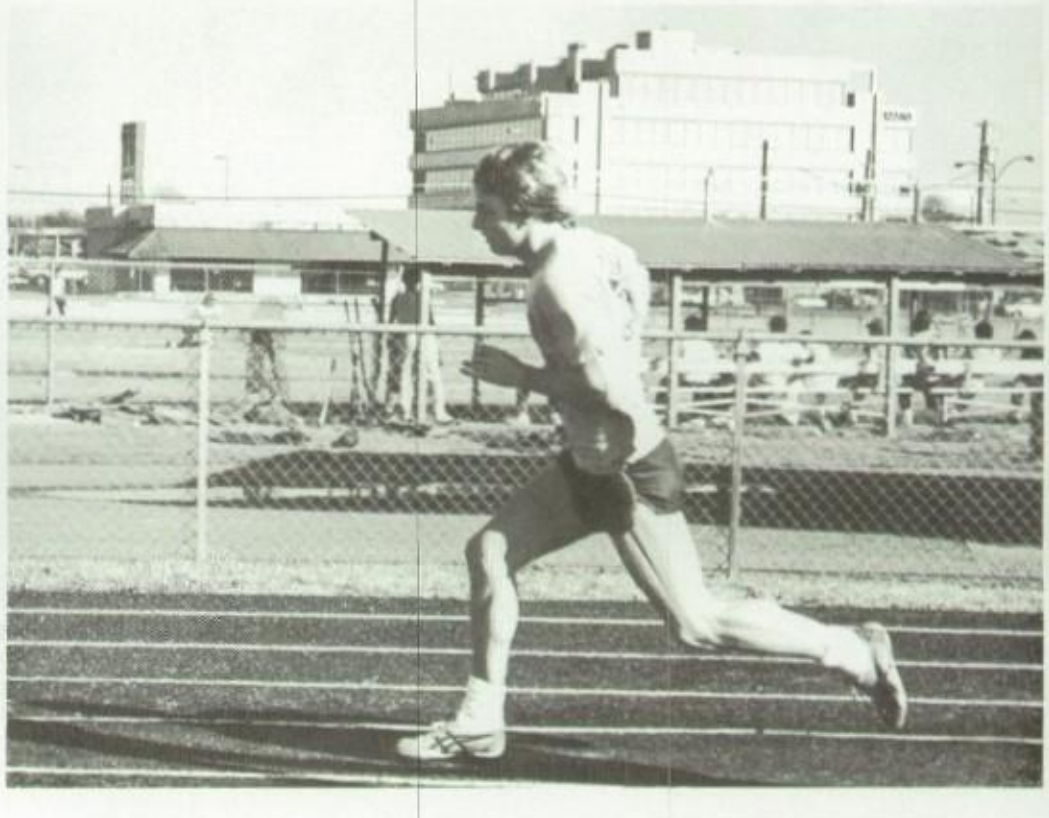
The squad is hopeful and counting on some strong defense and strong hitting to insure a successful season.

TRACK

The 83-84 Men of Track: Row 1 — Michael Lane, Chuck Hutchison, Whit Roberts, Sandy Spangler, Jack Mayfield, Trez Patrick, Bill Adams. Row 2 — Charlie Zambori, Jack Breard, Lath McLeod, Steve Terry, John Cooper, C. D. Shamburger, James Hollingsworth. Row 3 — Greg McCullough, Walton Taylor, Rob Addison, Scott Kuehn, Jeff Whorton, Blake Houston, Claude Nadau-du-Treil. Row 4 — Dick Hunter, Chris Tansil, Mark Mathes, Alan Stotts, Joel Nash, John Forster, David Richards. Row 5 — Skip Tasker, Wayne Willey, Mark Yeoman, John Emmett.

Not now, I'm stretching!: Sr. John Cooper obviously doesn't wish to be bothered when preparing for a race.

. . . set, pow: Sr. James Faulk leaps out of the blocks at the boys' 1st Tri-Meet on Feb. 13, 1984.



Senior Track Captains Trez Patrick, Sandy Spangler, and Jack Mayfield "doing their thing," as Kelty Barber jogs by.

H.P.'s men tracksters competed in numerous meets this spring. They began the year with a fourth place finish in the Richardson meet, with many outstanding performances. David Richards competed well in the shot and discus while Jack Mayfield and Trez Patrick scored points in the 300 meter hurdles and 400 meter run, respectively. Other outstanding tracksters were Greg McCullough, Trey Hill, Lee Blaylock, James Faulk, and Michael Lane. These hard working men had a successful season, placing second in the District. David Richards, (shot put and discus), Jack Mayfield (100m hurdles), and Chuck Hutchison (300m hurdles) all qualified for Regionals.

And Steve Terry let loose the discus . . .

3 in a row: Tracksters Helen Ellis, Kathy Lumpkin, and Jeannie Smith charge down the cinder towards the tape for a clean sweep of the 880 at their 1st meet.

It's a bird, it's a plane, it's . . .: Frosh Kendall Jordan sails over the bar with feet to spare during Time Trails on Feb. 10, 1984.

"Gotta get ready for Saturday." With that thought in mind, H.P.'s women runners continued their winning streak this spring. Coach Mouser led the team to a second place finish in the Richardson track meet, and a first place finish in the Mesquite Meet in early March.

For the 4th year in a row, the ladies placed first in District. Stefani Miller (discus), Rodney Montgomery (shot put — new record), Kendall Jordan (high jump), Helen Ellis and Julie Soukup (880) all qualified for the Regional meet April 18-19. Crystal McGuire once again went to state in the 1 and 2 mile runs, along with the 1st-ever in HP history mile relay of Kelty Barber, Julie Soukup, LuAnne Staley, and Michele Taylor.

Classy Senior Track Captains Kelty Barber, Michele Medlock, and Jeannie Smith display their spikes and sophistication at the Mansion on Turtle Creek.

Drugs?: Jr. Diane Vandermeer glues her shades on the finish line, waiting anxiously for the 1st toe to cross.

True grit shows on the face of Sr. hurdler Dinah Miller as she flies over her 1st obstacle into a 3-step at the Richardson Tri-Meet.

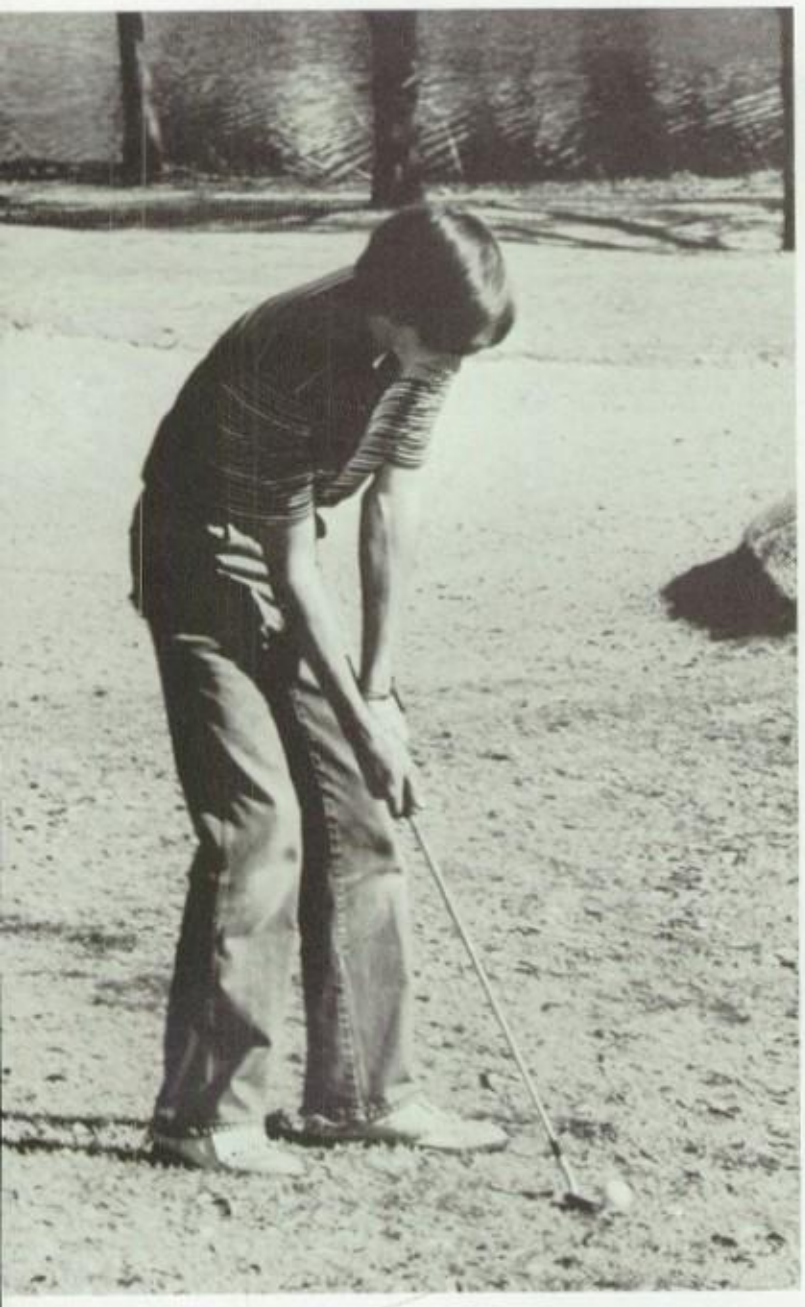
GOLF

Despite the loss of several key players from last year, the golf teams from HP showed potential. As they prepared for district play, the teams practiced diligently at the Dallas Country Club, getting in at least nine holes of golf a day. Coach Coy Williams led both teams and said he felt that especially the girls' team had shown improvement.

The Lady Golfers of 1983-1984: Row 1 — Elizabeth Augur, Gina Bishop, Caroline Clark. Row 2 — Blakeney Bobbitt, Courtney Bobbitt, Tracy Adleta, Coach Williams.

Introducing the Captainess and the Captain of the HP Golf Teams: Junior Courtney Bobbitt and Senior Richard Emery.

An afternoon on the course: Jr. Carter York prepares for a drive . . . right into the water trap at DCC!



How about a birdie?: Sr. Jack Sharp plants his feet just right in hopes of sinking the ball.

The 1983-84 Men of Golf: Row 1 — Robbie Adams, Brian King, Bill Calloway, John Webb, Kurt Peterson. Row 2 — Ted Shoemaker, Jack Sharp, Scot Henderson, Mac Payne. Row 3 — Carter York, Brent Wingert, Johnny Warren, Doug Jordan, Andrew McCaig. Row 4 — Richard Emery, Tony Faulkner, John Cain, Brad Hatcher. Row 5 — Coach Williams.

Oh no, not the sand trap: Sr. Richard Emery tries again to get out of the ditch before he scores a double bogey.

BASKETBALL

The very first Lady Scot Basketball Team: Row 1 — Amy Todd, Catherine Turner, Tina Summers, Suzanne Phillips, Mimi Thompson, Stacy Smith. Row 2 — Coach Debbie Hill, Kathy Coe, Carolyn Filak, Gigi Duwe, Erin Boydston, Lydia Hooton, Jenny Greenberg.

Dribble it, pass it, we want a basket: Frosh Gigi Duwe (55) races back up the court, rebound in hand.

Shoot, Kathy!: Frosh Kathy Coe (44) finally evades enough Eagles to attempt a 2-point bucket.

Moving in for the layup: Freshman Carolyn Filak makes practice perfect with the swish of the net.

Announcing Highland Park High School's newest sport, Freshman Girls' Basketball. The team this year was made up of ten members. The team includes: Erin Boydston, Kathy Coe, Gigi Duwe, Carolyn Filak, Jenny Greenberg, Lydia Hooton, Suzanne Phillips, Stacy Smith, Mimi Thompson, and Catherine Turner. The team is led by the Captains Kathy Coe and Catherine Turner. Kathy is also the team's leading scorer.

The team is very dedicated and works very hard before school and during first period. The team continues to improve with every game under the guidance of Coach Debbie Hill. Although the team has been plagued with several illnesses and injuries, the team looks forward to next year as they will have more experience and be comprised of both Freshmen and Sophomores.

Overall, the team did a great job in representing our school in this new area.

The two captainettes: Freshmen Kathy Coe and Catherine Turner are caught in the flash with their favorite toy.

Go for that ball: Frosh Erin Boydston (45) reaches up to the ceiling after winning the toss against the Garland Owls.

BOOSTER BUNCH

Rosanne Chantilis and Molly Martindale deserve a thank-you from every football player — if not for their organization and creative talents, the boys would go empty-handed on Fridays.

Part of the Senior Class: What would these boys do without the support of girls like Frances Blackwell, Kelty Barber, Julie Briggs, Lauri Duvall, Julie Terry, Christie Carter, Suzanne Webb, Gretchen Hagerman, Anne Worsham, and Amy Sargeant? Absolutely nothing!

Believe it or not, people, Rosanne Chantilis actually painted this run-through . . . not Leonardo or Michel!

The HP Varsity Football Team received much support from the enthusiastic Booster Bunch, who chose a football player to be their "guy" for the football season. Much time and creative effort was spent as the girls came up with candy, cookies, pillows, and teddy bears to bestow on the deserving Scot players.

Even before the season began, the Booster Bunch held a meeting to allow each girl or pair of girls to pick their favorite football players. Once that chore was finished, schedules were then posted detailing what gift should be given when. Cow Bells, picture frames, and cleverly inscribed styrofoam cups were only a few of the ideas dreamed up by Booster Bunch Chairmen Rosanne Chantilis and Molly Martindale. Aside from decorating the players' lockers, the Booster Bunch also created the halftime run-through signs for the games and organized football parties to celebrate each victory.

The Booster Bunch's final gift was to the graduating Varsity players — a scrapbook filled with pictures and mementoes of the 1983 winning Scot season.

DRILL TEAM

The Radio City Music Hall "Parkettes."

The leading ladies: Toni Rothpletz: vice president, Carol Rubarts: chaplain, Meredith Glasscock: president, Tracy Adleta: treasurer, Holly Chamness: secretary.

Dominoe's delivers . . . on a bus? A few Belles gather at the back of the bus for a bite to eat on the way to the game.

Perfection as far as the eye can see.

Anticipation: The team waits for their opening notes.

The new addition to the HP Sports program this year was the Highland Belles. The drill team was composed of Sophomore, Junior, and Senior girls who tried out last spring before a panel of judges. Kathy Wheat sponsored and directed this talented group of ladies, who performed during halftime at football games and a few basketball matches. In addition to the first-ever halftime entertainment, the Belles raised spirit in the stands.

In January, the Belles traveled to New Orleans via Southwest for official competition. Although their first competition, the girls danced to a first division rating for all three of their routines. In addition, they won the overall Sweepstakes award at the end. Congratulations!

Congratulations!

Eat your heart out, Michael Jackson: Beth Wilson and Stephanie Storm perform to "Billy Jean."

What a feeling: T. Adleta, R. Randolph Wilson, T. Rothpletz, H. Chamness, and S. are all smiles after an awesome performance

Nobody's perfect at 7:00 in the morning!

P.Y.T.: The Belles capture the crowd's attention at the . basketball game.

A picture is worth a thousand words: The Belles received a first division rating for their kick routine at competition in New Orlean e charter team: Row 1 — Sonya Roark, April Abney, Laura Norman, Tina Bernet, Susan Shelton, Annie Wetsel, Michelle Streckmann, Diane lch, Melissa Cheatum, Carolyn Cash. Row 2 — Susan Floyd, D'Ann Trammell, Toni Rothpletz, Renee Randolph, Lisa Franckhauser, Carol barts, Holly Chamness, Ashley McLain, Cyndi Parker, Kim Jacobs. Row 3 — Elizabeth Mayfield, Tracey Taylor, Tracy Adleta, Beth Wilson, phanie Storm, Shannon Kelly, Meredith Glasscock, D'Ann Pletcher, Robyn Plumlee, Gypsie Fulgham.

Never forget to be truthful and kind. Hold these virtues tightly. Write them deep within your heart. If you want favor, with both God and man, and a reputation for good judgement and common sense, then trust the Lord completely; don't ever trust yourself. In everything yo' do, put God first, and He will direct you and crown your efforts with success.

In conclusion, We, the Editors of the 1984 Highlander, are "so sick of this we could scream." After we can't tell you how many sleepless nights, late deadlines, no copy, no captions, changed page numbers, and we'll spare you the rest, we finally did our homework, got some sleep, and returned to normality.

zzzzzzzzzz

We would just like to thank once again Jennifer Haschke, Sheila Wallace, Hilary Smith, our own photographers, Bradley's (Jim) , Kincaid's, Picture Perfect (One Hour Moto-Photo) , and not to mention our second home, tpc , especially our favorites Deb (b) i (e) G (r) irlinghouse and Acie Mitchell.

"Xanadu" — We love our photographers!

What's wrong with this picture?

Let it also be noted that Stephanie Storm and Amy Taylor, our wooonderful Business Managers, were the first to not oversell the ads. In addition, many thanks to Courtney Bobbitt and Elizabeth Wylie for their sections, shrieks, social lives, and for just being our friends, and CARP (or should we say Mrs. Paul O'Connor), for all her understanding, photography, and nervous breakdowns. And last but definitely not least, our dear, supportive families, for putting up with our procrastination and messy rooms.

We really love this book, and hope you do, too. In case you still haven't realized that a theme exists in Volume 61 of the Highlander, it's the . . .

PEOPLE!

This was supposed to be on the cover . . .

After all, PEOPLE really do

"need people."

Let's celebrate — we're through!!!

Rick -

Well, I think we've come a long way this year and I know that next year will be even greater. You and Mary Katherine are the greatest. You better hang on to that chick as long as you can because girls like that come around about once every million years. Anyway, stay cool, man, because friends like you are hard to find - Have a good summer.

DJ

Dick Ford Jr.

Loved having you as one of my best friends this year. You've been tons cool to me. I call you this summer & we can go veg. at the pool.

Have a good one. Stay cool

DREW

P.S. ~~Don't~~ Don't lose Mary K. She's so cool. You sure know how to pick um!

P.S. ~~Uh~~ Don't let the barber get to your hair. Frames cost money!
